Proposed TVA Dam Sites In County To Be Discussed

SMALL DAM SITES ARE RECOMMENDED BY LOCAL GROUPS

TVA And Transylvania Committees To Meet. Money Approved For Survey.

HARRIS IS CHAIRMAN

Possible dam sites for the Transylvania area of the Tennessee Valley Flood Control program will be discussed in a meeting here next week by engineers and leaders in the proposed program and members of the Transylvania Flood Control committee.

Proposals of the TVA made several months ago that three large dams be built in Transylvania county to be used only at high water periods were objected to by local people through the committee on the grounds that same results could be obtained by building several smaller dams on the French Broad and Little River streams, and a vast acreage of highly productive land saved from being practically taken out of cultivation.

One proposed control dam on Davidson River was given approval, but objections were voiced to the one in the Cathey's Creek section on the French Broad and the one in the Frank Shuford section on Little River.

In long distance conversation with the TVA here Monday it was pointed out that Congress has approved money for making further surveys and for drilling on dam sites. The Transylvania committee and TVA officials will confer here at the meeting next week on various phases of the two dams which have been objected to by the local organization.

The overall program is not being objected to, it is pointed out by the Transylvania group, but no

Total Sales Amount To $560,128. "E" Bond Purchases Still Count.

Transylvania county has gone over the top of its fifth war loan drive quota by a substantial margin, but it is lagging behind about $45,000 on its "E" bond quota. Chairman Ed McMahan announced today.

A grand total of $560,128.50 in all kinds of bonds have been sold or about 27 per cent over the $406,000.00 quota. The "E" bond sales to date, however, amount to only $113,000.00, while the quota is $158,000.

Sale of "E" bonds for the rest of the month of July count and McMahan today issued an urgent request for every one to buy extra "E" bonds between now and the first of August.

"I cannot overemphasize the importance of reaching our "E" bond quota," he stated.

Total bond sales during the fifth loan drive exceeded all previous records by approximately $11,000. "When the drive ends the last of the month, we should be over $600,000," McMahan said.

Approximately $260,000 worth were sold last Friday night at the county-wide rally held here at the high school.

A group of officers and enlisted men and two nurses from the Moore General hospital assisted in conducting the bond sales. They were introduced by Lt. George B. Faulder, who was wounded at Cassino.

Mrs. J. S. Silversteen was the principal speaker for the occasion and entertainment was furnished by Adelaide Van Wey who sang several war-inspired songs and by the Transylvania Music School-Camp band, under the direction of James Christian Pfohl.

Chairman McMahan presided at the rally and Rev. W. A. Jenkins gave the benediction.

Hudson Boy Struck By Car Here Tues.

Laverne Hudson, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dover Hudson, of the Little River section, suffered a broken collar bone late Tuesday afternoon when struck by a passing car at the intersection of Main and Broad streets in Brevard. He was taken at once to Transylvania community hospital by Chief Freeman, where he remained overnight and was removed the following morning to an Asheville hospital for X-ray examination.

As the boy was looking back while crossing the street, he failed to see the passing automobile, which was driven by Pfc. David Grossman, a serviceman who was en route from Cleveland, Ohio, to Fort Jackson. The fact that the car was not going at a high speed is given as the reason for the young boy not being more seriously injured. No charges were lodged against Grossman.

Boy And Girl Camps Are Observing Voluntary Quarantine, Though.

Contrary to rumors, there are no cases of infantile paralysis in Brevard or Transylvania county, a report from the county health department reveals.

In the piedmont section of North Carolina and in several mountain counties the disease is continuing to rage, but there are very few cases in adjoining Western North Carolina counties and no official cases have been reported here.

As a precautionary measure, however, all of the boy and girl camps in the county are observing a voluntary quarantine and are not allowing new campers from polio areas to enroll or the parents of campers from these areas to visit here.

Dr. C. N. Sisk, health officer, is advising parents to keep small children at home and away from gatherings even though there are no infantile paralysis cases in the county.

Latest official reports show that there are 64 cases in North Carolina, 16 in South Carolina, 9 in Georgia, 37 in Florida, 69 in Kentucky and 4 in Mississippi.

There are 2 cases in Buncombe county and 1 in Haywood.

All Brevard college students who live in sections where polio is raging or who would have to pass through those sections to get home are not being permitted to go home until September.

Employment Office Here To Be Open Every Day; Preference Given Locally

Because of the increasing use of its facilities by local employees and employers, the office of the U. S. Employment Service here will be open 6 days a week from 8:30 until 2 o'clock in the afternoon, Ralph R. King, manager, announced today.

"The number of people using our facilities has increased every week since the office was established some time ago," Mr. King said.

In regard to the new priority program that became effective July 1, Mr. King said that referrals to local industries will take preference over outside industries of equal priority. He stated that employers will be notified in the near future of their priority ratings, as well as their labor ceilings.

Mr. King again explained that under the new regulations all male workers will be referred to jobs only by the U. S. E. S. and that employers are urged to call the office and place their orders for workers so that they can be served effectively. The new program, he said, does not effect women workers or agricultural employees.

"We will be glad to give all information that is available to both workers and employers who visit our office," he said. "The new program is designed to place more effectively all workers where they are so urgently needed in the stress of war production."
