Entered as second-class matter May 20, 1908, at the post office at Burlington, North Carolina, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Wednesday, Mar. 6, 1912.

The spring girl who was about ready to make her bow is driven back into her furs and muffs.

Be it Taft or Roosevelt when the choice is made either will receive the support of the Republican party.

The Baltimore American says: "One year from yesterday Mr. Taft will be again inducted into the office he has so industriously filled, that is, if the date isn't changed in the meantime."

If the Charlotte Observer can mold sentiment and mold enough of it, Underwood will be the nominee for the Democratic Presidency. Thus far Wilson is in the lead, with Clark a close second.

All contestants in the Dispatch contest must turn in their money as they collect it. But they need not turn in their votes. We want all subscribers paper to start as soon as the money is paid in. The sooner the subscription starts the sooner it ends, and we are not in the News paper business for fun. The contest was not put on for fun, but for the purpose of adding new friends to the papers subscription list, and to collect the amounts due from old subscribers. These magnificent prizes cost money and lots of it, they are the best money can buy, they are well worth the time that it will take to win them. There is plenty of time to begin work, no one is so far ahead that some hustler cannot overtake them, make up your mind at once enter the race and then hustle to win.

Some one is going to do some nice joy riding this summer, some one is going to have diamonds flashing, some one is going to do some fancy sewing upon a machine that did not cost them much, some one is going to have their best room, set off with a nice bed room suit, some one is going to secure a business education without cost to them, some one is going to have a nice lounging couch so that when they feel bad they can recline easily and comfortably, some one is going to have a most powerful and dangerous weapon to scare the burglars away and thus protect their valuables, is this some one going to be you. Get into the contest and win one of the grand prizes. Never stop until you are the proud possessor of one. It's dead easy once you get started. Enter now, don't let your neighbor get ahead of you, delays are dangerous, get in the race now. Do it today.

No school today, no rural mails very little business, everything tied up on account of the heavy snowstorm. Verily the ground hog not only knows his business, but is always on the job.

The faith of the believers in the ground hog theory, is above par these days.

Orange County Bond Issue.

A bond issue of $250,000.00 will be voted on in Orange County in the near future for the building of macadam roads. Since Orange is our sister county and her people are our people we naturally feel a deep interest in her industrial developments and improvements. Knowing the nature of people, it will doubtless be a difficult task for those who favor the issue to carry it, which should be done even at the sacrifice of much time on the part of those who are working for its success. The progress of a section or neighborhood may be truthfully judged by its number of miles of macadam roads and rural telephone lines. What County in the state that has issued bonds for the improvement of its highways would undo the act? But when the people are asked to vote for a bonded indebtedness which to make these improvements are pessimistic and oft times chronic kickers. Should we be in a position to influence any one to assist in this road improvement not only in Orange County but any where we would gladly give unlimited space in our columns. That our sister county Guilford on the west stands among the first in the good road movement and that our county Alamance is making strides along this line we trust Orange will keep the ball rolling and that we may at no distant day have a state high way from mountains to the sea. May the people of Orange put forth a determined effort for the success of this move which if lost will be lost for years to come.

The Last Teachers' Meeting for the Season.

The last meeting of the Alamance Teachers Association for the scholastic year 1911-12 was held in Graham on last Saturday. The day was fair and pretty; but the attendance was not quite as large as usual. This the last session maintained the high standard of interest already set by the Association. The main items discussed were Gradation of the School and keeping of the Register. Both items were treated in general conference and much vital information was given. It was decidedly in evidence that proper Gradation determines no small part of the school success. Several items pertaining to the conclusion of the years work was mentioned by the Supt. Prominent among these was the announcement of an examination soon to be held at several places over the county for the graduation of those students who have completed the Public School course. The exact date and places for these examinations will be announced soon.

Now that we have a real live chamber of commerce good results may be expected. Mr. W. E. Sharpe is President, and Mr. J. W. Cates is secretary, they have about 40 members, and their secretary is paid a salary, this begins to look like business. The Dispatch is at your service gentlemen, we are willing to help de boosting, as long as you will help do the pushing.

The Burlington post office will be made a postal savings depositary April 1st, dig up your hidden wealth and get ready to place it in the keeping of Your Uncle Samuel where it will not only be safe, but you will receive two per cent interest per annum, you can deposit from one dollar up to five hundred. No person can deposit more than five hundred dollar.

The ground hog does not have to say I told you so it is here to show for its self.

You may get the $10 in Gold, which will positively be rewarded to the lucky person on Maach 23 instead of March 12th as previously advertised. Grammatical.

An Alabama negro, who had spent several years as a servant in a New York family, returning to his home, attempted to instruct members of his family in correct usage, especially in their language. One day at the table his brother said to him: "Gimme some 'lasses, Sam." "You must not say 'lasses," corrected Sam. "You must say molasses." "What is you talkin' 'bout?" grunted his brother. "How's I gwine to say mo' 'lasses when I ain't had none yet?"—McCall's Magazine.

Any More of this third-term talk and we may expect some spiritualistic rappings from George Washington.
