JUNIOR-SENIOR CRUISE

By C. S. LONG

Members of the Junior Class of the Newport High School and their guests, the seniors, made merry Saturday on a cruise up Bogue Sound to Swansboro.

The trip was made on the boat, Idle-On, captained by John Dickinson. Captain Dickinson very willingly catered to the wishes of the lads and lassies. Upon our return to Beaufort he carried us about two miles out on the Atlantic Ocean. A trip outside was a great experience for most of those present. Some were thrilled while others were very gloomy and skeptical as to the outcome.

We ate lunch on the dock at Swansboro. The menu consisted of a wide variety of sandwiches, deviled eggs, cakes and drinks. Parch peanuts and apples were served between meals.

The girls were clad in slacks and sea-going accessories, while the boys wore linen trousers and navy coats.

During the cruise the gleeful girls and boys played games of various kinds. A deck ballgame with apples was most amusing. Music for the occasion was furnished by Graham Stobaugh and his steel guitar. An at Swansboro seemed to be the center of attraction for the dock loafers and longshoremen.

Guests of the Junior Class other than the Seniors were Principal, R. L. Pruitt, Miss Rochelle Willis, Miss Azilea Holland, Mrs. C. S. Long, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Richards and C. S. Long, home room teacher of the Junior class.

Fourth Grade School News
In art and science this month we have been studying about birds. The class decided that we would make a booklet of birds. We drew pictures of birds. The teacher gives us a riddle for each bird. The best ones the teacher put on the blackboard. We have drawn the Bluebird, Bluejay, Robin, Bobolink and Crow.

For our spring borders on the blackboard we have drawn dogwood on one board and on the other we have drawn frog and load stools.

Since it is the last of school every one is working hard so as to be sure to make their grade.
