BUS LINE WILL BE STARTED JANUARY 20 TO GREENVILLE

Greyhound Corporation Plans Round Trip Daily Via Cedar Mountain

Announcement has been made that the Atlantic Greyhound Bus corporation will start bus service from Brevard to Greenville on Friday, January 20.

Only one round trip per day will be made at the beginning of the schedule, according to statement from headquarters of the corporation in Charleston,

Plans of the company are to increase the daily runs as demand increases. Definite schedule will be announced in The Times prior to opening of the route, and will probably call for a round trip through run from Asheville to Greenville via Brevard, leaving Brevard about 10:30, and arriving back here

The bus will come by way of Hendersonville to Brevard, making Cedar Caesar's Head, Travelers Rest, and other local stops along the Fares will be 25 cents from Brevard to Cedar Mountain or State line; 30 cents to Caesar's Head; 70 cents to Travelers Rest; and 95 cents to Greenville. Round trip fares will be 10 per

High School Library Requests Magazines

The Brevard high school requests for the year 1938 who would be willin touch with the principal, R. T. Kimzey, who will be glad to send pupils to the homes for the magazines.

Those magazines which are most needed are: The American Magazine, Collier's, Saturday Evening Post, Read-er's Digest, The Atlantic Monthly, The Nation, Country Home Magazines, The Pathfinder, Holland's, and Time.

The purpose of the magazines is to assist the school's 356 pupils in finding material for a national contest on one of the subjects: "What I Owe America and What America Owes Me," or "New Frontiers for American

LEGISLATURE OPENS SESSION IN RALEIGH

Kimzey Representing Transylvania County-Short Term Looked Forward To his second term in the legislature on the medical profession, but it see Wednesday.

Mrs. Kimzey and young daughter, Patricia Ann went with Mr. Kimzey, and will spend some time with the fora caucus held Tuesday night. Libby Ward of Craven county was elected speaker of the house, with W. Erskine Smith of Albemarle as president pro tem of the senate.

The governor's annual message will be delivered Thursday, and the legislators are expected to get down to work by Friday afternoon of this week.

Important legislation of statewide importance expected to be taken up at the 1939 session includes the sales tax fight, liquor elections, absentee ballot law, addition of 12th grade to public schools, salary raises for teachers, establishment of a state department of justice, and homestead exemptions. State leaders state that they expect to complete the session within sixty days.

· Little Theatre Meeting

The regular meeting of the Little Theatre will be held Friday evening of this week at 8:15 o'clock at the city hall room, announcement has been made by the president, Mrs. John Verner. Miss Lucile Smith will be in charge of the program,

MICKIE SAYS-

TH' BOSS SEL," MY IDEA CF A REAL MAN IS A FELLER Y'KIN SEND THE PAPERTO A YEAR ORSO, WHEN HE IS HARD UP. WHO WILL COME IN LATER N PAY UP AND THANK YOU!

Chronology of 1938 In This Week's Issue

What happened in the world Important events in America, foreign countries, in the world of sports, disasters that occur-red, are listed in chronological order in The Transylvania Times.

Persecution, aggression, poli-tics, and floods, were leading items of interest during the year, according to survey compiled by John D. Grant for his news-

President Ball Plans Are Being Made By Committee In County

Harold E. Kilpatrick of Brevard has been appointed county chairman of the president's ball committee for Transyl- former Brevard boy, was a guest; also vania, and Mrs. J. E. Osborne chairman Lee M. Bauer of the Ecusta corporaat Rosman.

in a few weeks, date and place to be D. Clement, with his son, Verne. announced later. Mr. Kilpatrick, in announcing tentative plans for the ball makes the following statement:

Somebory-nobody connected with the white house, with politics, or with Mr. Rosevelt—asked me the become chairman of a committee to provide a fund to fight infantile paralysis in Transylvania County. There is one slight reaction which is both curious and unusual. I find a very distinct resist-It is apparently based on the fact that a program to finance a similar fight started several years ago, with a series of birthday balls celebrating that any citizens who have magazines the president's popularity. Funds collected above expenses provided money to improve conditions at Warm Springs leave them at the high school or get and for medical research into the as tion have been circulated in Buncombe yet undiscovered causes of this dis- for a week, and the parties in charge

I saw some of that and certainly approved it, it was showmanship in a upon the board of commissioners and good cause. But what is being tried election board to call an election withthis year is very different. It attempts in less than a week's time. to set up a permanent fund to carry the fight into every county and make it continuous. The main idea is, during election for Buncombe county and January to secure small contributions from people who cannot afford to make large ones. The effort is completely up and operating in said county a liqnon-political and non-personal.

