PEGRAM-MCKINNON.

Marriage of Popular Young Couple Here Wednesday Evening.

A wedding of unusual interest to many people here and elsewhere was that of Mr. Lamar Pegram, of Lenoir, and Miss Anna Belle McKinnon, which was solemnized Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church in the presence of a large concourse of friends of the contracting parties. The ceremony was performed by the pastor of the church, Rev. Dr. John M. Rose, D. D. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion in long leaf pines and baskets of pink carnations.

While Mrs. W. DeB. McEachin, of Laurinburg, dispensed the wedding music the wedding party entered the church in the following order: First came the ushers, Mr. George Avinger, and Dr. W. D. James, of Laurinburg, and Mr. Foster Clinton and Mr. B. H. Parker, of Gastonia; then followed the groomsmen, Dr. Roland Clifton, of Wilmington, and Mr. Henry Duff, of Cincinnati, down opposite aisles, these being followed by the two bridesmaids, Miss Frances Louise Neal, of Laurinburg, and Miss Jennie Pegram, of Gastonia, sister of the groom; next came the bride accompanied by the maid of honor, Miss Mary McKinnon, her sister, down one aisle as the groom, accompanied by his brother, Mr. E. N. Pegram, of Gastonia, best man, approached the altar from the other aisle. Before the entrance of the bride party, Miss Patte James sang "At Dawn" and "You."

The bridesmaids wore pink silk dresses with flesh-colored over-dresses with silver trimmings and silver slippers and pink picture hats and carried large bouquets of pink Killarney roses and asparagus ferns. The bride wore a three-piece suit of grape juice blue silk with trimmings of rose and silver and carried a muff of chiffon velvet and silk with a large bouquet of purple orchids and lilies of the valley. She wore hat, shoes and gloves to match. The bride's gifts to the bridesmaids were pink ostrich feather fans with white ivory sticks.

A large array of wedding presents consisting chiefly of silverware, cut glass, china and linen, attested the esteem in which they are held by a wide circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Pegram left Wednesday night for a bridal trip to Washington.

The groom is connected with a string of cotton mills in and around Lenoir, holding a responsible position. He is a young business man of exceptional ability and has a host of friends throughout the State. The bride is a charming young woman and a member of one of Laurinburg's most prominent families.

Pre-Nuptial Entertainments.

Mrs. Walter H. Neal entertained Monday afternoon in honor of Miss Anna McKinnon. After the game several ladies cut for the prize. Mrs. S. A. Urege received a beautiful piece of hand work. Then the hostess came in with a very large box, which she presented to Miss McKinnon. On opening it she found lovely presents from the entire family. A three-course luncheon was served.

Miss Rose Duer gave a beautiful reception Monday evening in honor of Miss McKinnon, who was married Wednesday evening to Mr. Lamar Pegram of Lenoir. The guests were presented with score-cards—Cupid for the ladies and hearts for the gentlemen. After the game the cut gave Mr. George F. Avinger the prize. Then Miss McKinnon received a handsome gift, and last Mrs. Roland Covington, after carefully cutting with Mr. James Maxwell Gregg, became the possessor of the booby—a beautiful Cupid. A salad course with accessories was served.

An informal reception was held at the home of Miss Anna McKinnon Tuesday evening after the rehearsal at the church. A magnificent display of handsome presents was viewed by the guests, among which was a large chest of silver, the gift of the groom's family. The bride's cake was cut by Miss McKinnon and the ring was captured by Miss Fan Louise Neal.

Out-of-town guests here to attend the marriage were Miss Jennie Pegram of Gastonia, Miss Beanie Pegram of Yorktown, S. C., Miss Mattie McNeill of Fayetteville, Mr. Price Pegram of Yorktown, S. C., Mr. Foster Clifton of Gastonia, Mr. E. B. Parker of Gastonia, Mr. Henry Duff of Cincinnati, O., Dr. Roland Clifton of Wilmington and Mr. E. N. Pegram of Gastonia.

Teddy and Bryan.

Don't miss that mirth producing playlet in which Gano and Donnelly representing Teddy and Bill are near the lost river in jungle land. They settle the Luskania matter and drink grape juice. You can see this in Coburn's Minstrels, which appear here the 20th.

Charlie Gano.

Coburn's Minstrels, which appear here March 20th, has that premier comedian, Charlie Gano. If you have seen Charlie—that's sufficient, you will see him again. If you have not had this delight, get ready for the 20th.

