INSTITUTE WORKERS AT MEBANE

The first of a series of farmers' institutes to be held in the county was held at Mebane Tuesday. The chairman of the Institute Committee of the county, Chas. P. Cates, after explaining the prize offers for best crops, introduced Prof. C. L. Newman, who spoke on "Soil Improvements." His lecture was well received. Mr. J. S. Jeffreys delivered a fine lecture on "Poultry Keeping."

The Woman's Institute was largely attended by the women of the vicinity and was highly spoken of.

The institute is in session at Elon College today, Wednesday.

Death of Mr. Foster.

Uncle Jimmy Foster, as he was known by almost everybody, died Tuesday evening at his home in southeast Burlington at the age of seventy-three after a lingering illness of some months. He was born and raised in the McCray neighborhood, but has been living in Burlington fifteen or more years. He leaves a wife and several grand-children.

He was a veteran and served his country faithfully during the bloody struggle. Was a member of Company E, 13th North Carolina Regiment of which Mr. W. M. Andrews was first Lieutenant. As a soldier and citizen he was good, true, honest and loved by all.

Funeral this Wednesday morning, at the home at 9:00 by Dr. Fleming, from where the remains will be carried, accompanied by the following old soldiers: Messrs. W. M. Andrews, Esq., W. A. Hall, Capt. Jas. Turrentine, J. D. Bason, D. M. Moore, Billy Moore, to Union Ridge cemetery for interment.

Secretaries, please hand in your reports on Monday.

John H. Vernon, Secretary

Fish Fry.

Ex-Sheriff Kernodle and about fifty friends spent a most pleasant day last Saturday on Stony creek near Murray, sold mill fishing, scratching and having a general good time.

Among those present from a distance were: Messrs. King, Walker and others of Orange, Dr. G. S. Watson of Elon College and others too tedious to mention. Mrs. L. E. Walker and Miss Bera Mattley were the chief cooks which assures us that the bushel of fish captured by the sportsmen were properly prepared to suit even the daintiest appetite.

The ex-sheriff says all present enjoyed the occasion to the fullest extent and that after this multitude had eaten to their satisfaction yet many baskets of fragments remained.

Quite a large crowd went on the Baptist Sunday School excursion to Chapel Hill last Friday. All report a grand time.

Burlington Lumber Co., just received big lot of No. 1 shingles.

Odd Fellows Entertainment.

The I. O. O. F. of this city met with the Phoenix Lodge No. 119 on last Thursday night in the Freeman-Page Hall. About forty visiting delegates were present from neighboring lodges.

The address of welcome was delivered by Rev. J. D. Andrew. The response by W. H. Overton. After the business side of the meeting was transacted and set aside an hour social was spent at which ice cream cake and lemonade was served. The entire program and social was thrown open and the public invited. The committee of entertainment consisting of A. Cheek, J. M. Coble and R. A. Freeman.

The following officers were elected:

Dr. R. A. Freeman, Burlington, president; W. P. Brown, Siler City, vice president; R. R. Hill, Greensboro, secretary; F. W. Gentry, High Point, marshal; J. W. McAdams, Burlington, inside guardian; E. C. Hamilton, Siler City, outside guardian.

In Memory of Daisy Fogleman.

Departed this life on July 14th 1911 Daisy Fogleman daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Fogleman aged six months and fourteen days was buried at Mt. Pleasant on the 15th.

The child the babe that is so near the mothers heart was laid away in the cold and darkness, yet there is consolation for she is where pain and suffering can not come, where the rivers run under the throne never freeze. And now oh father lead us until we reach the shining gate and go and join the dear little one who has preceded us to that Blessed country where there are no tears no partings, and where there can be no death. We miss you every day Daisy from your accustomed place the hours seem long and lonely without your dear sweet face, our hearts are often sad and weary in thinking of the past, the vanished dreams of the short months that were to bright to last, but we are not repining God leads we know the way, sorrows are soul refining for realms of endless day. We give you up to Jesus our precious darling dear, we know he makes us happier than we could ever be here. And when earth's sorrows press us, and we are sad and faint come near in spirit whisper. Hope shining picture paint. We toil and love and labor, till life and hope shall cease. Then life eternal Daisy we spend with you in peace.

Watch by the gate that's golden you and other loved ones there and meet us when we are called to come your Blessed home to share.

