PRUETT—McCURRY

A very pretty and impressive wedding ceremony was solemnized last Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. U. S. McCarry when their attractive daughter, Ima, became the bride of Mr. George Pruett, the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Pruett. Rev. J. Keever, the bride's pastor, officiated and pronounced the words that blended these two young lives into one. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party went direct to the home of the groom's parents at Lakeview, where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. Both the bride and groom are among Cliffside's most popular young people and have the best wishes of a host of friends for a bon voyage on life's sea. Mr. G. B. Pruett, of Ellenboro, and great uncle of the groom was the only out of town guest.

"WOMANLESS WEDDING"

Quite a number of the housewives and dress makers are now employed in work of a new kind: that of making dresses for the men who are to appear in the "Womanless Wedding," which will be presented at the school auditorium next Saturday night. It is to be a very elaborate and swell wedding, and very much interest is being manifested in the preparation for it. Wigs are being secured, dresses and hats made, etc. There will be fifty or more participants and although the auditorium will seat about one thousand it is expected to be filled next Saturday night.

You can buy an all wool Sweater at Cliffside Mills Store at 25 per cent off regular price.

BASKET BALL

In a very interesting game of Basket Ball played on the local court last Thursday night the Boiling Springs High School easily defeated the Cliffside Mills Store team, 48 to 10. The B. S. H. S. boys played a good clean game and showed splendid team work which is only acquired by practice. Our boys showed the need of more practice and team work.

PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Mr. Deck Wilson, manager of the Cliffside Mills Stores, says that it pays to advertise. He advertised the big sale which is now on here and says that it drew large crowds here to trade. There are still many more bargains.

Some one said it would be funny if when the Womanless Wedding is over next Saturday night there should be a surprise sure enough honest to goodness wedding. Well there will be two or three parsons and a Justice of the Peace present. It would be as good a time and place as any and then they would have the benefit of witnessing the other wedding and know just how to put it over.