As has been mentioned here before, the question of getting sufficient medical attention for the poor by having them contribute a little in the nature of insurance from day to day, in the hope of receiving medical aid when necessity comes, has become foremost servative groups of the medical profes-

This new resistance against the drive Representative Pat Kimzey left here vice for the piteous sufferers of in-Sunday for Raleigh where he began fantile paralysis does not come from for governor in 1936. even more unkind. It is made on the ground that the effort is too closely personalized and tied up with the President's wel lknown suffering from mer's mother, Mrs. Sprinkle in Reids- the same disease. The effort in Brevard and, aes I am told, everywhere, will not be based on the circumstance that the president was once a victim of this disease or that the day of the end of the drive happens to be his birthday. It will be conducted on ex- by the city manager and chairman of actly the theory of the attempts to the county board of commissioners, but provide funds to combat tuberculosis and cancer. It has no POLITICAL or personal aspect whatsoever.

New Year Event Very Ouiet In Community

The New Year was ushered in here very orderly Sunday morning, with only a few firecrackers popping, and very little noise, comparatively speaking.

In several sections of the town bells were rung, and a number of watch parties were in progress as the stroke of twelve o'clock rang out.

Former Resident Dies In New Mexico Home

Friends in Brevard received news Wednesday morning of the death on Monday of E. W. Young, in Albuquerque, N. M. Mr. Young was the son of the late Dr. George W. Young and Ella Orr Young, formerly of Brevard. Mr. Young's late father was for many years post master at Brevard, in the early days of the town's history.

For a number of years Mr. Young the son, was connected with the Southern Railway and Western Union Telegraph company in Asheville, being transferred later to Denver, Colo., and then to the New Mexico city.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Maude Jarrett Young; three sons and three

Pansy Plant Order Taken By Auxiliary

Orders for high quality nursery pansy plants are being taken by ladies of the Presbyterian Auxiliary. Orders given now will be delivered in about two weeks, it has been announced.

Since it is about time to set out pansy plants for early string blooming, those desiring to place orders for them are requested to get in touch, by phone or otherwise, with the fol-lowing members of the Auxiliary committee: Mrs. C. L. Newland, Mrs. Boyce Walker, Mrs. T. H. Shipman, Mrs. Frank Patton and Mrs. Cappell.

New President Takes Charge of Kiwanis At Thursday Meeting

The Rev. Charles M. Jones will take over active duty as president of the Brevard Kiwanis club on Thursday of this week. He succeeds Dr. E. J. Coltrane, who ended his term of office last Thursday.

Other officers to take their places in the Kiwanis club Thursday for the en-suing year are: Dr. H. J. Bradley, vice president; Randall Lyday, secretary; Harry Sellers, treasurer; C. E. Buck-ned, E. J. Coltrane, J. B. Jones, R. T. Kimzey, Dr. C. J. Goodwin, Julian Glazener, and Ralph Ramsey, direc-

L. F. Dixon, technician, with the Ecusta Paper corporation, will be guest speaker at the club, and has been asked to discuss flax growing, and its relation to the agricultural interests in Western Carolina.

At the meeting last Thursday, Edwin Saltz of the St. Petersburg club, a tion with Ralph Ramsey; Bryan The annual affair will be given with- Hanks, of Miami Kiwanis club; and F.

BUNCOMBE COUNTY SEEKS LIQUOR LAW

Special Election Asked For By Whiskey Interests Around Asheville

Buncombe county will in all probability hold an election within the next few months to decide the question of operating ABC liquor stores in Asheville and the county.

Petitions requesting the special elecstate that they secured the required number of names making it mandatory

The petitions ask the county board of elections to "call a special liquor thereby submit to the qualified voters of said county the question of setting uor store, or stores, as provided in chapter 49 of the public laws of 1937.

