

"Save the Surface and You Save All"

- House Paints
- Auto Paints
- Varnishes
- Oils

Paint and Varnish increases the value of your property—many times their cost.

If done in time, painting keeps down the annual maintenance expense by saving money that otherwise would be spent for repairs or lost by depreciation.

The paint dollar adds more value than any other dollar spent on your property.

SCRUGGS-ROLLINS

The many friends here will be surprised to learn of the marriage of Miss Ethel Scruggs, of Mooresboro, to Mr. D. V. Rollins, of Forest City. The happy event took place at the Baptist parsonage, Hickory, Tuesday afternoon, August 24.

The bride wore a lovely gown of tan flat crepe with accessories to match. Mrs. Rollins is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Scruggs, of Mooresboro. She is an attractive young lady of charm and pleasing personality and has a host of friends. She graduated at Henrietta-Caroleen high school last spring with honors and has just completed a twelve weeks' summer school course at Lenoir-Rhyne College, Hickory.

Mr. Rollins is a prosperous business man, and a good church and Sunday school worker.

He and his charming bride are now on their honeymoon in Western North Carolina, after which they will be at home in Charlotte. Their many friends wish for them much happiness and success in their new venture.
