TAXPAYERS TAKE NOTICE.

The County Board of Equalization meets Monday, July 8th at eleven o'clock and we quote herewith the law under which they will sit as the Board. This extract is found on the pages 442 and 443, Chapter 344, Section 522, paragraph 8, 1929 Public Laws.

(8) The Board of Equalization and Review in the years other than the year of the quadrennial assessment, provided for in this act, shall not increase or reduce the assessed valuation of any real property, but the same shall be listed and assessed at the same valuation as listed and assessed at the last quadrennial assessment:

(a) Except where real property has been discovered and not listed or assessed at the last quadrennial assessment.

(b) Except where clerical errors have occurred in the making out and transcribing of the tax list and assessment roll.

(c) Except where improvements and appurtenances have been added to the value of more than one hundred dollars, or where there has been removed or destroyed anything of value since the last quadrennial assessment exceeding one hundred dollars, and in that event, the Board of Equalization and Review shall find the value of the improvements, appurtenance or thing of value added to, removed or destroyed and shall increase or reduce the appraised value of such real property, accordingly.

(d) Except where the valuation of the real property, since the last quadrennial assessment shall have been affected by some extraordinary circumstances, the facts in connection with which shall be found by such board in each case and entered upon the proceedings of said Board.

(e) Except where real property has been subdivided into lots, streets, laid out and map registered, or where land has been subdivided into lots on any street or streets already laid out and determined, since the last quadrennial assessment, and the said lots have been sold or offered for sale with reference to said street, and or map registered, then and in that case they shall determine the value in money of each lot thereof.

If your complaint does not come under one of the above paragraphs do not waste your time nor that of the Board of Equalization. If, however, you have a claim which rightfully comes under either one of these sections, please have it in form and quote under which you are filing claim, giving full description of property and its location as to township and ownership.

W. J. PLINT,
County Auditor.

VOL. II THURSDAY JULY 4, 1929 NO. 27

Published in the interest of Beaufort, Morehead City, and Vicinity by the Noe Hardware Co. B. H. Noe, Editor

Screen doors and wire sure are moving, as result of the hot weather and the good support of our patrons.

Now that the 4th is over, the younger members of the family are planning for Christmas.

When it gets warm drop in and let us demonstrate our Electric Fans, they are popular priced.

Mack: "Get the thumb tack?"
Jack: "No, but gotta finger nail."

Just received a big shipment of pint and quart cans, buy now and get ready for the canning season.

How much whiskey can a Scotchman drink?
Ans. Any given amount.

We also have pint quart and half gallon jars, rubbers & everything to can & preservew ith.

Curious: "Why do they call a sail boat 'She'?"

Cautious: "Because they make a better showing in the wind."
