Don't be a kicker, but all pull for Civic League.

A puzzling Democratic problem, Will Roosevelt accept again.

Attend the mass meeting to be held at the Christian Church, Thursday night and assist in organizing the Civic League.

Dear Santa: Please send Burlington a set of Policemen who are not afraid to lock up all the whiskey and the fellows who handle and drink it, and the fellows who shoot the firecrackers.

Senator Vardaman is for Champ Clark for President, and Champ brought it all on himself. Vardaman, no doubt, thinks that all talkative men should stick together. -Evening Dispatch. W. J. Bryan should belong to his ring also.

A Civic League is one of the things mostly needed by our town and to this end a meeting will be held at the Christian Church, Thursday night. The direct aim of this league should be not only the cleaning up of the town but making it beautiful. Many of the streets which are having sidewalks laid should be beautified. To this end a great work is in store.

Did you ever stop to think that the man, woman or child who stays behind the counter in the store is human and that you will be doing them a great favor by doing your Christmas shopping when they have time to render you the best of service. Don't wait until the day before Christmas and do your shopping. It will cost you less and you will receive nearer what you want.

You Should Be Interested

For almost a year to come the people of the United States will hear much about politics. The so-called "Presidential Year" has its draw-back, looking at it from a business standpoint financially speaking. But our greatest business after all is looking after our government, and time spent in this direction, if properly spent, is time spent wisely and well. Every good, law-abiding citizen should be interested. It is a time when men should be good tempered but exceedingly frank. Power in this country rests with the people and it should be the duty of the people to look after their interests.

Hand Wilson a Lemon.

The Carnegie Pension Foundation handed Dr. Woodrow Wilson a lemon the other day when they refused him the Carnegie Pension which he had made application for, which is given to teachers who have served for twenty-five or more years. Dr. Wilson has been the teacher alright, and has served the allotted number of years, but was refused the gift. Dr. Wilson, knowing that he was into politics and that Democratic politics were very uncertain, decided that it was the business of some one to provide for him and thought that the duty might as well fall on old man Carnegie as anyone else. But old man Carnegie's men say they are unwilling for this fund to be used in any such a manner. All to their credit and honor. It appears Doc Wilson is receiving the cold shoulder both from a political and financial standpoint, and that the tide of fortune is running up stream.

Congress in Session.

There will doubtless be much interest and many political plays to be watched in this session of Congress which met at Washington during the past week. The political complexion of Congress at present is as follows: Senate, Republican 49; Democratic 42, vacancy one, Colorado. House, Democrats 227; Republicans 161; Socialists 1; Independent 1, vacancy one (seventh Kansas district). Out of this mixed up group the Insurgent Republicans hold the balance of power and upon their legislative accomplishments depend the attitude of Congress as neither the regular Republicans nor Democrats can do anything without their assistance.

In his message to Congress President Taft devoted exclusively to a discussion of the trust question, was read in both branches of Congress Tuesday and was generally well received.

The president defended the Sherman act as interpreted by the Supreme court of the United States, indicated plainly his opposition to the repeal or amendment of this statute, but suggested that congress pass a federal incorporation law and supplemental legislation that "would describe and denounce methods of competition that are unfair."

To supervise corporations chartered under federal law, President Taft proposed the creation of an executive bureau, or commission, with powers akin to those of the interstate commerce commission. Speaking of the much discussed dissolution of the tobacco trust, the president declared that in his opinion "not in the history of American law has a decree more effective for such a purpose been entered by a court."
