IT'S A GAY OLD WORLD
 It's a gay old world when you're gay
 And a glad old world when you're glad
 But whether you play
 Or go toiling away
 It's a sad old world when you're sad.

It's a grand old world if you're great
 And a mean old world if you're small;
 It's a world full of hate
 For the foolish who prate
 Of the uselessness of it all.

It's a beautiful world to see
 Or it's dismal in every zone.
 The thing it must be
 In its gloom or in its glee
 Depends on yourself alone.

Post Office At Ocracoke Today Is In Big Ike O'Neal's Store

OCRACOKE ISLAND'S postoffice is located in Big Ike O'Neal's store located on the shores of Silver Lake Harbor in the center of the community. Postmistress at the present time is Miss Elizabeth O'Neal, daughter of Big Ike. She is shown in the above picture selling a money order to Walter O'Neal, island merchant. Ocracoke, according to its per capita, probably issues more money orders than any other community in the world. Tom Howard, retired postmaster there, once told the Beaufort News Editor that the annual sale of money orders amounted to $36,000.—(Photo by Aycock Brown).
