FORMER CHARLOTTE STREET CAR DRIVER

New Third Baron Lyveden of England.—He Recently Visited America.

Charlotte Observer.

Not many street car drivers have become peers of English realm; but perhaps it is in this respect that the case of Baron Lyveden, that he is the only peer in England who held the job of driver of a street car, drawn by a mule at that, along the streets of Charlotte. As he, Courteney Percy Robert Vernon, who is now Baron Lyveden, used to say when he lived in Charlotte in the year 1887, "It is not a

TRAGEDY AT WRIGHTSVILLE.

Trolley Car Runs Over and Instantly Kills Mr. W. W. McCormack, a Merchant of Robeson County.

Wilmington, Aug. 7.—This morning, a few minutes past midnight, just across the Banks channel trestle at Wrightsville Beach, suburban trolley car No. 31, the last for the beach that night, ran over and instantly killed W. W. McCormack, a leading merchant of Rowland, Robeson county, who arrived Saturday on a trolley to meet his business in Wilmington.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

Raleigh, Aug. 8.—From a news standpoint the depths of dog-days' dullness have been sounded during the past week.

The scarcity of news of an important character is painfully realized by newspaper makers and disagreeably felt by the newspaper reading public. But the monotony will be broken this week, for the Democratic candidate is to be formally notified of his nomination Wednesday and a very strong appetite has been developed by the public for his coming speech of acceptance. It will be eagerly sought, the more so because of his hitherto sphinx-like (though, in my opinion, very proper under the circumstances) silence.

In a magazine article on Macedonian refugees the author describes them as a peasantry of the lowest type—dull witted and of poor physique, corrupt, degraded and semipagan.

"The gratitude of Macedonian women can occasionally be more alarming than their indignation," says the author. "They embrace me in a bug of dirty rags, and they kiss me on both cheeks. One poor old lady told me, after this ceremony, that she had been mourning the death of her son for eight years to such an extent that during all of that period she had never washed her head! 'No soap,' she cried, 'will ever touch me again. I mourn always!'"

but that is exactly what the Honorable Percy did for a part of the time he made his home in Charlotte. There are many people now in Charlotte who remember "Lud Percy" as they called him.

The identity of Baron Lyveden with the Percy Vernon who lived in Charlotte had been recalled by the tour he has recently completed of some of the principal American cities, as chairman of a municipal committee of London, for the purpose of studying our municipal government. He is said to be one of the most popular peers in England, having succeeded to the titles and estates of his uncle, the second Lord Lyveden, in 1901.

Victim of Cholera

Chloroform, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and Perhaps a Life Saved.

"A short time ago I was taken with a violent attack of diarrhoea and believe I would have died if I had not gotten relief," says John J. Patton, a leading citizen of Pattoia, Ala. "A friend recommended Chamberlain's Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I bought a twenty-five cent bottle and after taking three doses it was entirely cured. I consider it the best remedy in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by Dr. Geo. D. Everington, and Drs. Prince & Blue.

Strikers Cause Run On A Bank In Chicago.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—A run begun today on the Drovers Deposit National Bank located near the main entrance to stock yards. Replying to inquiries regarding withdrawals, Edward Tilden, vice president, who has been one of the spokesmen for the employers during the packing house strike said, "As long as the depositors come, they will get their money. The demand is senseless and caused by the general excitement in the yards."

plan (optional with all and available for such as may choose to adopt it) provided by the State Committee at its last meeting held here recently, is being largely adopted.

Governor Aycock and Auditor Dixon will soon invade New England (by invitation) where they will deliver several educational and political speeches. One of Dr. Dixon's appointments is (as a Confederate) to speak at a reunion of Federal veterans. They will reflect much credit on their State while among the "Yankees" for there will be no finer or more eloquent addresses delivered by anyone.

The annual encampment of the State Guard will begin at Morehead Wednesday of this week.

"LIAR" A FLATTERING TERM.

At a little gathering of officials the other day the talk turned on the recent diplomatic duel between the Russians and Japanese, and there was quite a difference of opinion as to whether the Moscowite or the little man from the far east is the most expert diplomatist. "But, my dear man," said one of the disputants, who had a touching faith in the veracity of the Jap, "these Russians are such liars!" "Tut, tut," replied the other. "You should have known their grandfather."

The reply reminds me of the story Sir Horace Rumbold tells about General Ignatieff. The general was a natural born fibber. As Sir Horace puts it, "inaccuracy oozed out of him," and in Constantinople he was known as "the father of lies." On this occasion he quite surpassed himself. "Hang it all, Ignatieff," said his colleague, giving him a dig in the ribs, "I believe you're the most unmitigated liar that ever was born!" "You flatter me, my dear fellow," replied the general, with a laugh; "but, then, you've never met my father."—London Tatler.
