

Nurse Advises WEAK, RUN-DOWN WOMEN To Take Cardui

"I have known of Cardui for nearly twenty-five years," says Mrs. Selma Meissner, 1072 Harrison Ave., Beaumont, Texas. "During that time, I have taken it several times and have frequently recommended it to others, for it is a splendid medicine and I am glad to give people the benefit of my experience."

"I have been a nurse for several years and have often come in contact with patients who were run-down and weak. Often I have told sufferers of Cardui, and the way I myself, had been helped after taking it, and advised them to give it a trial. Many of them have since thanked me for what I told them, so I am willing that other women should know about it, too."

"I first took Cardui because I was awfully run-down. I had no appetite, and was weak and listless. It was hard to keep going under such conditions, and I looked for something which would help me."

"I had read of Cardui and decided to try it. After taking it, I improved so much that I have taken it since whenever I needed a tonic."

MY IMPRESSIONS OF LAKE LURE

By Nancy E. Carter

Lexington, Ky.

Majestic mountains whose feet are bathed in Emerald green waters, whose peaks are canopied with a sky—the bluest of blue, regal splendor, laughter, happiness, peace, contentment, over all the Carolina sun beaming—the lure country!

Lake Lure winding its way for miles among the mountains, its clear waters dancing and gleaming in the sunlight, its breath-taking beauty as one follows it in its eccentric meanderings and is more delighted still at each unexpected turn and the beauty there revealed. One stands amazed at the realization of a dream dreamed by men, a vision seen by men, a dream and a vision realized by toil, the facing of difficulties and the overcoming of them. We give to these men our sincere admiration and praise.

To be in the Lure country for one day is indeed a pleasure. To spend the hot summer months bathing in Lake Lure's cooling waters, and skimming along over the waves in a speedy motor boat, or drifting idly in a canoe, or better still casting the hook for the finny tribes of the crystal deep—that is something to be planned and worked for.

Then there is Lake Lure Inn which is a beautiful stucco building of Italian structure with its sandy beach dotted with gay umbrellas. Here and in the various hotels under construction one can spend one's vacation away from the noisy hubbub of everyday life, yet with every modern convenience, every sport, and health giving force at one's command.

Lake Lure although in its infancy has a promising future and is sending out its call to you, whoever you may be, to visit its alluring waters and to bide-a-wee on its shores. As one leaves the lake he is moved to exclaim in the words of the immortal Sydney Lanier: "Behold, I will build me a nest on the greatness of God!"

Editors Note:—Miss Carter is a niece of Mrs. J. H. Thomas, and has been visiting here for some time. Miss Carter is a graduate of the Lexington High School and last year was editor-in-chief of the Hi-Times, the school publication. She was the third girl to hold this position in twenty years of the school's history. Miss Carter will enter the University of Kentucky at Lexington this Fall for a degree of A. B. in journalism.

PRESBYTERIANS HOLD DISTRICT CONVENTION HERE

Woman's Auxiliary of The Kings Mountain Presbytery Met Here Friday

From seventy-five to one hundred Presbyterian ladies from Rutherford and Cleveland counties, representatives of the Woman's Auxiliary of Kings Mountain Presbytery, met in district convention at the Forest City Presbyterian church last Friday.

Mrs. W. W. Akers, of Lincolnton, district president and Mrs. Clara W. Geer, of Rutherfordton, secretary, were in charge of the meeting which began at 10 a. m. and continued through 2:30 p. m. Miss Ruth Gillespie, of the Forest City auxiliary delivered the address of welcome which was responded to in a most pleasing and fitting manner by Mrs. Akers. Minutes of the last district meeting were read by Mrs. Geer after the opening fifteen minutes devotional service. Important business matters were transacted and Mrs. Alice McDaniel brought greetings and summarized report from the local Baptist church. Mrs. G. P. Reid of the local Methodist church was heard in reports and greetings from the Methodist society.

During the noon hour a most tempting and appetizing luncheon was served cafeteria style in Kiwanis Hall by Mesdames W. P. Hall, Jr., B. H. Price, G. P. Reid, G. R. Gillespie and Misses Kate McFarland, Claire Reid, Hazel Price and Ruth Gillespie. The luncheon served in abundance consisted of fried chicken, boiled and roasted ham, sandwiches, devilled eggs, pickles, olives, pies, cake, iced tea and mints.

Many were the favorable comments of the visiting ladies concerning the reception given them and the hospitality of Forest City and all were loud in their praises of the beautiful church decorations, the bountiful luncheon and the work of the local auxiliary, all returning to their homes with warm feelings and neighborly love for Forest City.

Very few, we are sure, of our own good citizens realize the important place our Kiwanis Club fills in the civic life of our good town. We hear, of course, of the outstanding moves of promotion, etc., engineered by the club, but we do not hear of the innumerable occasions on which the Kiwanis hall is used to entertain out-of-town visitors and give to them a taste of Forest City hospitality. It at once takes the place of public auditorium, dining hall, assembly place and hotel, all of which are deplorably lacking in an otherwise progressive and up-to-the-minute little city. The Presbyterians of Forest City are indebted to the Kiwanis Club for the use of their hall and equipment and feel that we have realized the worth of Kiwanis to our church and our town.

Mrs. W. B. Phillips, of Chimney Rock and Lake Lure, accompanied at the piano by her son, delighted the delegates at both the church and Kiwanis hall, with superb solos and musical renditions.

TAR HEEL INN CHANGES MANAGEMENT

Mesdames Harry Camnitz and Thos. G. Stone and Miss Robbie Biggerstaff have taken over the management of Tar Heel Inn, Chimney Rock, which has been in charge of Mrs. Troutman, of Charlotte. These three ladies need no introduction to the public as they so successfully managed Tar Heel Inn last summer. They are still serving delicious meals of good home cooking and will also make a specialty of dinner parties, luncheons, etc. When you desire a dinner that will be fit for a king, stop at Tar Heel Inn when you visit Chimney Rock. If in Chimney Rock and you desire room and board go to Tar Heel Inn and you will be shown every courtesy.