C. S. Alley, taxi cab company manager, is directing the distribution of the petitions, and E. Zeph Roy, Asheville attorney, is attorney for the group.

Under provisions of the 1937 act, a special election on the question "shall in national attention, I have seen this be called in such county by the board popular demand growing constantly, of elections of such county only upon Resistance to it from the more con- the written request of the board of county commissioners therein, or upon sion under the epithet, "socialized med- a petition to said board of elections icine" seems as unwise as it is unkind. signed by at least 15 percent of the registered voters in said county that voted to sign the petitions. There were

After the petitions have been pre-sented to the board of elections, it will be necessary for the board to verify the names and qualifications of the sign-

In the event liquor stores should be profits would be split between the city and county under provisions of a spec-ial act of the 1937 legislature. The division of profits would be determined in no event would the city "receive less than 40 per cent," under provisions of the state law.

Weather Prophets Say Fine Climate Assured For Next Four Months

Many there are in Transylvania county who hold to the age-old belief that the first twelve days of the New Year each rule one month in the year. If this ruling be true, then January, February, March and April will be the kind of weather that causes homelovers to start puttering about the flower garden, and the truck-growers to get down seed catalogs and begin planning just which vegetables shall be planted where and when.

Another school hold that first twelve days after Christmas make up the ruling monthly calendar, and taking this as true, July, August, September and October will be hot, dry, and windy.

Rosman Young Man In Broadcast Over N B C

A. M. White, Jr., of Rosman, attended the national convention of the Phi Mu Alpha chapter in Washington, D. C., during the holidays.

While in the capital city, Mr. White sang over the NBC broadcast with 100 male voices. He also attended Mrs. Roosevelt's reception in the White House, and had the honor of shaking the hand of the president's wife.

Mr. White returned Monday to Furman University, Greenville, where he is assistant instructor in plane and is doing graduate work in music

New Arrivals

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hugon Thursday, December 29. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Emmerson Merrill, of Little River, a daughter, Elizaeth, on Monday, January 2.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cox a daughter, Ketha Fay, on Thursday, December 22. Mrs. Cox is the former Miss Ruby Lee Garren.

CCC Commander

RALPH L. WALDROP, of Cherryfield left last week for Ft. Bragg, where he will take over active duties as junior officer in the CCC.

Mr. Waldrop, a graduate of Breversity, served as junior officer with a ranking of 2nd lieutenant in the U. S. Army Reserve Corps at Ft. Moultrie, and also saw active duty at Fort Benning.

While enrolled in the CCC, Mr Waldrop did Army extension work, and won a place in the special officers' training school, upon completion of which course he was commissioned 2nd lieutenant.

He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Waldrop of Cherryfield.

Honor Roll

"Happy New Year" by navis by paying their subscriptions to the Home Paper and to them we say, thank you, and

Happy, Prosperous New Year. Mrs. J. M. Meece, Brevard R-2 W. H. McKelvey, Brevard R-1 Joe Duckworth, Brevard Mrs. Ola Sanders, L. Toxaway Mrs. Alice Bishop, Cedar Mtn. G. C. Morgan, S. C. M. W. Galloway, Brevard J. M. Blythe, Brevard, R-2 Rev. H. Perry, Brevard Mrs. D. G. Ward, Brevard Mrs. J. P. Whitmire, Pickens O. N. Siniard, Brevard T. A. Snyder, Pisgah Forest O. E. Merrill, Penrose Ralph Lyday, Brevard Mrs. Grace Howell, Candler A. C. Lyday, Brevard, R-2 Mrs. Mamie F. Galloway, Rosman N. A. Miller, Brevard Adgar Capp, Penrose B. F. Beasley, California E. P. Galloway, Dacusville E. N. McKelvey, Texas Mrs. Adelia Sothern. Brevard R-2

W. L. Morris, Pisgah Forest We are proud to announce that the following new subscribers have been added to our growing list since Wednesday of last week, adding to a paidin-advance list that already gives The Transylvania Times the most complete coverage of ANY newspaper published in North or South Carolina:

Robert McKinney, Brevard R-1 R. L. Waldrop, Fort Brags Alney McCall, Balsam Grove Miss Marie Meece, California Dr. Edwin P. Jones, Brevard R. L. Waldrop, Ft. Bragg Mrs. R. E. Fortesque, Brevard R-1 Mrs. E. P. McCoy, Pisgah Forest T. E. Kilpatrick, S. C. Mrs. Dessie Galloway, Rosman Emma Deavor, Raleigh John E Driscoll, Brevard Ira C. McCall, Balsam Grove Sidney Siniard, California.

