

Local Notes.

The next stop is the Fourth.

Mr. J. C. Davis, of Rockingham, spent Tuesday in the city.

Miss Lee Pope, of Lumberton, is the guest of Miss Ida Wilkes.

Mr. Aubry Hammond spent Sunday at Wrightsville Beach.

Miss Annie Goodwyn is attending a house party at Ridgeland, S. C.

Miss Mary Deaton, of Jacksonville, Fla., is a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Gibson.

Mrs. Bettie McMillan was called home from New Bern on account of the death of Mrs. Kate Middleton.

Attorney W. H. Weatherspoon and Mr. C. L. McCoy spent Tuesday in Moore county.

Messrs. L. A. Pender, R. N. Grubb and J. W. Mason spent Sunday afternoon at Red Springs.

Mrs. G. Y. Jones and children have returned from a visit to relatives at Mount Olive.

Miss Bess Gibson, of Gracewood, Ga., is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. N. McN. Smith.

Mr. B. F. Smoot, of McColl, S. C., was a business visitor to the city Friday.

Mr. N. P. Gibson, of Maxton, R. F. D. No. 4, was a Laurinburg visitor Thursday.

Miss Betsy McNeill visited Misses Annie and Elizabeth McEachern, at Raeford, during the past week.

Mr. J. D. Cameron and Dr. N. C. Hunter, of Rockingham, spent Thursday in the city.

Dr. Chas. W. Regan left Tuesday night for Asheville, where he goes to attend the meeting of the North Carolina Dental Association.

Laurinburg will play Lumberton here July 4th and 5th. Today and tomorrow they have with them the Parkton lads.

Messrs. J. M. Butler, Lauch McInnis and A. R. McEachin, of St. Pauls, were Laurinburg visitors Tuesday afternoon.

Rev. J. C. Shive, field representative of Davidson College, occupied the Presbyterian pulpit here Sunday morning and evening.

Messrs. Jake Hinson and Stancil Covington, of Rockingham, spent Monday afternoon with Laurinburg friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McRae and son, John Sumter, of Maxton, were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Russell.

Rev. and Mrs. R. F. Bumpas, who have been visiting relatives in different sections of the state, have returned to Laurinburg.

Mrs. D. T. Blue and children returned to the city Saturday night from Keyser, where they have been visiting relatives.

Rev. J. M. Rose, Mrs. Rose and Miss Annie Rose will leave this week for Fayetteville, where they will spend two months with relatives.

We regret to note the continued illness of Mr. I. U. Kincaid. Mr. Kincaid has been suffering for several weeks from an attack of neuritis and his condition does not improve.

Miss Emma Ritch left Thursday for Charlotte to enter a hospital for a minor operation and treatment. She will remain in the hospital another week.

Miss Ola Herron, a member of the faculty of the Salisbury Normal and Industrial Institute, is in the city the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. D. B. McEachin.

Mr. T. B. Russell, who has been so ill that he was confined to his bed several days during the past week, we are glad to note is very much improved at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. George Falls, and little Miss Annie Sue McDonald, who have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Falls, have returned to their homes at Cherryville.

Judge Walter H. Neal, who attended the unveiling of the Vance monument at Washington, D. C., Thursday, was among a number of prominent Carolinians who were given seats of honor for the occasion.

Mrs. Sidney J. Smith, who has been visiting his children at several South Carolina towns, returned to Laurinburg Thursday, and is the guest of his son, Deputy Sheriff Lamar P. Smith.

His numerous friends throughout the county will regret to learn that Mr. Hector C. McMillan, of Laurinburg, R. F. D. No. 2, is confined to his home suffering from an attack of typhoid fever.

Mrs. Elliott, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Peter McLean, returned to her home in Cumberland county Tuesday. She was accompanied home by her grandson, Master Hector McLean.

Mrs. John A. Narron and son, J. A. Narron, Jr., of Smithfield, were guests at the home of Mr. Dan Shaw during the past week, and are now at the home of Dr. W. G. Shaw, near Wagram.

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Dixon, Misses Alice and Eva Covington, Messrs. Harry Malloy and Dickson Phillips are at Rock Hill, S. C., to attend the Carothers-Gregg wedding which took place last night.

The first ready-to-market cantaloupe that Scotland had at that time produced, so far as we are able to say, was brought here Thursday by Mr. John A. McGregor, of the Mason Cross section. Mr. McGregor is one of the extensive growers and largest shippers in the county.

Mrs. A. B. McNair and children, Mr. J. A. McFayden and Mrs. F. C. McNair, of Hartsville, S. C., spent Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. E. Buchanan. The party, except Mrs. F. C. McNair, left Friday by automobile for Wilmington. Mrs. McNair is still a guest at the Buchanan home.

The young people of the town gave a dance in the opera house Friday night, to which a large number of young people from the neighboring towns came. The occasion is said to have been the most successful social affair and the prettiest dance given here this year. An orchestra from Darlington, S. C., furnished the music.

A long needed work is being done on the Presbyterian church yard. The Presbyterian congregation here have the most attractive church building in the city, and situated as it is, in a beautiful grove, should be the prettiest and most attractive place of worship in Scotland county. The work that is being done will supply the lacking attraction.

We note with pleasure the continued improvement in the condition of Master James Ray, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ray, who has been ill for the past two months with colitis. For several weeks it was feared that the child could not successfully fight the battle with the disease, but for the past few days a change has come for the better and it is now hoped that the little one will soon be well again.

Among the out of town people here to attend the McNair-Avinger marriage, which was solemnized last night at the Presbyterian church, we note the following: Mr. D. A. Clark, of Boydton, Va., Mr. L. Everett, of Monroe, Miss Catharine Fairley, of Rockingham, Miss Julia Tatum, of McColl, S. C., Miss Louise Blue, of Aberdeen, Miss Helena Wade, of Jacksonville, Fla., and Miss Bess Gibson, of Gracewood, Ga.
