

HAW RIVER ITEMS.

Dr. Wicker preached a most excellent sermon at the Christian church Sunday morning. He gets better.

We are hoping the ground hog has gone and that gentle spring has come and the mud is drying away.

The river was higher than it has been in a long time. No damage here that we have heard of.

Despite the rain and flood J. H. Blackman, Sr., did on last Thursday the 14th go to Reidsville and entered the home of Mrs. Minnie Adams and took her by the hand and went into the presence of a priest (we did not learn his name) and were made one according to the Divine institution. They came to his home Friday. He somewhat surprised many of us. May their journey through life be a pleasant one. Mrs. Blackman is kindly remembered as Mrs. Adams and before that she was Miss Minnie Gillespie, a very charming lady. The Esq. was fortunate in winning her hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Clark are rejoicing with exceeding great and unspeakable joy and altogether full of love, on the arrival of a ten lb. boy in their home Saturday night. Congratulations to them.

Our Rural carrier was water bound Friday, last. Some of the patrons were disappointed but he could not help it.

Mrs. J. V. Wynn of Danville, Va., with three sweet little girls spent a few days last week very pleasantly with her aunt Mrs. G. W. P. Cates. She left Thursday evening for her home in Danville Va. We hope her visit was full of enjoyment and she will come again.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Jobe are enjoying happiness in the superlative degree. Despite the dark cloudy days and heavy rain and high water the sun did shine in their faces. The gentleman arrived Saturday night and Mr. Jobe insisted on proclaiming the event from the top of Trolinwood factory. Congratulations to them.

Mr. W. J. Thompson

lington was in town Monday shaking hands with his many friends. We were glad to see him.

The sheriff was after taxes Monday. He says the taxes must come. Taxes and death are certain.

We learn that a young man who lives near Watson and drives a bay horse and hitches near the millinery store is trying to purchase an interest in the store. We don't blame him.

Mr. J. C. Lloyd was in town Sunday shaking hands with his many friends but soon made his way to East Trolinwood where valuable attraction awaited him.

Her many friends will regret that Miss Ila is still confined to her room at her sister's Mrs. S. A. Vest. She seems to be improving and we hope she will soon be out again. She is missed so much at the graded school.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. D. Johnston were in town for a while Monday. We were glad to have them.

Mrs. B. Goodman of Burlington is spending awhile with her sister Miss Julia Blackman.

Alf Simpson was in town awhile Saturday.

Miss Lillie Brewer spent Sunday in Whitsett.

Mrs. G. G. Bivins left Wednesday for her home in Efland.

Miss Julia Blackman spent Thursday in Burlington.

Miss Ila Stratford who has been visiting at the home of W. H. Trolinger returned to her home in Greensboro Saturday morning.

Mr. Monroe Lasley of Lombville spent Sunday night with his sister Mrs. S. C. Modlin left Monday for his home.

Sparks Circus Coming.

On Saturday of last week the General Advance Representative for the Sparks shows was in town making contracts and paving the way for the coming of the big circus. Immense quantities of provisions of all kinds were contracted for from our local merchants, and Saturday, April 13th is the date the big show is to exhibit here.

From now until show day hardly a day will pass but what one or more agents of the circus will be in town looking after details, promoting public interest and thoroughly advertising the surrounding country. This circus employs over 50 people in the department of publicity alone.

The advance man, who is a very genial gentleman, volunteered the information that April 13th, the date of the circus is here happens to fall on the regular weekly salary day of the show, and that the 300 and over employes with the show would be paid the aggregate sum of $6000—a tidy little bunch of money to be turned loose in our midst.

The circus agent has in his possession many newspaper criticisms of the show and they all speak in glowing terms of the excellent entertainment given and the honorable methods employed by the show management in doing business with the public—no gambling or short change artists being allowed among its employes.

Our people will undoubtedly turn out en masse if the weather is at all favorable.
