THIRTY YEARS OF SOUTHERN UPBUILDING

Only by contrasting the South of today with the South of thirty years ago can one get a viewpoint from which to study the progress that has been made and to forecast the future. Marvelous things have been achieved. Still more marvelous achievements will be made. Much has been done, but there are limitless resources to be developed; limitless opportunities to be utilized.

The cumulative power of the work for Southern upbuilding of the last third of a century is beginning to have its full effect. The attention of the whole world is now being centered on the South. As never before, capitalists, manufacturers, merchants, investors, farmers and health-seekers are studying the South.

Without fully understanding the work of the past thirty years no one can correctly measure the possibilities of the future. One must know the progress made and the resources in soil, climate, minerals and water-powers awaiting utilization, in order to rightly understand the situation. In order to meet this need, the Manufacturers Record is preparing to publish, in celebration of its thirtieth birthday, "Thirty Years of Southern Upbuilding," under which general title will be graphically presented the advance in the material upbuilding of this section, with a broad survey of its vast and varied resources and advantages.

The publication will be epoch-making. Into it will be gathered a more complete and comprehensive survey of what has been accomplished and of what will be achieved than has ever before been presented to the public.

Every man interested in any way whatever in the South, whether living in this section or in the North, or the West or abroad, will necessarily want that publication. He will need it. It will contain facts which he can secure nowhere else. It will be a treasure-house. For years to come it will be consulted by managers of great industrial and investment interests seeking to make their plans for the extension of their operations along intelligent lines. It will be studied by students of economic history, by writers and speakers, educators and public generally, who find it a storehouse upon which to draw.

Every man interested in the progress of the South should have a bound copy for his library, as well as a copy for his office.

The price of this thirty-year anniversary publication will be, in paper cover, 50 cents; in cloth, $1.25, and in Russia leather, $2.

The South as viewed by people of other sections will prove an especially valuable feature. This will be covered by important articles and letters by many of the foremost experts and leaders in finance and industry outside of the South. They will tell how the South is regarded in scientific circles and in the financial and industrial centers of the country.

WANTS A SQUARE DEAL

In a recent issue the Biblical Recorder calls attention to the poor system of public schools in North Carolina and shows how conditions could be improved. The Recorder says that the country boys and girls have advantage of ninety-three days' school term a year, and as a matter of fact, many of them have only eighty days, and in many instances the schools are so far apart the small children cannot attend in the wet or cold weather. The Recorder says:

"North Carolina is not giving the boys and girls of its elementary schools a square deal. In proof, let us make three comparisons.

"(1) Compare our schools with those of other States. In his Foundee's Day address at the Greensboro Normal sometime ago, Mr. Clarence Poe stated that the average child outside of North Carolina has a 50 per cent better chance for an education than the average boy or girl in the State. The average length of the school term in North Carolina is 101 days, while in the entire United States it is 155. Japan, a heathen country, with one tenth of our wealth gives its country boys and girls a term of ten months. In North Carolina, the country boys and girls are getting 93 days, for the 101 days include both rural and city schools.

"(2) Consider the State's distribution as its educational funds. For the benefit of the 735,000 children of school age in its borders the State gives annually $225,000 to its elementary schools, and $604,500 to its higher educational institutions. In other words, out of the State Treasury is going more than $100 annually to each student in the higher institutions, about $12 to each student in the high schools, and only 30 cents for each student in our elementary school.

"(3) Think also of the State's sources of revenue for its educational work. The law requires every man to pay 21 cents on the $100 for State purposes; but out of this State fund thus impartially collected the Legislature gives back unequally to the children as above stated. Moreover, the last legislature ignored the need and call of the public schools for more money out of the State Treasury; for though it made an advance from 18 to 29 cents on the $100, this does not come out of State funds; but is an extra tax levied, collected and spent in each individual county.

"Manifestly, our common schools are not getting from the State what they deserve. We are profoundly convinced that they should have much more money out of the treasury than at present in order to have more competent teachers, better equipment, and longer terms.

"To the next Legislature we look for improvement here. And this good hour is the time for the people of North Carolina to see that no man sent to Raleigh next winter who will ignore the common schools or refuse to give them a square deal."—Caucasian.

MAYOR GAYNOR GIVES ADVICE TO THE GIRLS

New York, Jan. 31.—Leap year possibilities and the proper time to boil eggs were among topics discussed by Mayor Gaynor in an address today before 126 girls of the Senior class in a public school.

"The tidy woman who knows how to sing a little, and dance a little, and jump through the hoop a little, if necessary, and knows how to cook—she is the woman worth having," said the Mayor.

Other excerpts from his advice to the girls:

"Look as pretty as you can."
"Be able to write a nice gossip letter."
"Don't trouble yourself about the future. You will come out all right."
"Learn how to make your own dresses and your own hats."
The Mayor was shown an exhibition of cooking that some of 14-year-old girls had done and he asked them how long it would take them to cook him a egg.

"Six minutes," a girl answered, and the Mayor fled in dismay.

A treasury official says that the average life of a one-dollar bill is fourteen months. The few that come our way are usually broken about fourteen seconds after we get our hands on them.

Caught in a Rain.

Douglasville, Tex. — "Five years ago I was caught in the rain at the wrong time," writes Edna Rutherford, of Douglasville, "and from that time, was taken with dumb chills and fevers, and suffered more than I can tell. I tried everything that I thought would help, and had four doctors, but got no relief. I took Cardui, the woman's tonic. Now, I feel better than in many months." Cardui does one thing and does it well. That's the secret of its 50 years of success. Try Cardui.

Blood Was Wrong

All women, who suffer from the aches and pains, due to female ailments, are urged to try Cardui, the reliable, scientific, tonic remedy, for women. Cardui acts promptly, yet gently, and without bad effects, on the womanly system, relieving pain, building up strength, regulating the system, and toning up the nerves. During the past half century, thousands of ladies have written to tell of the quick curative results they obtained, from the use of this well-known medicine.

TAKE CARDUI The Women's Tonic

Mrs. Jane Callahan suffered from womanly trouble for nearly ten years. In a letter from Whiteville, N. C., she says: "I was not able to do my own housework. My stomach was weak, and my blood was wrong. I had backache, and was very weak. I tried several doctors, but they did me no good. I used Cardui for 3 or 4 months, and now I am in the best health I have ever been. I can never praise Cardui enough." It is the best tonic, for women.

Whether seriously sick, or simply weak, try Cardui.
