SPECIAL EDITION.

The Laurinburg Exchange today contains twenty pages of matter which cannot fail to interest every reader who has any kind of interest in Laurinburg and Scotland county.

The preparation of this special edition represents much labor, both on our part and on the part of our friends who have so generously helped to make the edition of such unusual interest.

It is issued in celebration of the thirty-fourth birthday of the Laurinburg Exchange and the sixteenth birthday of Scotland county. In it you will find, we believe, a generous fund of information and history about Laurinburg and Scotland county that has heretofore remained unwritten, and it is therefore of more than ordinary interest and value to the citizenship of both Laurinburg and Scotland county.

To those who so generously helped by making the sacrifice of time and giving the effort to add something to the worth of the edition, we want to return many sincere thanks.

If the efforts put forth to create this special edition of the paper adds the least to the glory or the good of Laurinburg and Scotland county, they will not have been made in vain, and all who have interested themselves, we are sure, will feel amply repaid for the sacrifice made.

ADIEU.

In severing my connection with the Laurinburg Exchange, which I do tomorrow, I am leaving a work that has been a great blessing, of much help and pleasure to me, and I realize that the good I have drawn from it has been far greater than that which I have been able to give back to it.

The appreciations that I have shown, as best I could, to the friends and patrons of the paper, have been but a small measure of what I have and will ever hold in my heart for each of you. You have been better and kinder to me and more willing to overlook my shortcomings than I have had any right to expect.

I have always strived hard to do what seemed right to me, and while I have not pleased all, I realize how futile such an attempt would have been. But when I reckon with myself I feel that I have not done altogether bad, because I have done the best I could.

For the generous support, the thoughtful kindness and help that you have given me during the past four years, I desire in this brief word to return in as full measure as possible, my most sincere thanks.

Mac Cameron.

HAVE A CARE.

It would be the wise thing for parents to have a care about their little ones playing about the Confederate monument. If some care is not taken, some little tot, who is the sunshine and delight of some home in Laurinburg will be suddenly ushered into the keeping of the angels some of these days, and some automobile driver will be held responsible for its death.

Main and Church streets converge at the monument from four points, and drivers coming from either way can not see children on the opposite side of the monument. It is nothing uncommon to see a bevy of nurses at the foot of the monument with a dozen or more children running here and there and playing about the base of it.

A driver going down South Main street could not possibly see a child on the south side of the monument, neither could one coming down East Church see one on the opposite side.
These streets, which are traveled by machines, winds close to the monument either way, and it would only be necessary for one to dash out, as they are often seen doing, into the path of an automobile, and when this happens, when some little one steps out at the wrong time, we will all stop, shudder, and perhaps have a care.

Millan accompanied the party.—Mc-

The following is from the Roanoke that his brother-in-law was dead. A few hours later he received another message that his oldest brother was dead in Randolph County. Mr. Shamburger left Tuesday night for Aberdeen to attend the funeral of his brother." The many friends of Brother Shamburger will deeply sympathize with him in this double bereavement.—Raleigh Christian Advoca-

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W.
H. Carter, of Old Hundred, was found dead in bed last Friday morning. Mr.
Carter went to the bed on which the child and its mother were sleeping, and to his great surprise and sorrow found that the little one was dead.
The mother was sleeping and the child lay close to her.

The funeral and burial was held at the Livingston graveyard Friday afternoon.

The child was but nine days old.

CAPTURES STILL.

Scotland Officers Raid Another Liquor Factory.

Deputy Sheriff Lamar P. Smith, Rural Policeman Frank Smith and Mr. L. Bruce Gibson went on a still hunt Tuesday afternoon, and about six o'clock Deputy Smith turned up with a 50-gallon outfit, which he and the others had located and captured in Williamson township.

They found no operators, but abundant evidence of their operations, in fact the still was hot when it reached the court house and had evidently turned out some of the finished product during the day.

Mr. Smith stated that they found about a gallon of "white lightning" at the still, but could only find enough vessels to bring along a quart.

According to statements from the officers, the blockaders were well fixed and located. They kept no guards out to look for the approach of officers, but better still, they had the surrounding territory, which was of a thick undergrowth, strung with wires, all of which led to the still, and on the end of the main wire, which was connected with the various wires, a bell dangled, and when anyone approached they could not easily do so without coming in contact with the wires, and when they did this, the bell at the still jingled and gave the alarm.

