Kitchen Shower For Recent Bride.
Mrs. R. B. McBrayer and Miss Hazel Price gave a "kitchen shower" at the former's home on Friday evening, honoring Mrs. J. L. Butler, Jr., a recent bride. A most unique debate was held, subject "which is the best single or married life?" married life won, the affirmatives were Mesdames Lolan Kanipe and John Carpenter, the negatives were Misses Sude Young and Ollie Tate. A baby crib very much bedecked and filled with many useful gifts for the kitchen was brought into the living room and presented to Mrs. Butler which after it had been opened and passed around for all the "old maids" to admire with envy, made a most charming speech of thanks. The hostess served delicious sandwiches and coffee. Thirty guests were present.

King-Kiser.
In a ceremony characterized by beauty and simplicity Miss Ruth Kiser and Mr. Robert King were married Saturday evening at nine o'clock at the Baptist parsonage. Dr. W. A. Ayers performed the ceremony, using the always impressive ring service.
Only a few friends of the couple were present.
The bride wore a most becoming brown ensemble with accessories to match.
An informal reception was held at the home of the bride immediately after the wedding, and later the young couple left for a trip to east Tennessee.
The bride is the attractive and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kiser. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. King. He is associated with Horn's Cash Store.

Morgan-Kennedy.
Miss Pauline Kennedy and Mr. Norman Morgan were married on Saturday, November 1st, in Spartanburg, S. C. Their marriage came as a surprise to their many friends who wish for them much happiness. Mrs. Morgan is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Kennedy, and is a graduate of Carolina-Henrietta high school.
Mr. Morgan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Morgan, of Sandy Mush. He holds a responsible position with the Forest City Seed and Fertilizer Co.
The young couple will make their home in Sandy Mush.

OVER WORKED NERVES

UP TO your ears in work—every nerve at high tension. No wonder you snap at the wife and bark at the children. Watch out! Overworked nerves may lead to Sleeplessness, Nervous Headache, Nervous Indigestion and a host of other unpleasant disturbances. Why don't you try Dr. Miles' Effervescent Nerve Tablets? Just one in a half glass of water makes a pleasant, sparkling drink delightfully soothing to over-taxed nerves. Dr. Miles' Nerve is now made in two forms—Liquid and Effervescent Tablet. Both are the same therapeutically.
