RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT FOR ROWLAND L. DAVIS, BY THE MEN'S BIBLE CLASS BEAUFORT BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL

Our class was greatly shocked on Sunday morning to hear of the death of one of our regular members, when we learned that Brother Rowland Lane Davis had died that morning in the New Bern Hospital. The Sunday before he was present as well as many, many Sundays before, and the Class was grieved at its loss.

We realize fully there is nothing we can say or do that will change the situation, but we only wish that his and our friends may know that we esteemed him highly, that he was a valuable member of our organization and that we will miss him greatly.

As we often hear, "death is no respecter of persons," and with its "palsied hand strikes alike the palace of the rich and the hovel of the poor." In our brother's death, the Town has lost a valuable citizen, the church an honored member and his family a devoted husband and father and his mother a dutiful son.

We can only point his loved ones to Him "who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," for comfort and guidance, and assure them that we feel individually and as a class our loss and trust that our Heavenly Father will lead each one of them in the paths of peace.

Respectfully and sincerely submitted,
Alonzo T. Hill,
James Graham,
Clem Merrell,
Committee.

BUDGET COMMISSION CONSIDERS REQUESTS

Involved in the banks that are still closed, according to figures compiled from records in the State Banking Department offices.

This means that 92.2 per cent of the deposits and 92 per cent of the resources in the State bank system remain intact and untouched by the 34 banks and nine branches which closed and did not reopen. Seven banks and five branches closed reopened and continued business.

The 350 banks and 74 branches operating in the State system January 1, 1930, had total deposits of $113,595,202 subject to check and total resources of $341,750,898 on that date, while only $2,853,898 in deposits and only $27,606,892 in total resources were involved in the bank failures during the year, including the 13 banks, led by the Central Bank and Trust Co., Asheville, which closed last week. The bulk of the State bank money, it is seen, is still intact, and those figures will be increased if some of the banks closed last week reopen, and it is expected that at least two more of them will, after the situation settles down in the western section.

As the smoke of the 1930 political battle clears away, the stage, all set for 1932, appears, with the 1936 contests in the offing. Included in the 1932 contents will be those for the U. S. Senate, Governorship, his lieutenants, the attorney general, and others, while the 1936, Democratic governorship race is beginning to take form.

Senator Lee S. Overman has announced his candidacy to succeed himself. Former Governor Cameron Morrison has announced his opposition. Robert R. Reynolds, Asheville, and Frank D. Grist, commissioner of labor and printing, have hinted at possible candidacies. Clyde R. Hoey, Shelby, often mentioned, is saying nothing. Governor Morrison's friends doubt that Senator Overman will be a candidate, finally, but think their man would have little trouble in defeating him on the "new and younger blood" idea. Former Governor A. W. McLean, it is generally understood will support the only other member of the N. C. ex-Governor Club, despite splits in the past. Other supporters of Senator Simmons in the June primary may or may not follow Governor McLean. If Mr. Hoey enters the race, which many doubt, he would cause trouble, plenty of it.

Lining up For 1936 Too

While the 1932 Governor's race may be said to be in statu quo, things are also heading up for the 1936 race. Thomas C. (Tam) Bowie, Jefferson, while not inclined towards the Attorney General office route, will, under normal conditions be a gubernatorial candidate in 1936, his friends say. H. (sandy) Graham, of Hillsboro, is expected to keep his contacts and friends by running for Lieutenant-Governor in 1932, with his eye on the Governor's chair in 1936. Judge T. L. Johnson, now of Asheville, retired from the 1932 race with the apparent purpose of entering the 1936 contest.
D. F. Giles and W. F. Wood, both of Marion, and Mr. Graham are prospects for the Lieutenant Governor's race in 1932. With Mr. Bowie definitely out, the prospects for the 1932 Attorney General race include I. M. Bailey, attorney for the N. C. Corporation Commission; Charles Ross, attorney for the N. C. Highway Commission, and Kenneth C. Royall, Goldsboro. Doubt that Mr. Royall will run is expressed, while there is intimation that another unnamed candidate will get in that race. All of these contests have interesting possibilities.

Twenty-two highway construction projects, involving about $1,500,000, are included in the list on which bids will be received at the State highway Department December 9, John D. Waldrop, State highway engineer, announces. These include an aggregate of 25.5 miles of concrete, 11.42 miles of asphalt, 14.31 miles of gravel surfacing, 21.13 miles of grading and structures, 3.49 miles of grading, structures and topsoil, three bridges and structures on one piece of road. Nineteen of these projects are approved for Federal Aid, estimates being that half a million dollars or more in Federal money will be utilized on all except three, in Martin, Tyrrell and Sampson counties. The $500,000 county equalizing fund and funds from the highway districts will be used to meet the Federal Aid on the 19 projects.

First steps toward organized relief and coping with unemployment in the State will be undertaken this week, following the meeting in the Revenue Building here on Tuesday of Governor Gardner's Council on unemployment and Relief in North Carolina with Frank Bane, Washington, D. C., representing President Hoover's Committee on unemployment.

M. Eugene Newsom, Durham, recent president of Rotary International, is chairman of the council, with Mrs. W. T. Bost, commissioner of public welfare, as vice-chairman, and 13 other citizens, leaders in civic, labor, industrial, banking, newspaper and other circles.

"Immediate organization to meet the many grave issues arising out of this problem appears to be absolutely imperative at this time and is, of course, in conformity with the President's plans in this connection," Governor Gardner wrote the members he named on the committee, urging them "to cooperate to the fullest degree in this effort to work out a program in cooperation with the Labor and Welfare Departments, which will assist in organizing the State for the relief of the distress in which large numbers of our people now find themselves."

Day Light

Nothing So Cheap and Nothing So Good as Day Light WINDOWS AND DOORS Cheaper than in fifteen years. We sell for less than Mail Order Houses.

A GLASS DOOR in place of the wooden panel door in front or back or kitchen is just like adding a window to the room.

A GLASS DOOR or pair of Glass Doors between Living Room and Dining Room adds more light to both rooms than does a window.

THEN PAINT. Five to six dollars for two coats of paint of highest grade. If one can't afford a full bill "Paint a Room a Month."

"EVERYTHING FOR THE BUILDER"—We sell just that. Think of something we haven't got and we get it. But with 913 items on hand you rarely have to wait.
