A HUMAN COMEDY OF LAUGHTER AND POLITICS

Washington, Jan. 10. - Senator Lorimer's second day as a witness before the senate investigators of his election was a human comedy of laughter and politics. The day's inquiry delved into the dark windings of party government and touched lighter phases that swept the audience with laughter.

Mr. Lorimer's relations with Edward Hines, the lumberman. who has been said to be the man who secured the former's election to the United States senate, were talked over at length and Sena-tor Lorimer said he had never asked Mr. Hines to work for him and in fact did not think Hines knew enough about politics to be trusted in such a capacity.

The now famous message which Hines is said to have carricd to Washington to Governor Deneen to the effect that President Taft, Senator Penrose and for mer Senator Aldrich were anxious to see Lormier elected, was discussed again and Senator Lormire said the first he knew of such a message was when Hines delivered it.

"Is Hines the sort of a man who would be selected to carry out a delicate political mission?" asked Senator Jones.

'Certainly not by me," returned Mr. Lorimer. "Hines and I were friends, but I never felt to be made in the Supreme Judi-I could ask him to use his time cial Court, and if the contention

Gave Up Hope

"I suffered five years, with awful pains, due to womanly troubles," writes Mrs. M. D. McPherson, from Chadbourn, N. C. "They grew worse, till I would often faint. I could not walk at all, and I had an awful hurting in my side; also a headache and a backache.

I gave up and thought I would die, but my husband urged me to try Cardui, so, I began, and the first bottle helped me. By the time the third bottle was used, I could do all my work. All the people around here said I would die, but Cardui relieved me."

The ARDUI Woman's Tonic

For more than 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings, and making weak women strong and well. During this time, thousands of women have written, like Mrs. McPherson, to tell of the really surprising results they obtained by the use of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women.

Cardui strengthens, builds, restores, and relieves or prevents unnecessary pain and suffering from womanly troubles. If you are a woman, begin taking Cardui, today.
