In days "befo' de War," Vir-ginia darkies had a "pone cake" song the refran of which was: Ole Virginny nebber tire—

Put de cake upon de foot and hole it to de fire.

It is a familia saying that great changes have come upon the South since the days of that song. Few however, in the line of gastronomy have equaled the advan cement in the art of pone cake making. What a joy would have been added to the gastronomic experiences of Brillat-Javarin could he have lived to know that Georgia girl.
