OUR DAILY BREAD

(A prayer by Clarence Poe) O Thou Eternal God, Master of All Good Workmen, for this new day with its new tasks and its new opportunities for faithful effort, I thank Thee. With the sad past and the uncertain future, I can now do nothing; today alone Thou givest me to shape and mould, while yet I can, into an epitome of that complete life to which I aspire. Worthy and noble therefore, O God, make my ideals for this day.

National Publicity Edition

The Exchange comes to you this week 44 pages strong, depicting in a creditable manner, we hope, some of the many advantages, resources and possibilities of Scotland county and of Laurinburg, the county seat. For some months we have had under way the project of a special publicity edition of a worthwhile character. We hope we have succeeded in a measure, and the results of our work are sent along to you, trusting and having faith that some good will come of it.

E. MORRIS AND SON, PLANT AND SEEDSMEN

A Visit to Farm of Enterprising Men Who Are Making Things Come to Pass on the Soil. It was a genuine treat Tuesday afternoon to slip away for an hour or two to the plant, vegetable and seed farm of E. Morris and Son, whose postoffice is Maxton, but who live in and own a fine farm in Scotland county, and are glad of it, they say.

beneath the ground. The boll weevil will not do them serious injury, we are thinking. However, it would not do for all farmers to grow plants and seeds and vegetables, but the example set by the Morris farm is that specialization pays and that the man or the man who follow one specific line consistently and persistently will get somewhere in time and will be sure to arrive.

COLORED CIVIC LEAGUE TO HAVE PROGRAM NEXT WEEK

The Colored Civic League announces a special program for Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, May 20-23. Exercises will be held each evening at the colored Baptist church. A number of people are on the program, and among them Miss Marian Swain, home demonstration agent, and Mr. Herbert K. Fox, secretary of the chamber of commerce.

DOLLAR DAYS, MAY 23-24

Friday and Saturday, May 23-24 Dollar Days at Laurinburg. Special bargains by all the merchants. Watch for The Exchange next week, coming out on Wednesday evening. Don't forget to come to Laurinburg May 23-24.

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AT LAURINBURG

On another page will be found a story of the Protestant churches of Laurinburg. This story is being reprinted from a special section of the Charlotte Observer of August 19, 1923. No mention is made in that story of the fact that the Catholics have a church at Laurinburg. They have a beautiful church building on McKay street, and there are a number of people of this faith living in Laurinburg. This special edition of The Exchange would not be complete if we omitted mention of this church, which has a part in the life of the community. Rev. Father Turner, of Hamlet, is the pastor.

YOUNG PEOPLE TO MEET AT HANLEY SUNDAY

On Sunday afternoon, May 18, the second annual convention of the Pee Dee Association will convene at the First Baptist church, Hamlet. The program will begin sharply at 2 o'clock and all young people in the association are urged to be present. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. J. C. McIntyre, agent for the express company here, has received instructions that he may accept for free transportation shipments of clothing and other donations to the Anderson cyclone sufferers at Anderson, S. C., same to be consigned to the Red Cross at that place.

Mr. W. B. McIntyre and daughter, Miss Annie, of Maxton, route 1, were victims in the city Monday.

OFFICERS GET WHISKEY STILL AND THREE MEN

Make Big haul Monday Night When They Capture Lander Quick and Negro, Robert Smith

One of the biggest hauls made by officers in the county in some time was that of Monday night when Deputy Sheriff Lamar Smith, Frank Smith and Sandy Deaton captured Lander Quick, white, and Robert Smith, colored, and also brought in the illicit whiskey still which they found in the upper waters of the Blue's mill pond. The third man was arrested Tuesday when officers found Buba Quick, a brother of Lander, in Laurinburg and took him in charge. Information had been given them that Buba was one of the principals in the case and as quick as they found him they took him in the name of the law.

WOMAN'S PAGE

(Continued from page 5) was found a white arrow upon which was written, "Gibson-Young, June," announcing the coming marriage of Miss Elizabeth Gibson and Mr. E. E. Young, Jr. The letter of Charlotte, Mrs. Ellen Fairly and Mrs. W. E. Royal conducted the guests from the dining room to the punch bowl, where they were served by Misses Mary Fields and Gladys Covington. Miss Patie James bade them adieu. MRS. JOHN ENTERTAINS FOR MRS. EVERETT Mrs. Peter John entertained a number of friends Wednesday afternoon, honoring Mrs. A. C. Everett, of Rockingham, with a sewing party. This was a happy gathering of old friends. The hostess served a salad course with tea.

MOTHERS CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. FAIRLY TUESDAY

The Mothers Club met with Mrs. A. M. Fairly Tuesday afternoon. This was the regular business meeting. The minutes were read and the treasurer made her report. Officers were elected for the coming year. Mrs. J. R. Murphy, president; Mrs. H. W. McLaurin, vice president; Mrs. W. Leak Peace, secretary and treasurer. Program committee: Mrs. W. L. Thrower, chairman; Mrs. W. R. Royal and Mrs. A. F. Hille. It was voted to have the roll called at each meeting and any member not present and who has failed to notify the hostess will be reported to the secretary. It was also decided to have the annual reception for the teachers in October. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. R. Murphy, served a delightful ice course with angel food, her daughter, Mrs. Jno. F. McNair, cake, followed by stuffed dates and salted nuts.

WOMAN'S CLUB APPRECIATES IMPROVEMENTS AT THE COURT HOUSE

The Woman's Club wishes to make a public expression of its appreciation of the work and interest of the county commissioners, the home demonstration agent, Miss Marian Swain, and the county agent, Mr. S. E. Evans, in the improvement and beautification of the Scotland county court house grounds in Laurinburg. The Woman's Club feels that the cleaning up and beautifying of the grounds at the county court house adds much to the respectability and dignity of the citizenship of Scotland county and reflects most creditably the civic love and pride of worthy citizens. The Woman's Club believes that it is the sentiment of the people of the whole county that a good work hath been wrought and to those who labored so faithfully to make possible this great improvement much praise and thanks should be given.

THE JOHN CHARLES McNEILL BOOK CLUB MEETS

The John Charles McNeill Book Club held its last regular meeting with Mrs. W. E. Matthews at the home of Mrs. Arnette, her mother, at Wagram. The following program was carried out: Our State in the World War, Mrs. W. E. Matthews; Economic Progress in North Carolina, Mrs. D. A. Bazley; Educational Advancement, Miss Obetah McMillan. There followed a very original and appropriate contest on the counties of North Carolina. Miss Kate Matthews won the prize, a lovely hand-made basket filled with freshly cut white roses. White roses were also in evidence in the decoration scheme and a dainty white bed served as favor on each plate of delicious ice cream and cake, served at the close of the evening. The honor guests were Mrs. Dan McLear, Laurinburg; Mrs. Melba McLintock, Sanford; Mrs. Emma Kinney, Sanford, and Mrs. W. J. Matthews.

John Charles McNeill, Poet of the People. (Continued from page 2) influences that Dr. Benjamin Sledd, head of the Wake Forest English department, exerted over him. Dr. Sledd himself a poet, a profound student of nature and sincere lover of beauty, having a broad outlook on life, incapable of anything little in thought or action, was and is in every way equipped to be the teacher of a poet. "Many a night," Dr. Sledd tells us, "pieces of compositions were forgotten as we talked the hours away over poets."
