FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER,
A BRYAN DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER.

The OBSERVER is the leading advocate in North Carolina of the policy of turning out the present Gougeon-Fusion Government now disgracing the State, by a union of the whites whom VANCE led to victory. It is for WHITE REACTION against BLACK FUSION.

It opposes any political movement by Democrats outside of the Democratic organization. It stands by every plank in the Chicago platform, as the true expression of Democracy. It recognizes the restoration of "White Supremacy" as the paramount issue, it believes that the Democratic party should lose no time in shaping its course to that end. It is plain that the blacks, who rigidly drew the color line in the late election, will not assist the whites in the restoration of white supremacy. It is equally plain that the Republican party, which has abandoned the Chicago platform, and making the next campaign upon State issues only.

It means, furthermore, that unless the gold standard element of the Democratic party can control and dictate the party organization, and that they would prefer to act independently of the party organization, as they did when they supported the Palmer and Buckner or assistant Republican ticket.

It means, adopting their leader, Mr. Cleveland's ideas, "party organization" is a good thing, if we frame the platform and dictate the party policy, but "party organization" otherwise is a very dangerous affair.

What hope is there of Democratic success, if we pursue the course they outline?

None whatever. But if we make the fight both upon the Chicago platform and upon State issues, that is the "straight fight," and there is much to gain and nothing to lose.

We will draw out to us; I do not believe we will drive us away, except those who voted for McKinley in 1866.

It is impossible to dissociate the National issues from State issues, and in North Carolina the great Vance and Settle campaign, they have been inseparable. To adopt a policy of nominating men who stand on the Chicago platform and abandoning any allusion to the restoration of the white and unsatisfactory measure to the people at large.

As to the Chicago platform, I believe it is growing in favor every day with the people of the whole country. The issue of 1896 are practically unchanged, and to abandon the Chicago platform, at this juncture in North Carolina, would be suicidal party policy. Stand by it and make the fight upon it and also upon State issues and Democracy must finally win, as it is doing in the late elections.

THE NEXT CAMPAIGN.

Washington Gazette.

A gentleman has vouchsafed to us the following important information: The Statesman (T) of Old Ford was in town this week and named the candidates in the next campaign who will bear the banner of white supremacy. He said that the Statesman (T) will support the Statesman (T) and will give an outline of the next campaign. The next Democratic convention will endorse in its entirety the Chicago platform of 1896. It will satisfy every white man in North Carolina who voted the Democratic ticket in any election the past five years and honorably withdrew from the party. It wishes a return to decent government. It will ratify the nominations for Superior Court Judges made by the conventions of the several districts in which terms of the judges expire and these will be the only candidates nominated and voted for in the State at large. There will be nothing about fusion in the platform. It will include a strong and direct appeal to the white manhood of North Carolina and a cordial invitation to those who have strayed from the Democratic party and join hands with it in a supreme effort to rescue our State from misrule and corruption. This is the outlook, but no Pritchard bolting Populist need apply. Fooked as one, might try the same racket again.

In the Educational Number of The Outlook Professor David P. Todd contributes an account of the Amherst Expedition to Japan to view the latest solar eclipse, and also explains in a really fascinating way, aided by pictures, the ingenious methods which science has lately adopted for this kind of astronomical work. This issue of The Outlook has seven richly illustrated articles, besides a charming short story, several other contributed articles, and the usual full news editorials and review departments. CUBA'S DESOLATION.

It is humiliating to contemplate the condition of Cuba and to reflect how happy and peaceful that fair land would be to day except for the outrageous act of Mr. Cleveland in bottling up the resolutions of Congress recognizing Cuban belligerency. It has been charged that there was some dark connection of the Cleveland administration with the settlement of the Mora claims; and we have lately had an illustration here in North Carolina of the old Cleveland and Carlisle influence in the Cisneros matter. Be these things as they may, it is heart-rending to read the reports that come from the erstwhile "Gem of the Antilles."

Says a telegram from Matanzas: The half of the story of suffering in Cuba has not been told. In Havana its suburbs the streets are dotted with beggars, and the babies are overflowing with starving innocents and the spare barracks are filled with the destitute and dying. But from Havana to this place there is a succession of small cities almost free from sickness and hunger. Not a child is there. Protecting forces overlook empty houses. Pallid, ragged Spanish soldiers guard a few—very few—human skeletons. Very soon they will have only their graves to protect. They need it. It is a question of population by Weyler has not been as awful for them as it has been for the peaceable Cubans.

The towns of Campo Florida, San Miguel, Minas, Juncos, Baines, Aguacate, Mocho, and Buenavista trebled and quadrupled in population by Weyler's concentration of the surrounding country people under the rifles of their respective sets of little forts.

The loyal, obedient farmers took their families and their babies in carts, their cows and pigs, wires and children on foot, and built long streets of palmpillared, raftered, thatched one-sided houses. To day nothing remains but the wood. The animals have been eaten; all articles of value have been changed into bread and the people are dead.

The True Policy.

A prominent Democrat who has been highly honored by the party, writes:

There is not the least doubt, that the cry of a "straight fight," by the Charlotte Observer and those who sympathize with its utterances, means a practical abandonment of the Chicago platform, and making the next campaign upon State issues only.

It means, furthermore, that unless the gold standard element of the Democratic party can control and dictate the party organization, and that they would prefer to act independently of the party organization, as they did when they supported the Palmer and Buckner or assistant Republican ticket.

It means, adopting their leader, Mr. Cleveland's ideas, "party organization" is a good thing, if we frame the platform and dictate the party policy, but "party organization" otherwise is a very dangerous affair.
