Republican State Ticket.

Chief Justice Supreme Court,
 T. T. HICKS, of Vance.
 Associate Justices Supreme Court
 E. W. TIMBERLAKE, of Wake.
 HARRY SKINNER, of Pitt.
 Members Corporation Commission,
 G. M. HOOVER, of Davidson.
 J. H. WHITE, of Madison.
 For Congress,
 Fifth District—David H. Blair, of Forsyth.

The only thing that can be said of the recent street work is that it is a little better than mud, but expensive, very expensive.

Even if the much talked of plank in the Republican platform did mean "licker" would it make matters any worse than the today in North Carolina.

Meet us at Graham on the 17th, with your dollars for the renewal of your subscription to the Dispatch and speak to your neighbor about taking it. It will help us to increase its usefulness.

Frost at Spray is the way an exchange heads an account of the big Democratic blow-out at Spray on Labor Day. Well, he was about right, frost precedes snow, it will be snow to them on the 3th of November.

Remember the Republican County Convention will be held at Graham Saturday September the 17th, at noon. Hon. Thomas Settle, and David H. Blair, the Republican candidate for Congress will address the convention.
 Don't miss it.

It is important that every Republican attend the county convention at Graham next Saturday September 16th, which will nominate a county ticket. The speeches of Hon. D. H. Blair, candidate for Congress, and Hon.
 Thomas Settle, will be worth going many miles to hear.

The biggest joke of the season is the resolution passed by the Democratic county convention held at Graham recently, to give Major Stedman, thousand majority. This is like many other victories our Democratic friends win, but they are always a month or two before the election.

Why be in such a hurry to sell the bonds? We understand that the note for twenty-five thousand dollars borrowed to make street improvements has been renewed for six months by paying a renewal premium of five hundred dollars. Then why sacrifice the bonds at this time.

We have received the first issue of the Stoneville News, published at Stoneville, N. C., by J. Tiller. The News is neatly printed and the general make up displays good taste, and the hand of a good newspaper man is clearly evident. The people of that community are to be congratulated, and should support such an institution loyally.

It has been the cry of the Democratic press for lo these many years that everything the Republican party favor in their platform was a sham, or anything they advocated in the way of reforms was done for effect, and for a long time there were many who believed it, but not so now.
 The people are no longer fooled by the blatant cry of the Democratic Demagogue. !

There will be two or three representatives of THE DISPATCH at the convention at Graham next Saturday. See one of them and renew your subscription. Bring your neighbor with you and get him to subscribe. The Dispatch should be in every home in Alamance and adjoining counties.
 Wont you help us to increase its circulation and enlarge its usefulness—

THE DISPATCH, without wishing to misrepresent, or do any one an injustice, calls the attention of the citizens and tax payers of the city of Burlington to a rumor that the city fathers have bargained away the $60,000 dollars worth of street and side walk bonds authorized last May for a great deal less than par.
 If this is not correct, if some one in authority will let the people know just what price the bonds brought we will gladly publish the same. What the tax payers want is the exact truth and noting but the truth. Who will tell them?

What has become of our Chamber of Commerce? We asked this question some time ago, but we are none the wiser now. We understand that there is a large manufacturing plant that would come to this city if we had a live business organization to aid them.
 Let us have a meeting of all the business men and all other citizens, who have the future well-fare of the city at heart, and take such action as will secure this enterprise. Just a little effort on our part now, might insure the future greatness of this city. We must have more united action. Let us get busy, all together now for a bigger, better and busier Burlington.

About two years ago our esteemed contemporary, the Burlington News, in speaking of the roads of the county said they were the worst in the history of the county, and that it was due to Republican inefficiency. The Republicans are not in power now, and have not been for nearly two years. Will the News be fair and tell its readers the condition of the roads at this time, what was sauce for the goose should be sauce for the gander.
 We would be glad to see our neighbor for once in his life, have the manhood and fairness to admit that the road conditions are bad, and that just at this time they are the worst ever. Now we are not talking about the public highways that have been macadamized from the bond issue, but those roads that have not been, and are not to be macadamized under the present administration at least. Be fair neighbor and let's have the truth, even if it will look bad for your party.

What We Would Like to Know.

