

RUTS

The walking sick, what a crowd of them there are! Persons who are thin and weak but not sick enough to go to bed.

"Chronic cases" that's what the doctors call them, which in common English means—long sickness.

To stop the continued loss of flesh they need Scott's Emulsion. For the feeling of weakness they need Scott's Emulsion.

It makes new flesh and gives new life to the weak system.

Scott's Emulsion gets thin and weak persons out of the rut. It makes new, rich blood, strengthens the nerves and gives appetite for ordinary food.

Scott's Emulsion can be taken as long as sickness lasts and do good all the time.

There's new strength and flesh in every dose.

We will be glad to send you a few doses free.

It costs just the same as the best of cod liver oil, but it is much more effective.

Newspaper Laws

Few readers of newspapers clearly understand the law governing newspaper subscriptions. The decisions of the United States Supreme Court on this subject are:

"1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to renew their subscription."

"2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publisher may continue to send them until all the dues are paid."

"3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the postoffice to which they are directed they are responsible until they have notified their bill and ordered them discontinued."

"4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible."

"5. The courts have decided that refusing to take the periodical from the office, or removing and leaving them unopened for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud."

"If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not wish to continue taking it; otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it, and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice with payment of all arrearages is sent to the publisher."

The latest postal laws are such that newspaper publishers can arrest any one for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it.

Under this law the man who allows his subscription to run along for some time unpaid, and then orders it discontinued, or orders the postmaster to mark it "return to sender," has a postal card sent to the publisher, in which he is notified of the law and the date as to the time.

Two New Laws in Effect at the South

Two new laws have been passed in the South. One is a law to work side by side with the other states. It is a law to give civil life to the colored people. It is a law to give social life to the colored people. It is a law to give every point, but forever divided. "In all things purely social" separate as the fingers, yet one in the hand in all things essential to mutual progress." Both these laws must be fully and freely executed, each race and each individual according to native ability and demands of life. The only solution of what we call "the race problem" is in the right education of all individuals of both races. One-third of the people are black. This third must do one-third of the work and produce one-third of the wealth, or it must be a burden to the other two thirds, bringing down by so much the total production and the total wealth. It must represent one-third of the moral virtue and civic strength, or it must be a menace and constant source of weakness. We must also remember that light is sweet to the black child as well as to the white child, and that "Without light, all life is sad."

Doubtless the schools of the white children are not quite the best kind of schools for the colored children at the present stage of the race's development. But this does not relieve us of the responsibility; it only makes it necessary that we study the problem more closely. In solving it we shall doubtless learn something for the good of the schools of our own race.

One Hundred Dollars a Day.

In the year 1811, Thomas Mendenhall, A. L. plant on DeWitt's which had been bought by him for $50,000. He had the plan for 30 years. He had many doctors and medicine, but all failed except Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. It cured him. It is a combination of the best properties of high quality cod liver oil and various other ingredients and is a powerful blood purifier and generally cures all ailments, including and preceding all other ailments, including, all lung and all other ailments. Good Roads

An exchange gives the following valuable points on good roads:

Good roads have a money value to the farmer as well as a political and social value.

The difference between good and bad roads is often equivalent to the difference between profit and loss.

Charles Sumner once said, "The road and schoolmaster are the two most important agents in advancing civilization."

Good roads raise the value of farm land and farm products, and tend to beautify the country through which they pass.

Bad roads constitute the greatest drawback to rural life, and for the lack of roads the farmer suffers more than any other class.

Good roads, like good streets, make habitation along them most desirable; they economize time and fare in transportation of products, reduce wear and tear on horses, harness and vehicles and enhance the market value of real estate.

Life on a farm becomes isolated and barren of social enjoyments and pleasures, country people in some communities suffer such great disadvantage that ambition is checked, energy weakened and industry paralyzed.

Who Are The Right Thousand and What?

According to an estimate made from the latest census returns there are in the United States 40,782,007 persons over twenty-one years old. These are divided educationally about as follows:

- Class 1. Without school training.....1,682,498
- Class 2. With only common school training.....32,982,591
- Class 3. With common and high school training.....2,165,857
- Class 4. With college or better education added.....1,071,901

Who's Who in America gives a list of 8,000 persons now living in the United States who have become famous for some work of importance to the people of the country at large or of some considerable portion of it; and an effort has been made to determine how many of these 8,000 distinguished citizens belong to each of these classes.

- The 4,682,498 of class 1 furnish.....81
- The 32,982,591 of class 2 furnish.....808
- The 2,165,857 of class 3 furnish.....1,245
- The 1,071,901 of class 4 furnish.....5,768

- 1st. That an uneducated child has one chance in 150,000 of attaining distinction as a factor in the progress of the age.
- 2d. That a common school education will increase his chances nearly four times.
- 3d. That a high school training will increase the chances of the common school boy twenty three times, giving him eighty seven times the chance of the uneducated.

4th. That a college education increases the chances of the high school boy nine times, giving him 219 times the chance of the common school boy and more than 800 times the chance of the untrained.

Is it a surprising fact that of 7,852 "Notables" thus gathered together 4,810 proved to be full graduates of colleges?

RIPANS

Ripans Tablets are a common sense, effectual cure for dyspepsia, biliousness, heartburn, headache, constipation, dizziness and all disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. They are intended for the use of men, women and children everywhere, and have proved beneficial in the majority of cases. It is not claimed that they will perform miracles, but some of the cures which they have effected amount almost to that. Easy to take and prompt in action, they have no rival as the best remedy for the every-day ills of humanity.

GASTRIC TROUBLES.

I had suffered three years at least from gastric troubles. I could not sleep at night. My head ached and my feet would be cold at night. My stomach was not regular and I would have to vomit three times a day. I was so weak that I could not do any work. I was so weak that I could not do any work. I was so weak that I could not do any work.