Mr. Willie Watson, of Hasty, N. C., has moved his general merchandise business into the new store recently purchased from Mrs. John McKenzie.—McCall Items Pee Dee Advocate.

By exchange of courts Judge W. J. Adams, of Carthage, will preside at the term of Superior Court to be in session here next week, instead of Judge M. H. Justice, who was scheduled to come.

It will be wise to have that printing done now. Everything in paper stocks have advanced from 10 to 20 per cent. The price of job printing will necessarily have to be advanced accordingly. Better get yours now.

Miss Gladys Covington has been leading in the Charlotte Observer Popularity Contest for almost all of the time during the past two weeks. She is not only leading in this district, but throughout the State.

Weather Prophet Joe Peale, of the Sneed's Grove section was a bargain day visitor Saturday. Mr. Peale says that his section had a slight fall of hail Friday afternoon. He also disclaimed the statement that he had predicted the storm.

Mrs. See Brinson and Miss Anny Elmore have returned from the markets where they went to purchase stocks for the spring millinery trade. Mrs. Brinson will hold her regular spring opening next Wednesday.

Messrs. T. C. Everett, E. H. Gibson, A. P. Gibson, H. O. Covington, E. R. Covington and E. D. Phillips, members of the finance and building committees for the proposed new Methodist church, spent Monday in Dunn, where they went to see the church in course of erection in that city.

Rev. Sam Small, the noted evangelist and prohibition lecturer, who was scheduled to deliver his lecture on "Uncle Sam's Wagon" Monday night in the Presbyterian church, will not be here at that time. Changes in his plans necessitated postponing his Laurinburg engagement until Sunday night, the 19th.

WAGRAM-RIVERTON NOTES.

Lyceum Course Over—Delightful Party—Telephone at Swimming Hole.

Rev. and Mrs. Goode accompanied by Miss Martha Watson, motored to Lumberton last Wednesday. Miss Watson visited with friends in that good town until Friday.

Mrs. C. E. Duncan visited her daughter, Mrs. Wayne McNeill, of Riverton, for a few days last week. More new cars on the streets of Wagram—Mr. A. McNeill has a new Dodge and Dr. W. G. Shaw has a limousine.

The last number of the Lyceum course booked for Spring Hill, was given in the school auditorium Wednesday evening, March 8th. All the entertainments were elevating, high toned and most enjoyable; and we feel grateful to the three gentlemen who made the course possible by being responsible. We hope they are not in arrears, and that they will do so again.

Last Friday evening, a delightful party was given in honor of the music class at Spring Hill, by Misses Annie McBryde and Effie Cooley, at the home of the latter. Besides the guests of honor, Miss McBryde's class in music, the faculty of the school and the high school students were present. In a contest of progressive rook, Johnson Matthews won the prize. Delicious refreshments were served in the dining room and consisted of a salad course followed by cream and cake.

Next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock Rev. J. L. Gay, the anti-saloon league lecturer will be at Spring Hill church.

Mr. Bill Hines, the owner of the Wagram telephone system, expects to install a telephone at the Riverton Swimming Hole during the summer months. "Hello—is that you Patterson Park? Nobody over there this lovely evening? I guess not, your friends are all here." Nough said.

Returns to Rowland.

Dr. J. McN. Smith and bride returned to Rowland Friday morning. Dr. Smith was married in Baltimore some time ago and has since been taking a special course in medicine in that city. He has been practicing medicine in Rowland for several years and is one of the most prominent young physicians in this part of the State.

Dr. and Mrs. Smith visited Dr. Smith's mother, Mrs. N. McN. Smith here this week.

A Pleasant Visitor.

It was our pleasure to have as a visitor Saturday, Mr. W. T. Wright, of Gibson. Mr. Wright is a staunch and faithful friend to the Exchange.

He says a good word instead of being a caustic critic; he boosts instead of knocking, leaves sunshine instead of shadows, and wears a smile instead of a frown. No, he did not pay his subscription either, for he is one of that select class whose subscription is always paid a year or more in advance. May his kind never grow less.

Gene and Donnelly.

Do you want to laugh? Then by all means see Gene and Donnelly in "Mathematical Miscalculations." This takes up fifteen minutes of the performance that Coburn's Minstrels will give here the 20th.

Returns From Hospital.

Mr. W. R. Sutherland, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Hamlet Hospital two weeks ago Tuesday, returned to his home here Saturday.