GUILT IS FIXED ON BEATTIE

While returning with her husband in a motor car from Chesterfield County to Richmond on the night of July 18th Mrs. H. C. Beattie Jr. was shot by what was supposed to have been, according to the story of her husband by an unidentified man. However Beattie was arrested on suspicion and a bill of murder in first degree found by the grand jury. Beattie cleaves to the story that his wife was shot by some one he knows not who. But the cousin of Beattie reveals the story that he purchased the gun only a few nights before with which the killing was done. The prisoner has been placed in the Richmond prison to keep him from being lynched.

During the entire trial Beattie is said to hold a steady nerve and light one cigarette after another.

The place of murder which is only about three miles from Richmond is visited daily by hundreds of people.

Seventeen Youngsters Go Camping

Mr. Blyth director of music at the Episcopal Church with seventeen boys ages ranging from seven to fourteen left Monday for Stonewall Springs where he will spend the week in camp. Each youngster equipped himself with his bunk and budget of eatables. In connection Charlie Banks, colored cook and a large supply of raw eatables were carried. The youngsters will live a high life and return with many stories of camping life to reveal to little brother or sister who was not so fortunate as to go.

Reciprocity Bill Passed.

The reciprocity trade agreement between Canada and the United States which is embodied in the reciprocity bill of which we have been reading so much during the past two sessions of Congress passed the Senate last Saturday by a vote of 53 to 27. Of the 53 votes cast for it 32 were Democratic and 21 Republican. Of the 27 against 24 were Republicans and 3 Democrats.

Big Cucumbers.

Mr. O. A. Hurley one of our old stand bys on Route 2 brought us in a Republican cucumber Monday which he says grew on fertile Republican soil. The cucumber is a double grown completely together and measures ten inches long, weighs two pounds and two ounces. They are the largest cucumbers we have ever seen.

Byrum is an able preacher and has made many friends during his stay with us, and we pray that God's richest blessings will rest upon him as he proclaims the truth to dying men and women.

Misses Lottie, Hattie and Addie Terrill spent Friday night with Misses Lizzie and Millie Grinston.

Fainted While Feeding Threshing Machine.

While feeding a threshing machine Saturday Mr. Geo. T. Lineberry of the Mt. Pleasant neighborhood, fainted and fell from the table of the machine, arose as if he was not hurt, but was carried to the house a few minutes later and died within two hours from the time of the fall. Concussion of the brain supposed to have been caused by the fall, causing his death.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Lineberry, was thirty-three years old and unmarried. Funeral and burial was conducted Sunday at Mt. Pleasant.

Mr. Lineberry was the cousin of our townsman Mr. Gilbert A. Amick, who, with his family attended the funeral Sunday.

New Telephone Directory.

The local subscribers are in receipt of new Telephone Directories which appear to be an improvement over the old method. The new using the "two number" method in getting Greensboro, High Point, Reidsville and Winston-Salem.

By this method the owner of the telephone calls by number directly to central who rings the number wanted, saving the ringing of long distance. It appears that this will be much quicker than formerly.

NEGRO BURGLAR ENTERS YOUNG LADIES' ROOM

Rocky Mount, July 21.—Shortly after 4 o'clock this morning there was considerable excitement at the home of W. N. Shine on Hill Street, when a negro man evidently a burglar, crawled into the window of a room where two of the young ladies of the home were asleep. The young women screamed and the negro fled through window through which he had entered, but a sister of the young ladies, frightened, hurried to the scene with a pistol and fired one time at the fleeing negro, but the shot missed its mark, so it is believed.

Both Misses Lucy and Mary Lee Shine were asleep in the room that the negro entered and they are positive that they heard him attempt to enter the window a short time before, but that he was frightened off for some cause, and that later he returned and crawled into the window which is on the first floor, and that he was in the room when they screamed and he fled. The police hurried to the scene and made a search of the premises, but were unable to find any trace of a person.

Little Girl Killed by Threshing Machine.

Statesville, July 21.—Little Brown Fesperman the 6 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fesperman of Statesville lost her life yesterday afternoon about six miles from town under the wheels of a threshing machine. The little girl was on a visit to her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brown, who live in the Bradford neighborhood. Shiloh township and was playing in front of the house when the traction engine drawing a threshing machine came along. Several children of the neighborhood were taking a ride on the tongue of the thrasher and little Brown decided to join them. In jumping on the tongue she lost her balance and fell backward under the wheel of the thrasher which ran over her head death being instantaneous. The dead girl is survived besides her parents by a twin brother, which makes the accident all the more sad. The funeral will be held tomorrow at 12 o'clock at Concord church, Lory.
