Mrs. John T. McEachin, of Florence, S. C., and little Miss Maria Eunice Wells, of Wilmington, arrived in the city Sunday and are the guests of Mrs. Alex Wells.

Mr. H. T. Jackson, a former Scotlander who has cast his lot on a farm near Red Spring in Robeson county, spent Saturday with Laurinburg relatives.

On January 16th this year, Scotland county had ginned 25,948 bales of cotton. At the same time last year the records show that we had ginned 28,562 bales.

Mr. Ira Edgerton, of Goldsboro, spent Saturday and Sunday here with his uncle, Mr. L. C. Edgerton. He returned to his home Sunday, making the trip by automobile.

Mr. Allen Fields, Mrs. J. T. Fields and Mr. Douglas McAm left Monday morning for a visit to relatives at Charlotte. They made the trip by automobile.

Dr. J. G. Robertson, who for the past several months has served the Model Pharmacy as prescriptionist, has accepted a like position with a drug company in Concord.

Mr. G. Y. Jones spent the week-end at Mt. Olive visiting relatives.

Miss Lily McKinnon expects to leave next Tuesday for a stay of two months in Florida.

Mr. Peter McLean was host to the Elisabeth Browning Book Club Tuesday afternoon.

Attorney M. L. John returned Sunday from a stay of ten days in Georgia and Florida, where he was called on legal business.

Mrs. Dan Shaw entertained yesterday, both morning and afternoon, in honor of her sister, Miss Elizabeth Whitfield, of Lumberton.

Mr. Harry Winston, who has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. Kate Thomas, for the past several weeks, left for his home at Orr, North Dakota, Friday.

This morning between ten and eleven o'clock there will be a partial eclipse of the sun, which will be visible here. If you have not already done so, get a smoked glass.

Mr. A. F. Schell, of Great Falls, S. C., en route to Raleigh where he will take a special course in pharmacy at Page's School of Pharmacy, spent yesterday in the city.

Mr. C. W. Cherry underwent an operation for appendicitis in a Charlotte hospital one day the past week, and we are glad to note is rapidly recovering. He is expected to return home the latter part of this week.

Misses Eliza and Dickson Peden, who were called to Laurinburg ten days ago on account of the death of their mother, Mrs. Howard Peden, have returned to their home at Hendersonville.

We are pleased to note that little Misses Frances and Virginia McCormick, children of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. McCormick, who have been quite ill with scarlet fever, are rapidly recovering from their illness.

Mrs. J. C. Powell, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. B. McNeill, returned to her home at Jacksonville, Fla., Friday night. She was accompanied home by Miss Betsy McNeill.

The automobiles of Messrs. H. S. Quick and H. C. Farmer locked horns at the corner of Main and McKay streets Monday morning. Both cars were running at a low rate of speed and fortunately no serious damage resulted.

We are glad to note the return of Mrs. E. H. Gibson to her home here. Mrs. Gibson has been undergoing treatment at Sanatorium for the past five months, and to the delight of her many friends, has entirely recovered her health.

We regret to note that our good friend, Mr. E. S. Rudd, has suffered the return of the eye trouble from which he suffered so much several months ago. He is taking treatment under a Charlotte specialist and spent Tuesday in that city.

Messrs. Phillips & James, managers of the local play house, have booked "The Show Girl", a musical comedy company carrying twenty-five people, for two nights February 16 and 17. This show comes with a good record and is highly praised by the manager of the Fayetteville open house.

The Sanitary Market, which for the past several years has been located next door to J. D. Sanford & Son, has been moved to the store room opposite Everington's Drug Store which was formerly used by G. J. Jacobs as a grocery. The reason for this move is explained in their ad elsewhere in this issue.

Weather Prophet J. L. Peeler, of the Sned's Grove section, was a Laurinburg visitor Tuesday. Mr. Peeler reports a small hog killing in his neighborhood at which Will Monroe killed two shoats that were nine months old and weighed 450 pounds net. He also said that Bunk Thrower killed one that pulled the scales for 350 pounds.

In a general fight at Mason's Cross Sunday of last week, Lake Ridges was shot and painfully wounded by Zannie Terry. Ridges, it is said was running, and was indiscreet enough to look back. As he turned the weapon, a shot gun, was fired, and he received the load in his face. Fortunately his wounds were not serious.

Mr. Don McLaughlin, of Wagram, was a Laurinburg visitor Tuesday. Mr. McLaughlin tells us that his brother, Mr. Lacy McLaughlin who was so seriously stabbed some weeks ago at Florala, Ala., is rapidly recovering from the effects of the wound, and hopes to soon be able to make the trip to his home at Wagram.

The sale of Red Cross Seals in Laurinburg during the Christmas holidays was more than the number that was sold a year before. The entire sale amounted to $5,757. The year before was only $2,700. A prize of one dollar was offered to the organization selling the greatest number, and this was easily captured by the Fourth Grade in the city schools. The children very generously gave the prize back into the fund for which the seals were sold.

Mr. Allen Fields, Mrs. J. T. Fields and Mr. Douglas McAm left Monday morning for a visit to relatives at Charlotte. They made the trip by automobile.

Dr. J. G. Robertson, who for the past several months has served the Model Pharmacy as prescriptionist, has accepted a like position with a drug company in Concord.

The many friends of Mrs. R. E. Lee will regret to know that she was painfully hurt Sunday night by falling. She went to the back yard at her home to run away a bunch of dogs that were molesting her poultry yard, and while in the yard stumbled over a stick of wood and fell. In falling she sustained a bruised knee and sprained back.

It will be a matter of much gratification to the people of Laurinburg to know that Mrs. W. H. Cooper, who underwent a serious operation in a Richmond, Va., hospital one day the past week is rapidly recovering from the effects of the operation, which was a successful one. Mr. Cooper, who accompanied her to Richmond returned to the city Monday.

Mrs. Dan Shaw entertained yesterday, both morning and afternoon, in honor of her sister, Miss Elizabeth Whitfield, of Lumberton.

Mr. Harry Winston, who has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. Kate Thomas, for the past several weeks, left for his home at Orr, North Dakota, Friday.

Messrs. Gibson Brothers, who are agents for Dodge automobiles in Scotland, Richmond, Anson, Hoke, Cumberland and Barnett, have moved back into their old stand just below The Exchange office. They will not conduct a repair department as before, nor conduct a garage, but will use their place solely for a salesroom for Dodge cars and Dodge parts. Mr. Edwin Morgan, who has been using the building for the display of Hudson automobiles gave it up the first of February.

Real War Scenes.

"Fighting For France" is a real war picture made on the battlefields where the actual engagements are had. 5,000 feet of thrills showing the real fighting. This picture ran for two solid months in a New York theatre and is now being shown for the first time in the South. Laurinburg is one of the first towns in North Carolina to see it. See it at the Gem Theatre Tuesday night.
