Public Health Dept. of W. C. T. U.

Edited by
Mrs. R. L. Boyd, : Supt.

The curfew ordinance is in the interest of health as well as morals. If we may secure that which will keep the boys and girls off the streets after 8 P. M., from October to March, and after 9 P. M., from March to October, we shall be doing foundation work in healthy living. Under cover of Darkness lurk the evils which may finally send your boy to utter ruin. The task of bringing up a boy or girl is not an easy one when environments are all that could be desired, and too often they go astray even under the most rigid discipline, hence, all the more need protection until these morals are firmly established. Not only from the standpoint of morals but from the viewpoint of health should this matter be considered.

In the strenuous age in which we are living, the adult too often is compelled to drop out of the ranks, disabled. What can we expect of the men and women of the coming generation if we, as parents, allow them to waste their vitality while they are yet children? The growing boy should have the quiet of the home in the evenings, that his energy, used up during the day, at school or at work, may be amply repaired by refreshing sleep. If your sixteen-year-old boy has formed the habit of staying away from home three or four evenings in a week, suppose you accompany him for a few evenings and see for yourself what the attraction is. If you are not careful you may run up on a "blind tiger" or a "gambling den" or something even worse, if one evil can be greater than another. Because the town is small is no reason why these evils do not exist here—THEY DO EXIST.

Protect the boys and girls; demand laws that will protect them and having those laws, demand enforcement of them. Then, if after reaching maturity, after character has been formed, they fall in their weakness, you will find some consolation at least in knowing that you did your duty as parent.

Are you doing anything to better conditions in your town or are you sitting idly by, criticizing and grumbling at those who are making an honest effort? That selfishness which is common to the human family prompts us to do the latter. We plead especially for the youth of our town. Deal kindly with the erring one and teach him that it is essential that he be kept as pure as his sister. "A good man is the noblest work of God."

EDITOR CHOOSES WOMEN JURY AND IS ACQUITTED

Los Angeles Nov. 3.—California's first woman jury was empaneled at the suburban town of Watts today to try the case of A. A. King, editor of a local news paper, who was charged with publishing an article in violation of a city ordinance.

King had consented to being tried by woman jury, expressing the belief that he would get a fairer trial than he would men occupied the box. His faith in woman was rewarded by an acquittal after 20 minutes deliberation by the fair occupants of the jury box.

The case which was without precedent in California history was tried in the courtroom of Justice Cassidy. The first test of the women's new citizenship rights attracted the whole town. The courtroom was crowded to the doors with the husbands and friends of the 33 married women 27 years old "and over" who had been subpoenaed as jurors.

During the examination of the venire one of the prospective jurors asked the judge if it was permissible to wear her hat in the jury box. The judge smilingly answered that it was entirely optional with the jurors. Part of the women continued to wear their hats while the others removed them.

$20,000 TAKEN FROM THE MAIL

Lynchburg, Va., Nov. 3.—A registered package, containing $20,000, a remittance from a Bluefield, W. Va. bank to its New York correspondents, it is said, disappeared from the mails Friday night between Bluefield and Charlottesville, Va. The pouch containing the remittance came here Friday night over the Norfolk and Western railroad and was handled through the mail transfer to the Southern Railway at the West End station. Soon after leaving Lynchburg a clerk on the Washington train telegraphed a report that he was short the package and that his way-bill did not correspond with the number on the registering lock attached to the pouch. Four or five postal inspectors are working on the case here.

Balked At Cold Steel.

"I wouldn't let a doctor cut my foot off," said H. D. Ely, Bantam, Ohio, "although a horrible ulcer had been the plague of my life for four years. ### Taft Grows Stronger

Seth Bullock, of South Dakota, United States marshal and friend of Presidents, is in Washington with a glowing story of the trip President Taft is just ending. Mr. Bullock traveled with President Taft several days, and left him "because he kept such bad hours," he said today.

"Mr. Taft will be renominated of course, unless the East goes crazy," said Mr. Bullock, "and South Dakota will be for him, no matter what the opposition says about it. The President's trip has been a great success. A man who has traveled with two Presidents on trans-continental tours says that the crowds are twice as big this time as two years ago."

Mr. Bullock who is a close observer of Western politics says that no one in the West believes that Senator LaFollette will be nominated. He expects to see President Taft grow stronger every day until his nomination.

That Charles D. Hilles, secretary to the President, is a good man in the right place is the judgment of the West as brought to Washington by Mr. Bullock. Mr. Hilles' work in connection with the trip of the President has, he said, been the best possible and has made new friends for Mr. Taft.
