

CLIFFSIDE NEWS

In the Cleveland Star, of Shelby, dated October 31st there appeared a picture of Mr. N. J. Wright, of Fallston and an article accompanying it stating that he had been superintendent of the Sunday school at Friendship Methodist-Protestant church for more than sixty-six years.

Mr. Wright is an uncle of Mr. George Blanton, of Cliffside. The record of Mr. Wright is unusual and we are quoting here the story as given by The Cleveland Star of Shelby, N. C.

"N. J. Wright of Fallston, who doubtless is dean of Sunday school superintendents not only of this state but of the United States. He began to superintend the Sunday school at Friendship Methodist -- Protestant church, Fallston, N. C., May 6 1866, and in his church the office of superintendent being elective, has been unanimously elected by the congregation every successive year to the present, making sixty-six and one-half years. The literature used then was Blueback Speller and Bible. Very few could read the Bible, and those who could not read were cared for by the speller. The church then had fifty odd members and today has more than four hundred. The Sunday school has progressed in proportion.

"One feature that has contributed very greatly to the success of the Sunday school and his long standing in office is his systematic progressive ideas he has kept continually before his people. Another feature is persistent effort to diversify the Sunday school program so it has not become monotonous. There is always something interesting in the opening and closing exercises. He has taken every advantage of progressive Sunday school literature. He attributes his regularity of attendance and being always on time, and opening and closing on time, the main feature of success, together with persistent effort to make the hour worshipful.

"In all these years he has not missed a single Sunday for recreation. He believes the Sunday school, when properly run, is the greatest asset to the church. He has not missed a Sunday except for his own sickness and death in the family, which probably has not been more than a dozen Sundays."

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

As the pastor was away last week attending conference there was no prayer service last week or preaching service on Sunday. The Sunday school was well attended.

We are so glad to learn that our pastor, Rev. D. H. Rhinehardt is to remain with us another year. He has already served three years and is to be with us at least one more year.

The ladies of the Methodist church are observing this week as a week of prayer. They will meet at the R. R. Haynes Memorial building on Thursday and Friday nights of this week at 7:15.

We are looking forward to another year of progress and if we go forward as we should it will mean each one doing his or her part.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES.

The revival meetings at the Baptist church came to a close last Wednesday night. The pastor, Rev. J. A. Hunnicutt brought to us some great messages and we feel that a great deal of good has been accomplished.

Attendance at Sunday school was off quite a bit last Sunday. At least a large number were not in time to be counted. There were 401 present when the classes assembled. We were glad to have with us 11 visitors in the Sunday school and a number of others who came for the preaching service.

Among the visitors at the morning preaching service were the pastor's father, Mr. Earl Hunnicutt and sister, Mrs. Ola Gregory of Greenville, S. C., also a brother with his son and daughter, Mr. Luther Hunnicutt, Mr. Louis and Miss Ruth Hunnicutt, of Anderson, S. C.

Church Treasurer made his monthly report to the church Sunday morning and it was very gratifying to know that despite the depression we had reduced our debt $300.00 in addition to a number of other bills paid including $157.00 for Sunday school literature, etc.

The text for the morning was Jeremiah 10:23 and the subject, "Man and his perplexities."

At the close of the service, Mrs. Williams and Mr. Pink Honecutt were received into the church by letter.

The B. Y. P. Us. had a record attendance Sunday evening and there were seven more new members added.

The subject for the evening service was "Refuges that fail." It was another fine message and at the close Mr. J. B. Whitaker was received by letter and James Allen Hunnicutt, Jr., son of the pastor was received for baptism. The ordinance of baptism was administered by the pastor immediately to James Allen Hunnicutt, Jr., and Miss Margaret Davidson.

A rally of the B. Y. P. Us. in this district will be held here at 2:30 next Sunday afternoon. A fine program will be rendered. We expect to have with us the officers of the association and district and hope that all the unions will be represented with large delegations. We are glad to have the meeting here with us and extend a very cordial welcome.

Pastor J. A. Hunnicutt and Mrs. Hunnicutt will leave tomorrow, (Tuesday) for Raleigh where they will attend the Baptist State convention. Mrs. Hunnicutt's mother, Mrs. Abbie Wingo, of Fair Forest, S. C., who arrived last Saturday will stay with the boys while Mr. and Mrs. Hunnicutt are away.

We want to mention here that the quarterly meeting of the W. M. U. will be held with the Haynes Memorial church at Avondale, convening at 2:30 p. m., on November 22.

The church voted Sunday morning to send to the Alexander school at Union Mills a number of song books. The pastor will take them at an early date.

Diplomas for the Sunday school manual were awarded Sunday to Miss Pamela Pruett, Mr. Fate McMurry, Mr. M. C. Blanton and Miss Lallage Grigg.

LIONS CLUB ENTERTAINS THE KIWANIS CLUB

On Thursday night of last week the Textile Lions Club composed of members of Caroleen, Avondale, Henrietta and Cliffside entertained the Kiwanis club of Forest City. At seven o'clock they took their places around the banquet table at the Memorial building where they partook of a bountiful meal prepared by the Home Economics class under the direction of Mrs. H. L. Robertson. This was ladies night and the club members were accompanied by their wives and the single ones brought a lady friend.

The address of welcome was made by Mr. B. P. Caldwell to which Dr. Duncan, Forest City Kiwanian responded. The program was varied and interesting. During the meal music was rendered by a colored man at the piano who played a varied program of late popular music as well as some old and familiar airs. There were also good jokes and sparkling repartee. Little Miss Sarah Allhands, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Allhands delighted every one with her readings and then the Lions presented a silent movie that was much enjoyed. The Kiwanians then took charge of the program. Prof. Charles Erwin made a fine talk and Misses Ruth Greene and Virginia Magness delighted all with their duets accompanied at the piano by Miss Catherine Goggins. One of the last features of the splendid program was a spelling bee between the Lions and the Kiwanians. The old Blue Back speller was used and Dr. Allhands "gave out" the words. Mr. Z. O. Jenkins "killed" the largest number on one of the words that is seldom heard. Seventy plates were served and every one seemed to thoroughly enjoy the fellowship of this joint meeting of these two splendid clubs.

MR. W. M. PEARSON DEAD.

Mr. W. M. Pearson died at his home on River View Street Tuesday of last week after being ill for some time. Funeral service was in the afternoon at one o'clock. He is survived by his wife and several children.

Twins of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Behela died Tuesday evening and were buried here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Self of Marion, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hicks of Clinton, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Foster Elliott and Mrs. Julia Elliott of Polkville spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Packard.

Mr. J. H. Smith who is working at Union, S. C., with a road building crew spent the week end here with his family.

Mrs. Mary Webb, Mrs. Minnie Webb and children, Mary Lois and Fred, Jr. of Forest City were guests of Mrs. J. P. Carpenter Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Shuford and children spent Sunday with Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Smith at Erwin, Tenn., and report a nice trip. They saw snow as they passed over the mountains.

Mr. Frank White of Spartanburg, S. C., spent last Sunday here.

The night school opened Monday night with a number in attendance. The teachers of the local school are giving their service in teaching the classes. At 7:15 all assembled for the organization. Short talks were made by Messrs. Maurice Hendrick, P. C. Hawkins, Charles H. Haynes, B. E. Roach and Dr. J. M. Allhands. From indications on the opening night the school is going to be a success. There were several who want to study mathematics in addition to the classes in reading, spelling and writing.

The school is being sponsored by the Woman's club composed of members at Caroleen, Avondale, Henrietta, and Cliffside. A school is being conducted at each of these towns.

We failed to get the names of the teacher of each class, more about the school next week.
