

Freeman Drug Company,

Burlington, North Carolina.

We keep in stock all the standard Patent Medicines

We have a large and well selected stock of sponges, Chamouis skins, Trusses, Supporters and Shoulder Braces.

Pfaffmery, Cologne's, Bay Rum, Florida Water, Extracts for the handkerchief, Toilet and Fancy Goods, Toilet Soap, Bath Soaps, Face Powders, Infant Powder.

COME AND SEE US

Freeman Drug Company, Burlington, N. C.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Schedule of Trains

No.	East	West	Time	a. m.	p. m.
No. 112	East		1:32	a. m.
" 111	West		5:02	a. m.
" 144	East		10:08	a. m.
" 21	West		11:18	a. m.
" 22	East		4:00	p. m.
" 139	West		6:29	p. m.

Fresh nuts of all kinds at J. D. Payne's.

Miss Lola May spent Tuesday at Durham on business.

Payne's private stock cigars are better than the "Cinco."

Mr. C. O. Smith spent Sunday visiting friends at Mebane.

Miss Viola McLawhorne is visiting her parents at Durham.

Mr. J. W. Summers, of Whitsett, was here Saturday shopping.

Mr. Jas. F. Fowler made a business trip to Raleigh last week.

The best mixed nuts at J. D. Payne's, fifteen cents per pound.

Mrs. J. A. Shaw, of Graham, was here last Saturday shopping.

Mrs. C. P. Albright, of Graham, spent Monday here visiting friends.

Mrs. Walter Crawford, of Haw River, was here visiting last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hadley, of Graham, were here Monday shopping.

To get the best smoke, call at J. D. Payne's and get Payne's private stock.

Oh, what a pity at the "Show Me Show" a married lady won the prize.

Mr. H. D. Leigh made a business trip to Durham during the past week.

WANTED—To give one hundred free tickets to Washington next March.

Miss Freeman, of Greensboro, spent a few days quite recently visiting her aunt.

Mrs. May left Saturday for Hillsboro, where she spent a few days visiting friends.

Mrs. Sarah Brown, of Graham, spent the first of this week visiting Mrs. Cornelius Brown.

Miss R. L. Patterson, of Greensboro, spent the past week visiting Mr. J. W. Atwater.

Mrs. I. H. Foust, visited her parents last week, returning to Ramseur Wednesday.

Miss Daisy Smith, of Mebane, spent part of last week here, visiting Miss Olivia Smith.

MONEY TO LOAN—One hundred and fifty dollars on Real Estate. Call at Dispatch Office.

Miss Lois Cates is spending a few days at her home, and visiting friends in Orange county.

Mrs. Ferree and children, of Mebane, are the guest of Mr. C. O. Smith for a few days.

Miss Oliva Smith left Saturday for Mebane, where she will spend a few days visiting her sister.

The editor of the State Dispatch spent Saturday night and Sunday with his mother at Whitsett.

Mrs. J. A. Shaw, of Graham, spent a part of last week visiting her father, Mr. J. C. Howard.

Mrs. T. L. Curlee, after spending two weeks visiting her uncle, returned to Goldsboro last week.

Mrs. W. N. Reeves, of Chapel Hill, spent part of last week visiting her brother, Mr. J. B. Cheek.

Miss Mamie Allred, of Hillsboro, spent a few days last week visiting friends and relatives of this place.

The four year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Self was buried in Pine Hill cemetery last Sunday afternoon.

Secure your reserved seat tickets at Freeman's for The Victorian Party.

Mrs. W. H. Coble is spending a few days visiting Mrs. Jack Smith, of Efland.

The Victorian Party at the School Auditorium Tuesday night, December 1st.

FOR SALE—One nice Gladson English setter 19 months old. Apply to J. A. LOWE.

Hear Pallas Brown, the only violinist, who appears at the School Auditorium this season.

One of the best numbers of the Star Course at the School Auditorium Tuesday night, Dec. 1st.

