

THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

J M L Harrington
Editor and Proprietor

Harrington N.C.
Tuesday July 24th 1860.

Democratic Nominations

For President.

John John C. Breckinridge of Kentucky.

For Vice President

Samuel P. Johnson of Oregon

For Governor

John W. Ellis
of Rowan

For the Senate

Duncan Shaw

For the Commons

E S Wright,
Jas S Harrington,
J L Williams

The Disruption at Parsbane.

Yesterday we had the splendid... for the first time since the Campaign of... of making the ... dates for the Legislature in our County.

Mr. D. Shaw (dem) first announced himself as a candidate in the Senate. In made a patriotic speech he has no opposition.

... brought on
of the govt. Standard board of the Democratic party re-nominate himself he effectually exploded the hunting a deal over.

Wardlaw (McDaniel) of Orl. made an ineffectual attempt to reply to Mr. W. but failed to convince the good people of Parsbane that advancement was right.

Mr Douglas (disorganizer) made a short speech, but his speech lacked both point and argument.

James S Harrington one of the Standard bears of the Democratic party made a speech of about half hour he will be surely elected.

A. H. Duran (disorganizer?) announced himself and sat down.

J. S. Williams (dem)
made a short speech excusing himself by saying that the 200... was near.

The steersman aboard by J. R. Brady, candidate for sheriff announcing himself he is a whole souled fellow and will be elected.

We are off to W. P. Little now today. The nominees are gaining ground in this district and...

Come and get Democratic tickets and put them in on the 2nd of August.

The Election.
On Thursday the 2nd of August the people of North Carolina will be called upon to elect a Governor and members of the Legislature. The Democratic Party are still opposed to their old opponents, who used to fight under the banner of Whiggery then know no more and now as "Oppositionists" in fact must be chosen between Jas W. Ellis the candidate of the Democratic Party and John P. Polk the candidate of the Know Nothings Opposition Party. That day

Telegraphic News.
New York, July 19th

The Steamship Great Lanted cloves to visitors on the 19th.
She will leave for England via Halifax, on the 16 of August next.

New York July 16th
The Steamship Vanderbilt from Havre, arrived at this port on Saturday night last she brings dates to the 4th inst.

The new man Col Carriani came passengers
... The latter...
arrangements for Prince Napoleon's visit to this country. There has been numerous failures in English Laster houses.

John C. Harwar the "Benicia Boy" has accepted a challenge from... the Fugelist, and has agreed to fight him in four months after the articles are signed. The Cause

Special Notices
Thos. C. Fuller of Fayetteville will make an address speech at Kelly's Store on the 25th. He will be replied to by a Democrat.
$2 - 1.50 + 50c