Sewing Rooms and School Improvements Be Started In Transylvania Co.

Notice has been received from the office of Congressman Zeb Weaver that WPA projects for employment of both women and men have received presi-dential approval, and will become effective at once.

One is for the maintenance and operation of sewing rooms in the county, for which $23,246 has been set up. The making of rag rugs, and other household articles except mattresses from scrap material will be type of Products of the sewing rooms will the distributed free of charge to charitable institutions or to needy individ-The notification did not specify uals. number of employes.

Another project is for improvement of school grounds throughout the country, and for work on athletic fields and equipment at the schools. This project will start on January 16 and will employ 94 people for a period of six months, with $17,797 having been set up as expenditures. W. A. Wilson will have general supervision.

Mr. Wilson reports that 26 people have been laid off by the WPA in this county, due to the general cut through-out the country which went into af-fect at the end of the year,

Wilson Appointed To Sanatarian Post For

Algie W. Wilson of Clinton has taken over the post of sanitarian for the Transylvania Health Unit, assuming his duties here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and their two children have moved to the Hawkins house on Maple street.

Mr. Wilson is a graduste of Herea College, and following his graduation was water superintendent and milk inspector at Tryon. Since 1933 he has been connected with the State Board of Health in the sanitary department, and has served the past three years as sanitarian at Clinton in Sampson as sanitarian at Clinton in Sampson county.

Mr. Wilson received his appointment through the state department.

Mrs. Alfred Metcalf Dies Four Days After Death of Her Husband

Funeral services for Mrs. Alfred Metealf, 80, of Penrose, who died in Lyday Memorial hospital Thursday midnight were held at the Little River Baptist church Saturday morning. The services were in charge of Rev. Sherman Patterson, pastor of the church. In-terment was in the family cemetery

Mrs. Metcalf's death followed that of her husband by only four days. He died at his home Monday, December 26, and was buried in Madison county the following Wednesday.

Mrs. Metcalf was a member of a large family of the Little River section. Before a former marriage to William Wilson, who died in 1914, she was Sallie McCall. She lived for a number of years in Asheville, where she and Mr. Wilson were in the employ of the Connally's of Fernihurst, later moving back to make Transylvania county their home. Being a woman of a remarkable personality, she had a unit demonstration farms amounted to wide cricle of friends. She is survived $19,100. In addition four registered by one sister, Mrs. T. L. Pickelsimer, of Penrose, and a large number of nieces and nephews.

and one herd placed on the permanent Pallbearers were nephews, as fol-lows, A. B. McCall, Virgil McCrary, James McCall, Newton Pickelsimer, Bob Monteath, Harry Pickelsimer. The following nieces were in charge of flowers: Helen McCrary, Norma Ham-ilton, Naomi McCall, Helen Pickelsimer, Helen McKinna and Christine Pickel-

Rush Business Done In Brevard Saturday

Bargain counters could not compete Mrs. Mary Jane McCrary said at the end of the long day that she hoped she never would again be called on for with the rush done at the office, and as many licenses in one day. Total plates issued in Transylvania county through Saturday amounted to 817. At closing time Tuesday, January 8, the office reported total sales of 700 auto tags and 238 truck and trailer

One year ago the January 3rd closing tally showed only 461 for both trucks and cars. Tuesday night's records showed 930 total, or an increase of 469. The Motor Vehicle Bureau at Raleigh reported that 275,508 licenses were sold in the state as of closing Sunday night, compared with 261.064 through the same date in 1937.

State highway patrolmen have been instructed from the Raleigh office to arrest any driver not showing a 1939

College Students Back After Xmas Vacation

With the holidays over, students came back to Brevard College to resume their work.

Nearly all of the students arrived Monday or Monday night, although several will not come until later as their homes are a great distance away. With examinations just a few short weeks off. it means that the students will have to get back to normal in a

The next vacation the students will have will be the spring holidays, beginning April 6 and ending on the Several changes have been made in the arrangement of the offices at Brevard College.