We would like to know whether the street work has been accepted or not. We are informed that there are several thousand dollars due on the work, and that the contractors are trying to collect the money, we trust that if the work has not been accepted, the city fathers will see that the contract has been lived up too by those doing the work, before paying-out the people's money.
 Will some member of the board champion the peoples cause and see that they get a square deal.

A Heart Rending Wail.

A drowning man will catch at straws. This fact is clearly evident from the manner in which the Democratic press of the State have took up the fight against

Hon. Marion Butler. It is fortunate for the Democracy that Mr.
 Butler is in the Republican party, but for this fact they would be without an issue. But their wail-ings will not hurt any one, the people of North Carolina have reached the point that they will not be dictated to by men who have not the best interest of the state at heart, men who are not the equal of Marion Butler.

The time has been when Josephus Daniels and men of his ilk, could crack their whip and the boys would fall over each other getting in line, but not so now, the people refuse to be scared by your cry of alarm, or to be bulldozed by such methods. The great cock and bull story about those old bonds, scares nobody, they will resou to some other lying scheme to get the boys in line. The time is at hand when the intelligent, thinking people of the state are going to cut lose the party of obsolete ideas and issues and turn the affairs of the state over to a party that stands progress, a party whose principles mean something. Raise your cry louder, we would like for every voter in the state to hear that heart rending wail.

History Repeats Itself.

Thirty years ago, just about this time of the year the Democratic salutation was "Have you heard from Maine?" The state had just elected Mr. Plaisted as Governor and Democratic joy and enthusiasm was unbounded, and for once "our friends the enemy" seemed to be living in an elysian of political estacy. The result of the main election in 1880 opened the eyes of the country to the disaster that always and inevitably follow Democratic success, and at the November election of that year Garfield was triumphantly elected as President and Democracy, for the good of all, proceeded again to take the back seat upon which they had had a monopoly since 1860. Be of good cheer. No harm will come to us as a party, as a result of the September elections. "History will repeat itself" and all over the country on the night of the 8th, of November the Grand Old Party will be celebrating again one of its greatest victories.

Republican Prospects in the Future.

Now that the Republican organization of North Carolina has at its head as leader and manager, that splendid man and elegant gentleman, Hon J. M. Morehead, we may expect to see the Republican cause advance in the grand old Commonwealth as never before, and the State in the near future to take its place in the front rank of the foremost States in the Union, in the way of wealth and good government.

While Mr. Morehead is not a politician as the term is applied in these modern days. His training having been along the lines of manufacturing and commerce.

The education acquired in the school of experience while conducting various industrial enterprises peculiarly fit him as an organizer and leader of the people.
 He has never sought office or political preferment of his people or party, what honors have come to him have come unsolicited having always preferred to work with his people as a private citizen. He is a man who commands and holds the respect and confidence of the business people of the entire State and the whole country, irrespective of political affiliation.

Mr. Morehead knows nothing of the arts of the wily and designing professional politician.
 Nor of the cunning of the dissembling demagogue, therefore his campaign will be conducted on a high plane, free from tricks and devoid of vilification of the opposing party, relying solely on a fair presentation of the issues involved to the voters of the State.

Now that the voters of the State have a leader who cannot be assailed as a pie hunter, let all who desire a safe and stable State government and a prosperous country, buckle on the armor and enlist in the army of good government and prosperity and assist Mr. Morehead in carrying of prosperity to certain victory.
 None need fear to follow where Mr. Morehead dares to lead.

 urday night from a weeks business trip to Pittsburg, Pa., and other northern cities.

Re-Sale of Land.

By authority of an order of the Superior Court of Alamance county, North Carolina, made in a special proceeding to which the heirs at law of B. B. King, deceased, were duly constituted parties, the undersigned will offer at public sale to the highest bidder at the Court House door in Graham on Saturday

October 15 1910 at 12 O'clock M. property, to wit: A certain tract or parcel of land lying and being in Alamance County, state of North Carolina, in Pleasant Grove Township, on the waters of Owen Creek, and adjoining the land of J. G. Tate and others, it being the home place of the late B. B.

 King upon which he resided at the time of his death, containing One Hundred (100) acres, more or less. This is the same property that was conveyed on the second day of April, 1894, by John D. Compton to B. B. King, which deed is recorded in the office of Register of Deeds for Alamance county in Book of Deeds No. 17, Pages 46 and 47, to which reference is hereby expressly made for a more particular description.
