Business Men's Requirements

You require, first, that YOUR BANK shall be absolutely safe. And that it must be prompt, considerate and decisive in its dealings with you. That it be progressive, and enter systematically into your business plans. That it be conservative, as a safe balance to your enthusiasm. That it be large enough to inspire confidence, but not too large to be interested in YOUR welfare.
This Bank meets these requirements fully, and invites the patronage of conservative business men.

NORTH DANA

The farmers of this place are very busy planting corn.
W. F. Gibbs celebrated his sixty-fourth birthday Sunday. The dinner was one of the finest ever known in North Dana. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Gibbs (and son); Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Gibbs and three children, from Hendersonville; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gibbs and children, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Elliot and children, J. K. King and two sons from Dana. The house was tastefully decorated with snowballs and roses. All who were present had an enjoyable time.
Calvin Hill of Saluda visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hill, Sunday.
Case & Freeman are doing a good business here.
George Brown of Upward passed through our burg Sunday.
Frank and A. G. Hill of Saluda are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hill, of this place.
Rev. C. D. Cole preached at Refuge Sunday.
E. S. Hill, who has been on the sick list for some time, is slowly recovering. We hope soon to see him out again.
Miss Blanche Elliot spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. W. F. Gibbs.
The Farmers Union here is progressing nicely.
John Summers and H. C. Gibbs made a flying trip to Horace Saturday on business.
W. F. Merrell of Ottonola was here Saturday.

CLEAR CREEK

The farmers of this section are very busy planting corn.
Miss Evelyn Johnson paid a flying visit to her mother last week.
Misses Beulah and Anna Lee Holbert visited Miss Edith Holbert Sunday last.
John Williams has been visiting at Balfour for the three past Sunday.

WILLOW NEWS

Sunday school at this place is progressing nicely under Supt. J. P. Jones.
Richard Allison spent Monday night at the home of C. C. Huggins. Mr. Allison has gone into the real estate business here, and we wish him success.
Elijah Cantrell is on the sick list. There will be preaching on the first Saturday and Sunday of each month at Beulah church.
Otis Huggins is at Union, S. C. conducting the singing in a revival held by A. O. Allison.
R. S. Sentell made a business trip to town Friday.
The farmers of this place are through planting their crops.
Joe Huggins made a short trip to Tuxedo Sunday.
Rev. E. D. Corn is on the sick list.
C. C. Huggins is at Greenville this week.
Jason Huggins has returned from Atlanta and intends spending the summer here.
Frank Huggins is home from Columbia, S. C.
The F. E. and C. U. is progressing here. New members are being taken in almost every week.

ETOWAH NOTES

(Intended for last week.)
There was an all-day singing at Holly Springs April 20. We had a large crowd, a good dinner and plenty of pretty girls.
Mr. and Mrs. Miles Ham are now occupying their new residence.
J. L. Parris visited his father recently.
M. G. Sentell and family have moved to sock town.
The knitting mill has just started up; listen at him toot his whistle.
The Farmers Union at Little River seems to be rolling forward.
Rev. P. R. Young and A. B. Corn are very busy pruning and spraying their fruit trees.
Nicholas Sentell is seven years old and is the uncle of seventeen children.

Judson McCrary is a miller, but he hasn't got wings and can't fly.
A. B. Corn is justice of the peace on Jeter.
Thomas Hamilton is back from Sunburst. Guess he didn't like the water out there.
O. W. Sentell visited his father Sunday.
The following tale is told by J. M. Anderson:
"One morning as I was going hunting I met Glover Sentell; so we went on together. Seeing a squirrel on a tree, I aimed my musket at it. Just then a hawk and two crows in contact with a buzzard came in contact with my aim. I pulled the trigger, and killed the squirrel, hawk, crows and buzzard.
"But that is not all. The gun kicked me back on Glover, knocked him on my dog, and knocked the dog into a big yellow jake's nest."

NO OVERDRAFTS

At a recent meeting of the Board of Directors of the First Bank and Trust Company, the following resolution was adopted:
"Resolved, that whereas the overdraft feature has clearly been proven to be an injustice to the stockholders, to the other depositors, and to the drawer himself, the officers of this bank are hereby ordered that on and after the 10th day of May, 1913, they allow no overdrafts on the books of this institution."
This has long been a custom that has worked against the best interest of the banks, as well as their customers, and in passing this resolution the directors feel that they have taken a step that will prove beneficial to both the bank and its depositors.

ECHOES

Senator Stredley is one of the thousands of readers of The Times who were pleasantly surprised at the mammoth size of last week's paper. He always reads The Times carefully because he knows it's worth while. He got his copy Saturday night and took it home to read Sunday. He was heard from about the middle of the week, when he said that he had been reading the paper for three days and nights and was not quite through.
B. F. Pace is thinking of enlarging his house. He has not yet finally decided; it depends on The Times. If The Times publishes another edition as big as last week's, Mr. Pace says he will just simply have to build a bigger house so as to read the paper in comfort.
