BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

Account of most of the mills standing last week a large number of people were out of town and there were only three hundred thirty-nine present in Sunday school last Sunday.

In the absence of the pastor, Dr. Chas. H. Stevens, who is conducting a meeting near Dunn, N. C., Rev. Carl Marsh preached both Sunday morning and evening. Mr. Marsh is one of our Cliffside boys and one of the four young men of this church now studying for the ministry. Mr. Marsh was in school last year at Buie's Creek. He preached two good sermons here Sunday.

The pastor is expected home Wednesday or Thursday of this week.

The Women's Missionary Society under the leadership of Mrs. W. W. Nanney, will have charge of the Prayer Service Wednesday night. Mrs. B. L. Davidson and her Intermediate B. Y. P. U. rendered a splendid program last week at the prayer service.

The members of the W. M. S. are planning for the annual meeting to be held here this month.

AVONDALE LADIES ENTERTAIN

The members of the T. E. L. class and the married ladies of the Baptist church entertained the ladies of the Methodist church. Saturday evening, from 7:30 to 10 o'clock, at the Watkins Park. An interesting program was given, consisting of readings, jokes and music. After the program each member of the Baptist church invited a visitor to go to the table with them, where delicious ice cream, cake and lemonade was served. The color scheme of green and white was beautifully carried out. After each one had been served the ladies assembled back in the grandstand and had a lively time talking and chatting with each other. There were fifty-three ladies present.

Every one went away declaring they had had a lovely time and wished they would have a social each month.

METHODIST CHURCH NEWS

Rev. Hoyle Swofford, one of the young Ministerial students preached at the local Methodist church last Sunday morning. This church has two young men now studying for the ministry and are making good.

The Rev. H. C. Brackett of Rutherford College preached in the Methodist church on the third Sunday at 8 p. m. Mr. Brackett brought a very inspiring message to a large and appreciative audience. Mr. Brackett is one of Cliffside's young men who is preparing himself for the ministry and we are expecting great things of him.

Messrs. Charles Erwin and Scott Goode, Mesdames J. R. Padgett, J. J. Frye and Misses Jennie Sue Atchley and Mary Quinn Womack attended the Wesley Bible class Federation at Lake Junaluska and report a fine meeting.

The Woman's Missionary Society held its regular monthly meeting in the Haynes Memorial building Monday, July 20 at 7 p. m. The young people held their monthly meeting on Thursday at 7 p. m., and the children's society met at the church Thursday at 3 p. m.

We regret very much to lose Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lavender who recently moved to Spindale.

On Sunday, July 19, at 3 p. m. the pastor, M. W. Heckard, held service in the home of Mrs. Kate Thompson on Highway street and baptised the three children of Mr. and Mrs. Dock Causby, of Greenville, S. C.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

Henrietta, Aug. 3.—The primary department of the Henrietta Baptist Sunday school, under the direction of Mrs. A. L. West, went to Hollis Saturday afternoon for a picnic. There was about 100 joined the party, including some grown-ups. The Henrietta Band accompanied the picnicers and enlivened the time with good snappy music. After arriving at Hollis and resting for a few minutes, the party proceeded on to the mountain where jolly good Mr. Withrow was waiting us at the springs. After Mr. Withrow had greeted us in his genial kind way, he turned the entire place, over to the children telling them it was theirs while they were up there. Mr. Withrow has beautified the mountain very much by cleaning off underbrush, making roads and fixing the several springs from which bubbles good mountain water. After all had arrived the party hiked up to the top of the mountain where the children romped and played till they were tired and all came down to the springs where a sumptuous lunch was spread, all partaking heartily. Soon the party was homeward bound all feeling fine and saying they had a wonderful time.

The Baptist Sunday school is flourishing and Mr. I. P. Campfield, our excellent superintendent, had a broad smile on his face Sunday morning. The cause of this smile was the fact that we had 313 present at Sunday school. Mr. Campfield asks that everybody join hands and work together till next Sunday so we may have even more than last Sunday.

TRIBUTE TO T. L. QUEEN

After an extended illness of about seven weeks our friend and beloved brother, T. L. Queen, of Forest City, passed away, July 29, 1925. He crossed the bar peacefully in the stillness of night. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife and five children, one brother and four sisters. His children are Raymond, Queen, of Gastonia; Mrs. Taylor, Queen, of Ellenboro; Misses Wilda, Lefie, Hanna Queen, of Forest City; his brother, D. P. Queen, of Swannanoa; his sisters, Mrs. D. W. Causby, Cliffside; Mrs. J. W. Waters, of Bessemer City; Mrs. W. H. England, Nealsville; Mrs. A. P. Pyatt, West Ridge, Ark. Many friends and relatives attended the funeral services which were conducted by his pastor, Dr. W. A. Ayers, of Forest City; his brother, D. J. Hunt, of Nealsville. Song services were led by Claude Wilson and wife of Avondale. Songs were "Asleep In Jesus," "Does Jesus Care," "Going Down the Valley" and "Safe In The Arms Of Jesus." The active pall bearers were Henry Whitener, Charlie Watson, Charlie Lavender, Mardy Queen, Clarence Huntley. The flower girls were: Ollie Kate Spratt, Myrtle Causby, Lillian Smith, Ruth McDaniel, Monie Queen, Ruth Wilson, Ruby Smith.

Mr. Queen had almost reached the age of 72 years and had been a member of the Baptist church for a number of years. To know Mr. Queen was an invitation to do right. He was a man of prayer. During his illness his many friends that visited him were asked to pray with him and many did, and through the last hours of life he spoke of going home so we feel that his passing is our loss and Heaven's gain.

The writer wishes to extend to his family and relatives heart felt sympathy and trust that they may be given great consolation in remembering all his worth and in the abiding faith that a divine providence has ordered all things well.

A FRIEND.

FREE DENTAL CLINICS

Dr. Herbert Spear, State Board of Health Dentist, who is conducting free dental clinics in the county for all children from 6 to 13 years of age is working at different schools. He began at Hollis and is working at Washburn now. He is meeting with great success and is doing much good. If you want your child to attend a clinic and get this dental work free, notify the County Physician, Dr. Twitty at once.
