DON'T WAIT

When I quit this mortal shore
And moose 'round the earth no more,
Don't weep, don't sigh, don't sob,
I may have struck a better job;
Don't go and buy a large bouquet
For which you'll find it hard to pay
Don't mope around and feel all blue,
I may be better off than you.

Don't tell the folks I was a saint,
Or any old thing that I ain't;
If you have jam like that to spread,
Please hand it out before I'm dead;
If you have roses, bless your soul,
Just pin one in my buttonhole
While I'm alive and well—today,
Don't wait until I've gone away.

Mrs. Bayard Taylor Is Chairman of Ball

Mrs. Bayard Taylor, of Beaufort, has been appointed chairman in Beaufort for the gala costume ball to be held Saturday night at Atlantic Beach casino, under the auspices of the North Carolina organization of the Robert E. Lee Memorial Foundation, for the benefit of restoration work at Stratford Hall, historic home of the famous Lee family in Virginia.

Advance indications are that there will be a vast crowd at the beach to enjoy the elaborate program being arranged for the occasion. Many cottagers and residents will not only participate in the festivities but also entertain many week-end guests from a wide radius, the ball being planned as the outstanding social event of the season.

Three boats were to go up the sound during the latter part of the week to bring back myriads of palm leaves and other shrubbery and plants for the extensive decorations in the casino. Valuable prizes are to be given to the costume prize winners, for the men and women having the best costumes and also for those having the most amusing costumes.

Though Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Cannon, of Raleigh, summering at Morehead City, had accepted the general chairmanship of the occasion, they had to give up the responsibility this week due to the fact that the former had to report at a Philadelphia hospital for treatment.

Mrs. Richard N. Duffy, of New Bern and Morehead City, who is state benefit chairman for the memorial foundation, by appointment of Mrs. Edwin C. Gregory, of Salisbury, state director, is continuing plans for the event, with the assistance of a number of co-workers and committees.

A floor show will be given at midnight during the ball, including songs and dances by three Beaufort young women and also by others. The grand march, in which the costumed guests will participate in competition for the prizes, will take place at 11 p. m., it is planned. The general public is invited to attend this benefit affair.
