

Lullaby Boys Air Headliners

Ford and Glenn, the Lullaby Boys, originally from WLS, Chicago, are to be among the headliners on the Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation programs presented over WSE, the Atlanta Journal, during the winter season. Way back when radio was young and good artists few and far between, Glenn was the musical director of WLS, and Ford the announcer. Both boys had had wide musical experience and took the microphone one night to "pinch-hit" for an artist who had failed to appear—and they have never left it. Their pleasing harmony, clean comedy and winning personality have won them a place in the hearts of listeners throughout the country. The accidental union of these artists brought about a real bond of affection and it is seldom that one is seen without the other.

The boys are by no means new to the Southeastern radio audience as their offerings from time to time have been heard by DXers in this part of the country.

ALEXANDER NEWS MT PLEASANT NEWS

Alexander Mills, Dec. 13.—The W. M. U. met with Mrs. J. R. Moore on last Tuesday afternoon. An interesting program was rendered. After the meeting Mrs. Moore served ice cream and cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Bun Harris of Rome Georgia are spending a few days with Mr. Tom Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Summey were shopping in Shelby last Monday afternoon.

On next Saturday night, December 17, the primary grades will give a play, "The Cross Patch Fairies." Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Randall and Miss Ola Wilkins are directing the play. Every one is invited to come out and enjoy this good play. Curtains will rise at eight o'clock. Admission fee, ten and fifteen cents.

On the following Tuesday night, December 20, Miss Patrick's fifth grade and Mrs. Blanton's fourth grade will give a musical Christmas play, "In Santa Claus Land." Two of the characters, Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus, are sixth grade students.

The characters are as follows:
 Santa Claus: Ories Bridges.
 Mrs. Santa Claus: Sadie West.
 March of the Merry Workers: A broom drill by eight girls, and a hammer drill by eight boys.
 Dance of the Ice Mymphs: Ola Johnson and Nellie White.
 Russian Folk Dance: Four girls and four boys.
 Japanese Song: Marie Hawkins and Raymond Waters.
 Dance of the Dolls: Mary Champion, Lorena Campfield, Blanche Allen, and Elizabeth Jolley.
 Christmas Carol: By all of the children.
 Oh Jolly Santa Claus: By all of the children.

In this play the children's happiness depends largely upon their efforts to help other children at Christmas time.

Mrs. Santa Claus, by use of a magic whistle, brings the children to the workshop where they help Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus to get the toys ready for distribution. While Santa is making his rounds, Mrs. Santa, again using her magic whistle, brings her helpers from many countries. The children are much interested and a very happy evening is spent. Santa Claus returns and thanks the children for their able assistance. The play closes with an appeal to all to help Santa Claus by giving some of their toys to others who have none.

Admission fee, ten and fifteen cents.

The public is cordially invited to come out and see this play. Curtains will rise at eight o'clock. After having seen the primary play next Saturday night and the grammar grade play on the following night, you will not regret the small admission fee that you paid to see these plays.
