Ray Matulewicz of Pennsylvania

Ray Matulewicz is attracting more attention at the present time than any other fighter in North Carolina. On Friday night he will meet Sgt. Jimmie Lucas for 10-round go in the semi-finals of Ad Warren's Boxing Show at the Casino on Atlantic Beach. Matulewicz weighs 172 pounds, is five feet 11 1/2 inches high and has planned for a short course so far, is being arranged, said L. R. Harvill, 4-H club leader for the State College extension service.

Special attention will be given practical subjects, has tated. In agricultural engineering, for example, here will be instruction on the care and use of farm machinery and in rural electrification.

Personal improvement and a greater appreciation of the finer things in life are as necessary to "making a life" as practical subjects are to "making a living," Harvill continued.

Registration for the short course will begin Monday afternoon, July 26. The program will be brought to a close with the exalting ceremony Friday evening in Riddick Stadium.

The boys and girls will remain in their dormitories overnight and will depart for their homes Saturday. The college will furnish dormitory rooms free, and meals will be supplied at low cost.

The Honor Club program and the Health Pageant, in which the 4-H State King and Queen of Health will be crowned, will feature the Thursday evening program. A style review, team demonstrations, folk dances, dramatizations, sight-seeing tours, and addresses by noted men and women are among other phases of the program.

Last year the short course was attended by 735 club members and leaders. An even larger attendance is expected this year, Harvill said. One boy and one girl from each club in the State is eligible to attend the short course.

Applications of ground limestone and phosphate has meant greener pastures in Madison County this spring than in many years past. More livestock is being grazed on the same acreage with better results.

Surry County farmers say the recent attacks by flea beetle larvae and other insects will likely reduce tobacco production by 20 percent in that county.

LOUD FIREWOOD
IN OLD BOSTON ABOUT 1830, SOLOMON LOUD, INGENIOUS YANKEE, SUSPECTED THE BARBER NEXT DOOR OF STEALING HIS FIREWOOD. HE LAID A TRAP BY BORING HOLES IN SEVERAL PIECES OF FIREWOOD FILLING THE HOLES WITH GUNPOWDER AND NEATLY PLUGGING THEM UP AND PUTTING THEM BACK ON THE PILE. IN A LITTLE WHILE, A LOUD EXPLOSION IN THE BARBER SHOP NEXT DOOR CONFIRMED HIS SUSPICIONS, AND PUT AN EFFECTIVE END TO WOOD STEALING.

BASEBALL PRESSBOX

By A. R. RICE

By A. R. RICE

The strong Wilmington Private organization plays here Sunday starting at 3:30 P.M. This is the same squad that last year defeated Beaufort two out of three, all played here and last Sunday handed Atlantic its first setback of the season 10 to 6 in a game played at Atlantic.

Beaufort made it six consecutive wins against no losses for two seasons during the past eight days by downing Straits here June 30th 3 to 2, racking up another against the same team at Straits last Saturday, July 3rd 15 to 5 and walloping Jamesville here July 4th 9 to 2.

The Independence Day game saw Harry Vanhorn, local pitcher, mowing out just six and fanning five as Beaufort was laying down a barrage of fifteen base knocks off Carson and not a single Beaufort man struck out. Six of the fifteen safeties were for extra bases. Ray Hassell got two doubles and a single in five chances, G. Hassell a double and triple for four, F. Longest a double and two singles for five, Vanhorn three singles for five, Chas. Hassell walked three times and singled once and Horton hit twice. Beaufort scored three in the first on four hits, a base on balls, wild pitch, stolen base and two errors; a base on balls, sacrifice and a hit accounted for one in the third; an error and three safeties pushed two over in the fourth; one was added in the sixth on two hits and a miscue; the final brace came in the seventh on two errors and two hits. The visitors made six bobbles, all costly.

V. Hassell was the only visitor to connect safely twice. They tallied once in the third on an error and the first two of Beaufort's five errors and once in the sixth on an error and a single. Ray Hassell's receiving featured Beaufort's pay.

Chas. Rice went the route on the slab for the locals in the 3 to 2 win over Straits. He allowed nine hits as against the twelve his mates gathered off F. Chadwick. Clark got three of the twelve. William Tyler caught.

Henry Hatsell hurled five hit ball for six frames in the 15 to 5 route of Straits and "Tiekie" Willis finished, giving up four. Beaufort shelled Chadwick for 22 base hits, Norman Skarren getting two singles, a triple and home run, C. Rice a single, two doubles and a triple and C. Hassell three hits. Tyler and R. Hassell caught for Beaufort.