Miss Rubie Steele left last Thursday for Raleigh, where she has accepted a position as stenographer.

Mr. J. D. Payne spent the latter part of last week attending the M. P. Conference, which was in session at Liberty.

Rev. J. H. Abernathy attended the M. P. Conference, which were in session at Liberty during the past week.

Miss Lola Lasley, who is a student at the State Normal this year, spent Saturday and Sunday visiting her parents.

Mrs. A. J. Garrett, of Greensboro, spent the past week visiting the parents her husband, who live near this place.

Mr. Flegman, the barber, has moved his shop and is now located opposite the Oleon near Florence & Walkers grocery store.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Frazier, of near Jamestown, spent Sunday visiting Mr. G. A. B. Holderby, returning home Monday.

Be sure and get your money and mail today, because the Postoffice and Banks will be closed tomorrow to celebrate Thanksgiving.

Mrs. O. B. Barnes, of Eion College, came down Monday evening to meet her daughter, who has been teaching music at Gilsonville.

WANTED.—Five or six cords of eight foot wood in exchange for subscriptions to the State Dispatch. Call at State Dispatch Office.

B. Goodman, The Home of Good Clothes, is offering great bargains for the Holiday Trade in men's, boys and children's clothing, cloaks and jackets.

Miss Sadie Ingle, who is in School at The State Normal and Industrial College, spent Saturday and Sunday visiting her brother, Mr. L. S. Ingle.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dickey of Raleigh, stopped here Monday with Mr. Erwin A. Holt. Mrs. Dickey is on her way home from the Hospital at Greensboro.

Rev. R. M. Andrews, of Mebane, and Rev. D. M. Loy, of Glen Raven, left here to attend the M. P. Conference at Liberty, which were in session during the past week.

Mr. Rosemond, the Postmaster, of Hillsboro, was a welcome caller at the Dispatch office last Friday. We are always glad to have our friends make us a visit when in town.

The Dispatch expects to get a wig, a rat, borrow a frock, and go under a fictitious name so it will get its share of the peanuts and candy which are being served at these tacky parties.

Mr. Ira C. Jones, who is a student at Whitsett Institute this year, spent Saturday and Sunday here with friends. We are glad to know that Mr. Jones is enjoying his school work and hope for his continued success.

Lewis A. Eldridge, Thos. F. Knapp and Harry Knapp Jr., will arrive here to-morrow to drive out to Murray Hill hunting club, where they will spend several days gunning for quail.

1 Dark Oak New Piano $160.00
1 Dark New Mahogany Piano, $90.00, 1 Oak Organ, slightly used, $37.50, 1 Household good sewing machine, $8.00.

ELLIS MACHINE AND MUSIC CO., Burlington
The County Commissioners met in adjourned session Monday and attended to routine business entirely making ready to turn the business of the county over to the new board which goes into office the first Monday.

Mr. P. A. Kenion, one of the Southern Railway's brakeman caught his foot between the coupling of the cars at this place yesterday. The injury received was very painful but is thought not to be serious.

Dr. L. G. Coble, of Greensboro, who has been spending a few weeks with his friends on No. 1 where he has been recuperating from a severe attack of appendicitis, returned to his office duties in Greensboro last Thursday.

Every Republican is urged to be present at the annual meeting of the stock holders of the State Dispatch Dec. 8th. Every subscriber of stock is a stock holder and is urged to attend the first annual meeting.

WANTED—Copies of the Dispatch issued on the following dates: July 8th, 22nd, Aug. 26th and Sept. 9th. We will appreciate the favor if you have a paper issued on the above dates bring it to the Dispatch Office.

Pallas Brown, Violin Virtuoso; Olive Frank Robertson, Vocalist and Pianist and Miss Maude Fowler, Reader, form the Victorian Party that appears at the School Auditorium, Dec. 1st. Secure your tickets at Freeman's.

