Ten Brothers. In connection with the above interesting historical information regarding the period of '61-'65, another most interesting fact has come to our attention, which shows the patriotic loyalty of one of Scotland's families to the cause for which the south so nobly struggled. This family sent ten brave, big-hearted sons to the front and all of them did service that reflected credit upon our community and upon the state's proud war record.

These ten boys were sons of the late Euseben Jones, grandfather of our townsmen, Mr. Jas. A. Jones, and were as follows: William Jones, Duncan Jones, Jas. H. Jones, Daniel Jones, Hiram Jones, Alex. Jones, Sam. Jones, Malcom Jones, Dougald Jones, Archie Jones. Of these ten brothers two are now living, Mr. Dougald Jones, who resides in Marlboro county, E. C., and Mr. Sam. Jones, of Laurinburg, E. F. D. No. 2.