The outfit was one of those crude affairs that are so common to the profession since the officers have been finding and destroying them so often.

Fourth of July Celebration.

Preparations are under way for a big celebration here July the Fourth, which is Tuesday of next week. It is stated that the program is practically completed and details are being worked out for a day's entertainment.

The events will begin at 9:45 with a big street parade, starting at the court house. All expecting to take part in parade are asked to assemble on Main street in front of court house at 9:30. At 10:30 there will be a ball game, and at 4 p. m. a regular schedule league game between Lumberton and Laurinburg.

At one o'clock in the afternoon on Main street near Seaboard passenger station there will be a great water battle by the fire department. From 1:30 to 3:30 at the ball park the following stunts will be pulled off: Bag race, potatoe race, foot race, climbing greasy pole and other attractions.

Those behind the celebration are very anxious that the merchants and other business houses decorate their places for the celebration.

Mrs. Boyd Peele Dead.

It was a sad message that was flushed over the county Thursday announcing the death of Mrs. Boyd Peele, which occurred at the family home in Williamson township. She had been ill for several weeks, and while her passing was not altogether unexpected, it was nevertheless a great blow to her friends and loved ones.

Mrs. Peele was a resident of Fayetteville before her marriage three and one-half years ago.

She is survived by her husband and one child five weeks old; one brother, William Branch, of Raleigh; her mother, who lives in Fayetteville, and two sisters, Mrs. Heilman, of Fayetteville, and Mrs. Rhodes, of Norfolk, Va.

The Exchange extends its sincerest sympathy to the stricken family.

Fairmont Took Three.

Of the four games played by the locals with Fairmont the past week, Fairmont captured three of them.
The first game was reported in our last issue. The second game here went to Fairmont by a score of 4 to 3. In the next engagement, which was at Fairmont, the locals won by a score of 2 to 1. The game Friday went to the credit of Fairmont by close score, 3 to 4.

This week we are playing Fayetteville at Fayetteville. The game Tuesday was captured by Fayetteville by a score of 10 to 6 and another game was played yesterday, but too late for us to get the results. Today and tomorrow the locals will be at home and will have as their opponents the lads from Parkton.

A Solid Wall of Good Will

Nothing has ever disturbed the demand for this car.

Not for a month, not for a week, not for a single day.

Having only one car to build, Dodge Brothers have been able to build it better and better.

But in the sense of radical changes, it is the same car today it was when they designed it.

And still the demand goes on growing greater and greater.

No outside conditions, no conditions inside the industry, seem to slow it up a particle.

The people want the car more intensely at this moment than they ever wanted it before.

This in the face of the fact that production is at the highest peak it has ever reached.

And in the face of the further fact that the sales—in a year and a half—have been more than $63,- 000,000.

You can find out why this is so from what people are saying about the car all around you.

For months and months they talked particularly of its performance.

Now, you will hear even greater emphasis laid on its economy.

You will hear that with thousands of cars in use, Dodge Brothers dealers have practically no use for repair parts.

That rumor is true. Accidents are the chief source of demand for Dodge repair parts.

You will hear that the cost of maintenance is practically nil.

This too, is true in thousands of cases.

You will hear that the car consumes an unusually small amount of gasoline and oil.

This is literally true—of every Dodge Brothers car, under all conditions.

You will hear that it is very difficult to find Dodge Brothers cars for sale at second-hand anywhere.

You will also hear that the second-hand price is only a little lower than the first price.

Both of these things are true—not in one city, nor one state, but all over the Union.

You do not hear people talking about the price of the car.

But you do hear them talking everywhere about the kind of a car it is.

In short, wherever you find a Dodge Brothers car, you will find it surrounded by friends.

You will find it running, from morning to night, in an atmosphere of good will.

No ill will anywhere, good will everywhere—good will that grows out of its good work.

No one knows the value of this good will any better than Dodge Brothers know it.

No one counts more on it, nor works harder to deserve it.

This is your guarantee when you buy one of Dodge Brothers cars—the great good will that all the owners feel toward it and the high value which Dodge Brothers place on that good will.