Mr. Giles Hunter and Miss Maud Pickard were married at Swepsonville last Sunday at one o'clock p. m. They then drove up to Mr. Clyde Hester's at Graham where a reception was tendered and a large number of friends present.

Mr. E. M. Cook, of Swepsonville, died at his home Friday at 6:00 o'clock a. m., and was buried Sunday at Hawfield. Funeral services being conducted at the Baptist Church by Dr. Mebane, Rev. Oldham and Rev. C. M. Lauce. Mr. Cook was sixty-five years, nine months and a few days old and leaves ten children and a number of friends who will miss him sadly.

Our friend J. M. Hayes, carrier for R. F. D. No. 8, is always "Jimmy at the Cat Hole." This time he has made a galvanized iron box, which filled with boiling water and placed in the foot of his buggy does the rest by keeping his clod knockers warm all day. The remainder of the route carriers of the county might do well to see this simple device for the comfort of Uncle Sam's faithful employees.

Eth + Gertrude Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Johnson of Glencoe, was born October 6th, 1902, died Nov. 21st, 1908, aged six years, one month and fifteen days. She had been sick two weeks but not considered serious until a few days before her death. Ether was a beautiful sweet girl and as this the first death in the family the family feel their loss very keenly. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. D. Andrew at two o'clock at the home.

Notice of Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the State Dispatch Publishing Company will be held on the 8th day of December, 1908, at 7:30 o'clock in the afternoon, at the office of the company over Sellars Store, Burlington, N. C., for the purpose of electing a board of directors and receiving and acting upon the reports of the officers, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting.

In accordance with the laws of the State of North Carolina, no stock can be voted on which has been transferred on the books of the company, within twenty days next preceding this election.

E. S. W. DAMERON,
Nov. 12, 1908. Secretary.

Get all the advice you can, but don't force yours upon anyone.

THREE SPECIALS IN MEN'S SUITS

JUST RECEIVED FROM A LEADING MANUFACTURER

At these popular prices we out-distance all other stores in town by a $2.00 to $3.00 saving to you, and that is certainly worth considering, in addition to the satisfaction of being fitted perfectly in garments of correct style.

The range of models includes three and four button, single and double breast sacks, in the new shades of brown, green, olive, blue and black. No matter if you are short, stout, tall, slender or of natural build, we guarantee to fit you.

If Ready for an Overcoat

you will do well to look at our large and fine collection, including short, medium and long styles, also raincoats. Prices from $4.00 to $20.00.

See North Window of our Clothing Store for Display of these Special Priced Suits. B. A. SELLARS & SON.

DON'T FORGET THE Auction Sale —OF— VALUABLE REAL ESTATE Nov. 26, 2 p. m.

This is an opportunity rarely offered, and we know values enough to advise buying. Carriage to property furnished free.

Alamance Insurance & Real Estate Co.

Death of Miss Walker.

Miss Laura Jane Walker died Nov. 21st, at the residence of her niece Miss Susie Walker, on Mebane street. Miss Walker was about 51 years of age, and is survived by a large number of relatives throughout the State. The remains were carried to Wake Forest Monday, where the funeral services were conducted by Rev. Hackney.

R. F. D. No. 4.

Mr. Lucian Moore gave a corn husking Saturday night.

Frank Albright will go to Burlington Monday to take up carpenter work at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Ingle gave a party Saturday night to about twenty-five of their friends. It was an evening full of pleasure to every one present.

The Next Star Attraction

The next number of the Lyceum Course will be at the School Auditorium Tuesday night, Dec. 1st.

