Opelousas, Ia., Oct. 30.—Mrs. Zee Runge McRea, charged with the murder of young Allan Garland in her home September 21. ing up to the tragedy and reiteral ting her statement that she killed Garland to protect her honor and because she feared he would do her bodily injury.

Several times during the course of her testimony the witness manifested signs of excitement, speaking distinctly, but at intervals so rapidly that it was impossible for the court sterographer to take down her statements.

Throughout the day the courtroom was crowded with spectators, many of whom stood in chairs in moments of intense interest, in their efforts to see the defendant on the witness stand.

Mrs. McRea denied absolutely the existence of any undue friend ship between herself and Garland but admitted that she and the been delivering bread for the the machine, could be found ing that her children were always with them.
