From our Exchanges.

Chattanooga Dispatch.

More peach trains went north over the Southern last Wednesday than were ever hauled in one day before. The number was 21. In all about 53 trains were operated which is far and away above the average. The peach crop south is a record-breaker. Fruit is abundant everywhere.

Chief Hilton brought a colored woman named Lila Martin to jail from Thomasville Monday, the charge against her being deadly assault. Some months ago she almost severed the arm of a negro man with a "razzer" and as she failed to answer last court, her bondsman had her turned over to the authorities.

Leaksville Gazette.

Leaksville and vicinity is not the only section, by any means, that has had too much rain. On a recent trip through parts of Forsyth, Surry and Wilkes counties, we saw much ruined corn from overflow of streams. Whole acres of corn and some tobacco were washed flat and half buried in mud. Almost every crop observable from the railroad is nearly suffocated by grass and weeds, because the ground has been so wet that plowing has been impossible. Some neighborhoods have been storm-swept and crops injured by prostrating winds.

Chapel Hill News.

The many good citizens in the Cedar Grove section of the county are talking strongly of trying to get the next General Assembly to pass a dog law for Orange Co. They are in favor of the tax being as much as $5.00 on every dog. If this was done every farmer could afford to keep a flock of sheep dogs have been playing havoc with the sheep in that section. We hope something can be done.

Webster Weekly.

Charlie Rascoe and Willie Hooper, the two youthful boys who were arraigned in the Recorder's court on the charge of manslaughter, were on last Friday evening bound over to the Superior court in a bond of $100 each. The bonds were readily given by the relatives of the little fellows. It will be remembered that these boys were playing ball on the street, and accidentally the thrown ball struck T. C. Goodwin, an old Confederate soldier breaking his collar bone. Mr. Goodwin was feeble at the time, and this severe shock, together with other complications, resulted in his death some two weeks later. The occurrence is deeply deplored, especially by the boys and their parents still it was an accident, and the public feels that these young boys should not be made to suffer so severely for their unintentional act, even though it resulted in the death of an innocent and worthy man.

Siler City Grit.

A posse of citizens, duly deputized, arrested Lawrence McAuley Monday morning on Hickory Mountain. He is a negro convict who escaped from the chain gang of Alamance county last April and is thought to be the same party who attempted to steal a horse from J. R. Blair in April but who was prevented by the timely pursuit of Marcus Blair, the sixteen-year-old son of J. R. Blair. The negro was carried back to Alamance county Tuesday morning to finish serving his sentence on the chain gang.

We understand that the work of grading and macadamizing the streets of our town will be begun in a very short time. The commissioners will meet this week and formulate plans for beginning active work. As a certain celebrity once upon a notable occasion saw fit to exclaim: "A commendation devoutly to be wished for!"

Athens Courier.

Mrs. Amos Winningham, who has been seriously ill at her home on South Fayetteville St., for some days was taken to Greensboro for treatment in St. Leo's Hospital last Sunday morning. She was still in a critical condition when heard from yesterday, but physicians and friends have not entirely despaired of her recovery. Mr. Winningham is with his wife and also two of her sisters, Mrs. O. W. Rich and Miss Lora Crowson.

Blacksburg Patriot.
R. L. Blaylock one of the deputies in the United States marshal's office in this city, last week arrested Cyrus Goley on the charge of retailing in Alamance county. Goley waived examination and in default of bond was committed to jail to await trial at the next term of United States District court.

John F. Lyon, Greensboro's oldest citizen, celebrated his ninety-seventh birthday Sunday at the home of his son, Will S. Lyon on Cedar Street. Mr. Lyon is remarkably vigorous both in mind and body, for one who is nearing the century milestone in life. He retains an active interest in the affairs of life and is never happier than when pottering around the garden caring for his crop of vegetables.

Elkin Times.

Mrs. Frank Bowers, who lives about five miles North East of Elkin, gave birth to triplets last Monday morning—two girls and one boy. Mrs. Bowers was the mother of five children—this latest addition to the family swelling the number to eight. Mrs. Bowers and the children are doing well.

Union Republican.

J. W. Martin, a progressive farmer in Broadway township, brought to his friend, Capt. Henry Riggins, this city a few days ago, a cabbage head that weighed 19 lbs. Who can beat this? The farmers of Forsyth hold Capt. Riggins in high esteem, remembering him with the choicest of their products.

The Consolidated Granite Co., of this city, has been awarded the contract for the making and erection of a Confederate monument will be constructed out of Mt. Airy granite with a North Carolina dark blue pearl die. The monument will stand 23 feet high surmounted by an Italian marble statue, six feet in height.
