BEULAH BINFORD PROCLAIMS HENRY BEATTIE'S INNOCENCE

New York, Nov. 23.—Special. "Henry Beattie is innocent," said Beulah Binford today. "If he is electrocuted, everyone concerned in his electrocution will be a murderer."

The "affinity" of Beattie, whose relations with her are supposed to have furnished a motive for the murder of his wife, made this statement in this city. She is living with the family of Isadore Bernstein in the Colonial apartments, 859 Hunts Point avenue, the Bronx.

When she made the statement she was leaving the house to go to a moving picture concern, with whom she had a contract. She was fashionably dressed in a gray checked suit and a blue velvet hat, trimmed with fur, which was pulled down well over her face. In a buttonhole she carried a silver fob engraved with the initial "B."

"Why, I haven't heard from Henry Beattie or sent him a line since his trial," she declared. "I am very sorry for Henry—sorry from the bottom of my heart. He is an innocent man, but the time when I could have helped him has passed."

"If I had been called as a witness at the trial, Henry would have been a free man today, instead of condemned to die in the death chair tomorrow. I would have told the truth, and that would have proved his innocence. I am sure he would have been acquitted."

"You think his conviction was wrong, then?"

"I know it," she replied. "Henry didn't kill his wife."

"Who, then was the murderer?"

"Why, the man behind the gun," was the reply.

"And who was the man behind the gun?"

For a few seconds she paused, as if deliberating. Then she answered slowly: "Why is it that they took Paul Beattie's word at the trial and would take it now? His testimony never should have been accepted."

"Paul is actually half-witted and no importance should have been attached to the testimony he gave."

"Do you expect to communicate with Beattie before he dies in the chair?" was the final question.

"No," she replied "I haven't heard from him and I won't send him a word."

TELLS OF THE TARRING Heaped Insult On School Teacher.

Lincoln Center, Kan., Nov. 20.—While the young victim listened calmly, Chester Anderson, a laborer, today related to a jury the story of how ten men, including himself, dragged Miss Mary Chamberlain, a school teacher, from a buggy and poured warm tar on her naked body. Anderson said that he had never heard any gossip besmirching the character of Miss Chamberlain. He told how the tarring was planned and of the masks various men wore. Anderson said he arranged with Edward Ricord, a barber, to take the girl for a buggy ride so that she might be captured by the men and of going back to Clarks Mill to notify the "gang."

The night of the tarring Anderson and Delbert Kindelsparger drove to the scene in a buggy, while other men went on motorcycles.

When Miss Chamberlain and Ricord came along Anderson said that he and Kindelsparger stepped out into the road and pointed toy pistols at them and halted the pair. Two other men, wearing masks, took the school teacher out of the buggy and Ricord got out and hid. Another man held the tar can. Anderson said two of the men were Everett Clard and Fitzwater. The third one he did not know. He said tar was smeared on Miss Chamberlain's legs as near as he could tell from a distance. After the tar had been rubbed on Miss Chamberlain was helped into her clothes. With tar dripping from her she got into the buggy and drove away with Ricord.

Alfa Linderthum, one of Anderson's companions, corroborated the testimony. He said he took no part in the tarring, merely hiding behind a fence to "see the fun."

A huge crowd filled Judge Grover's courtroom almost to suffocation. The judge told the deputies to be careful that no minors were admitted.

Miss Chamberlain, it was said tonight, would tell her story to the jury tomorrow.

INDIAN ELECTROCUTED AT RALEIGH

Ross French, the Cherokee Indian, who murdered Ethel Shuler in Swain county, met death in the electric chair at Raleigh last Friday. He never lost his nerve and was said to have been the coolest man in the little party that was present for the execution. When the Indian was placed in the chair, he watched the guards strap his ankles; then his wrists, and did not cease looking until the cap was placed over his face. He then chanted a prayer that had been taught him by his spiritual advisers. He confessed the crime shortly after the murder. The body was forwarded to Swain county and there it will be buried in the same cemetery, it is said, where was buried the remains of his victim. John Talala, his grandfather, and Mrs. Sallie Thompson, his cousin, waited in the city until after the execution.

Caught in a Rain.

Douglasville, Tex. — "Five years ago I was caught in the rain at the wrong time," writes Edna Rutherford, of Douglasville, "and from that time, was taken with dumb chills and fevers, and suffered more than I can tell. I tried everything that I thought would help, and had four doctors, but got no relief. I took Cardui, the woman's tonic. Now, I feel better than in many months." Cardui does one thing and does it well. That's the secret of its 50 years of success. Try Cardui.

Paint Lick Sick Lady.

Paint Lick, Ky. — Mrs. Mary Freeman, of this place, says: "Before I commenced to take Cardui, I suffered so much from womanly trouble, I was so weak that I was down on my back nearly all the time. Cardui has done me more good than any medicine I ever took in my life." You need not be afraid to take Cardui. It is no new experiment. Composed of gentle-acting, herb ingredients, it has been found to safely relieve headache, backache and similar female troubles. Try it for your troubles.

A Constant Protection

A telephone on the Farm affords the Farmer's family freedom from isolation as well as protection in the absence of the men.

Mr. S. S. Lee, of Blanch, N. C., writes: "Some time ago one of our friends' husband was compelled to be off until ten o'clock at night. During that time no one was in the house but his wife. She talked to us all up and down the line, and each family was ready to go to her at a minute's notice. She said she was so glad she had a phone, as she would not feel at all lonely."
