They Mix Thanksgiving Day On Mars Hill Gridiron

Coaches Christenbury and Farthing, and their two leaders, Taggart and Proctor, are shown at the right figuring together on best plans to defeat Mars Hill Lions on Thanksgiving Day.

The annual event will be played at Mars Hill, and if Brevard fans runs true to form, there will be more Transylvanians at the game than there are Madisonians.

So far, Brevard has been unable to defeat Roberts' squad, but the boys are looking forward eagerly to Thursday's tilt, believing that 1938 will be a different story. Below the Mars Hill squad is shown.

Here is the pack of Mars Hill Lions who have been giving their opposition plenty of trouble this year on the football field. They close their season on Thanksgiving day when they tackle Brevard at Mars Hill in their annual turkey day clash.

In Memory Of BOBBY ENGLISH

The hand of Death reached out and snatched the life of little Robert Thomas English on Monday, November 14, and took from our community a ray of sunshine and a well of happiness.

Without warning, the three and one-half year old child was struck by an automobile and life ebbed slowly from his battered body until near the midnight hour when doctors were forced to give up their fight to save the tiny life and the soul was wafted to Heaven as the morning of another day was seeking entrance to the day nearly gone, and sorrow crept in and shadowed the North Brevard community as the bright face of Bobby paled in death.

Last rites for the lad were conduct-