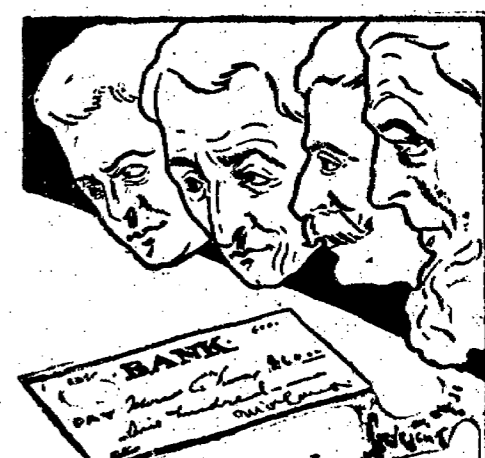

This attraction is the Victorian Party composed of Pallas Brown, violin virtuoso; Olive Frank Robertson, Vocalist and Pianist, and Miss Maud Fowler, Reader. Each member is a victor in a long line of successful concerts. The company comes strongly recommended, and will prove no exception to the splendid attraction of the past several years given under the auspices of the Lyceum Course.

A pleasant evening is assured those who attend.

FRANK H. CURTISS,
Supt. Schools.

WANTED—A family of Knitting Mill help. Apply to Swannie Noah, Mfg. Co. Elon College, N. C.

See that beautiful line of Xmas Candy at Burlington Drug Co. LEAVE YOUR ORDERS.

Everybody is Interested in the checks he receives. He knows the senders are doing business in the up-to-date way. You think more of checks than you do of the actual currency.

YOUR CHECK ON THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK, BURLINGTON, N. C.

would give you a higher standing among those you want to think well of you. Open an account and pay even small bills by check. A check is a receipt as well as a payment.

Business Department BURLINGTON GRADED SCHOOLS.

Thorough instruction is offered in stenography, typewriting, book-keeping, commercial arithmetic, and business correspondence. Students fully prepared to fill positions in the business world.

Supt. F. H. CURTISS or MISS E. E. STANKE, Prin.

Fresh Oysters

Always on hand. All Oysters sold here are strained. BEST FISH ON MARKET. First class meals at all hours up to mid-night. T. B. FOWLER & SON, 113 W. Davis Street, Next to N. S. Cardwell.

Holiday Notice!

The patrons of the Burlington Postoffice will please take notice that Thursday Nov. 26th, (Thanksgiving Day), is a legal holiday, therefore the Postoffice will observe Sunday hours, and will only be open from 9 to 10 a. m. and from 7 to 7:30 p. m. There will be no delivery of mail by rural carriers. Those who are in town during office hours will be served from the general delivery. The public will please take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

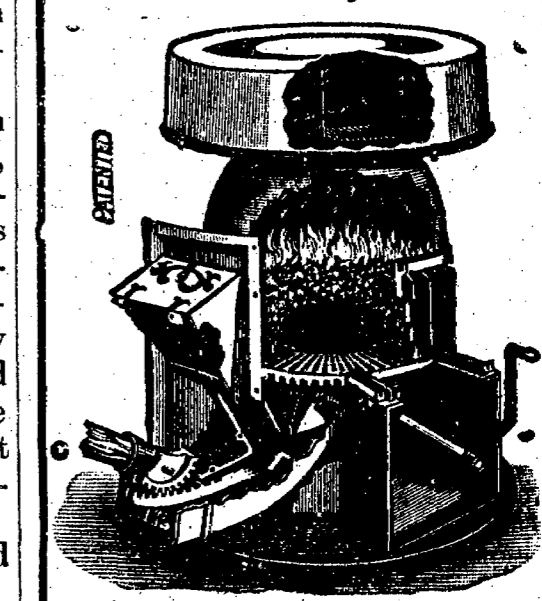

Respectfully, J ZEB WALLER, P. M.

UNDERFEED

The Furnace with all the FIRE ON TOP

THE Peck-Williamson Underfeed Furnace has solved the problem of getting clean, even heat out of cheapest slack. There's no smoke or dirt with an Underfeed and you'll save 1/2 to 2/3 on Coal Bills.

This illustration shows furnace without casing, cut away to show how coal is forced up under fire.

We'd like a chance to SHOW you this Furnace Wonder!

S. Thomas & Sons Burlington, N. C.