The office of the department of pro otion and extension has been moved into a new home, giving more space for the great amount of work done by this department. The athletic, indus trial, and bureau of guidance division offices have been moved in order to give more space for their work.

A new physics laboratory is being constructed and will be ready in the ear future

Request For Books

A request has been made by the recreation center for donation of books suitable for the different interest levels to be placed in the recreation library.

Those having books to donate are asked to notify Miss Bertha Jean Hampton or bring the books to the office in the court house.

At Lyday Hospital
Patients reported at Lyday Memorial hospital on Wednesday were: Mrs. T.
G. Moody, Mrs. R. F. Mock, Ollis Cantrell, Harold Misenheimer and Jim

Livestock and Improved See Make Progress During Year Ending

Annual report of Junian Glazener, county agent, shows that much progress has been made in Transylvania during the past year along agricultural and livestock lines.

Summary of the report that records were kept completed on many of the farms in the county, and more busi-ness-like methods used in keeping expense and income items.

In the annuad plan of work 299 demonstrations were planned, 255 completed, and 17 underway.

In the soil conservation program 600 work sheets were planned, 909 were secured, 525 will draw some pay for complimance, with 375 failing to complete their contemplated practices. Farmers who cooperated with the conservation program in 1937 received $9.643.51, distributed among 369 farm-

The year just ended showed an increase of 345 acres of soil conserving crops over 1937, and there were 1470 acres of legumes turned under during 1938 for soil improvement, along with 423 tons of lime and 20 tons of basic

Eighteen acres of forest lands were improved, the report shows; 20,000 locusts and black walnut plantings set out, and 3,200 feet of approved terraces run. Sixty farmers planted improved seed corn; soil conserving crops and winter legumes nearly doubled that of the previous year, and 59 farmers who followed crop rotation and used super-phosphates reported increased yields. Investments in improved farms of 62 improvement plan; three water systems installed in country homes; three brooder houses, four brick brocders, and four laying houses constructed. Work stock in the county was increased by the addition of ten mule colts and five horse colts, and a new beef bulls were placed in the county during the year, one bull pen erected strain of purebred Hereford hogs was introduced into the county. Interest in the 4-H club work, the corn growing contest, record keeping, and in poultry was increased, the report shows, as well as home beautification. Copy of the annual report is on file Best business spot in Brevard Saturday was the Carolina Motor Club branch office, where 245 auto tags, and 78 truck and trailer tags were sold.

Bargain counters could not compete

AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Special Ser To Continue
Through W Noted Speaker In Charge

A fellowship revival is in progress at the Brevard Baptist church this week, conducted by the Rev. W. Perry Crouch, secretary of Christian educa tion of Baptist state missions of North Carolina. The general theme of the revival is, "The Abundant Life."

The special series of religious meetings, which started Monday night, are in session each night this week at the church at 7:30 o'clock. The pastor, the Rev. Yancey C. Elliott, has extended an invitation to the public to attend these nightly services.

Monday night's subject was, "Characterized by Absolute Surrender to the Will of God;" Tuesday evening's topic was, "Recognition of Jesus as Lord;" Wednesday night's topic was, "Partnership with God."

For the remainder of the week the following topics will be discussed: Thursday night, "Sharing with God;" Friday night, "Recognition of a Lost World." In connection with the Friday world." In connection with the Frida service, there will be an hour of movin pictures showing the work of Beptis in the Southland and foreign countrie A part of the pictures will be in colo This service will be held in the mai auditorium, the others in the chur-

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the subject will be "A More Vital Christ-ianity."

Attendance Increases At Schools Following Christmas Holidays

Attendance at most of the county schools showed an increase over the week before Christmas when work was resumed Monday morning, County Superintendent J. B. Jones reports

Several of the schools had fallen low in attendance due to the measles in the county, but with subsiding of the measles attendance is reported improv-

Art Class Moves

Wm. H. Offver, art instructs moving his instruction studio fro home on Rice street to the Br Grammar school building. The quarters will be occupied Mondanext week. The move was natorder to make attendance by children easier by being close to two schools.

County Flealth Work FARMING