Our Fatherless Ones Says: Dairyman Foster tells us that he is making about 50 pounds of butter at a churning, and gives the children butter twice a day and milk three times a day. He is making the cows and boys "deliver the goods." We say boys because as much depends upon the boys as the cows.

Perhaps the first woman in North Carolina to volunteer for service as a nurse in Mexico is Mrs. A. B. Breece of Fayetteville, a bride of six weeks, whose husband is a member of Company F, Second regiment, North Carolina National Guard. Mrs. Breece is a professional nurse. Mr. Breece is a candidate for the Legislature in Cumberland, in a second Democratic primary to be held July 1, but he announces that wherever his company goes he will go.

The first North Carolinian to sacrifice his life during the present crisis in Mexico was an Asheville negro, Charlie Williams, member of troop A, of the 10th cavalry, May 24, in a skirmish with Mexican bandits who was killed according to information received at Asheville Thursday. Williams was a son of Marshall Williams, a well known and respected negro of Asheville and joined the army in Cabarrus county closed its anti-typhoid campaign Saturday of last week with near 5,600 having taken the preventive treatment. It is estimated that this number is about 16 per cent of the county's population and that the average per capita cost of the treatment was 7 1-2 cents. Dr. A. C. Bulla, the physician in charge of the work, says he is well pleased with the results of the campaign and the splendid co-operation he received while in the county.
