A special from Atlanta Ga. shows by pole of the cit that Taft sentiment in the New York of the South is in the majority and the Georgia crackers lament the fact that there is no greater effort being made to carry the "goosier state" for Judge Taft.

Mr. Bryan certainly "got what was coming to him."

The Washington Post in an editorial on campaign contributions says: "It is all poppycock, and until William J. Bryan tells the public what he did with that $15-000 Tom Ryan sent to Omaha to elect him a senator in Congress, let him hold his peace about campaign funds and campaign publicity."

Rheumatic Pains relieved by use of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. 25 doses 25 cts.

The Durham Herald has the following to say of Hon. W. H. Carroll's speech at West Durham last Wednesday night:
"Mr. Carroll was introduced by W. B. Guthrie, Esq., who made hit and blazed a clear trail for the speaker. The orator recognized it too and said the chairman had made a serious mistake in sending him there instead of Mr. Guthrie. But when Carroll started, the fur began to fly and men have seldom had more to laugh about than he gave them."

The crowd was an excellent temper for the speaker. He began with the reconstruction Republicans and he never got far from them.
His idea is that the party hasn't changed much and he talks largely of reconstruction republicanism. He doesn't think there is much patriotism in the new school and said this while his audience howled: "I don't know how it is here, but up in Alamance where I come from, there are no republicans who don't expect to get something out of it.
Find one anywhere and he expects to get his pocket greased."

Our fellow townsman has a lovable memory, trained conscious, and a reactive mind. For we recall that it has only been a few months ago that this same gentleman cried out from the house top, groaned in the valley, shouted from the street corner and tore his shirt in every alley, in an attempt to arouse the enthusiasm of his own clans, in support of his nomination for solicitor.
We are further reminded that this is the same gentleman that two years ago roared forth from every stump in Alamance county asking his fellow citizens for their sufferage so that he might be a member of the legislature of North Carolina.
Everybody knows the result of each effort. As to what was the motive that prompted the act we are unable to say, but we presume that the gentleman never once thought of the four dollars a day paid to a member of the legislature, or the innumerable number of sic fa fees that so frequently went into the pocket of that one A. L. Brooks and which now refuses to give out except by due process of law. Surely Mr. Carroll will not grease his pockets because of his membership of the Democratic party, because the people have said thou art not the man.

R. F. D. No. 5.

Prof. Wicker of Elon College filled his regular appointment at Long's Chapel Sunday.
Mrs. James Anderson continues very sick. Her many friends sympathize with her and hope for her speedy recovery.

Messrs. George and John Wyatt on No. 3 have gone to Raleigh to enter A. & M. College. We wish them much success.

Mrs. J. R. Aldridge has returned from a visit to her home people near Prospect Hill.

Mrs. Emeline Teer went on a visit to Mr. G. W. Cheek and was taken seriously ill. Her many friends feel in sympathy with her being away from home, and trust she will soon be better.

Mr. F. P. Rogers and Miss Ava spent Saturday night and Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Winfield Wilkins.

John White left this morning for King's Business College at Raleigh.

Mr and Mrs. Walter Harden of Graham spent Sunday with John Wyatt.

Miss Mamie Anderson spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

Miss Bettie Aldridge of No. 5 was in Burlington for the Fair and visited Mrs. Dan S. Hall, returning home Saturday.

Hall & Thornburg
We Sell Every Day

We are ushering in the new season with a

GREAT FALL OPENING SALE!

An occasion of double attractions---a style exhibit and an economy event combined! We are not only SHOWING the best and the best and the most of the new Autumn Garments, Fabrics and Accessories, but are SELLING them at special, unequalled low prices. This is a DIFFERENT store, anyhow. It delights to do the unusual, and right now, when others are holding up prices on the new things, we are marking them as low as advantageous buying and a contentment with small profits will permit. In consequence, the selling is brisk. No woman wants to miss this opportunity to supply her Fall needs at round prices-savings---especially when the savings entails absolutely no sacrifice of style or quality.
