

HAW RIVER ITEMS.

The glorious Easter dawned on us perhaps not as dark as in former years as we have learned something of its meaning as we try to look beyond the grave.

Vernon Garner took Miss Bessie Coleman and led her into the presence of J. H. Blackman J. P., and he spoke the words that made them one.

Mr. Willie Purcell of Elon College spent Easter with his parents.

We regret to learn that Mrs. J. A. McClure is confined to her room with Lagrippe.

Mr. C. F. Tew who has been paying visits to woo Miss Lela Portfields hand and was fortunate to win her last Wednesday evening. They went to Burlington into the presence of Rev. J. D. Andrew, and he spoke the words that made them one. We hope they will have all the joys of married life.

Alf Simpson spent Easter with his parents Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Simpson.

The Grey horse that has been away from his accustomed place and we wondered if the dead has showed up again Miss Lizzie please explain for his long absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Bivens of Hillsboro spent Easter with Mrs. Bivens parents Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McClure. Mrs. Bivens will remain a few days with her mother who is quite sick.

Quite a gloom settled over our town Saturday evening when it was said that Tom Willie McClure was dead a young man of 19 summers he was bright and promising and was a lovely boy and was loved by all who knew him. The funeral was conducted by Revs. G. L. Currey and J. C. Hocutt at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. John McClure and was laid away to rest in the presence of a large number of people to await the Resurrection morn. Farewell Tommie till we meet again.

On last Thursday evening our town was shocked when it was learned that Mrs. Nancy Williams was dead her death was very unexpected. Oh how sad for the mother to be taken away from the little children. She left three small ones and her husband to mourn her loss she was a member of the Baptist Church. Thus Easter brought with it both joy and sadness to many a home.

Rev. G. L. Curran began a series of meetings here Monday night he did not have any other minister to help him everyone invited.

Mrs. Bell Todd and Miss Moore of Durham spent Easter with Mrs. Todds sister Mrs. John P. Cates they returned to Durham after a pleasant visit.

There was a great deal of visiting both going and coming.

There seemed to be much interest in the ball game Monday evening.

Miss Alva Clayton of Brevard one of the efficient teachers in the Graded School left Saturday morning for her home the School having closed Friday last. She was a popular young lady and we suspect she carried somebodys heart with her.

Thrilling Experience.

To hear the thunderous roars of the mnn-eating kings of the forest, to feel their hot breath wafted through the barred windows of a tiny cabin in the jungles is certainly thrilling.

Fritz Brunner, the famous animal trainer with the John H. Sparks Shows, which are are to exhibit here next Saturday Apr. 13 was raised in a cabin in the wilds of equatorial Africa. His father was an agent of the Royal Zoological Society of Germany, and spent many years securing specimens for that institution. Hence from childhood Mr. Brunner was accustomed to hear nightly the roars of monster lions, the hideous tiger's growls and the snarling leopards and hyenas, which would engage in deadly combats around the cabin, often hurling their huge weights against its frail walls and scamp-ering over its roof. As he grew up in these surroundings he became a fearless hunter, meeting the wild denizens of the forest face to face and engaging in fierce struggles with the infuriated beasts. He afterwards became a trainer, and his absolute mastery over the brute creation is not equalled by any living man.

A laage steel enclosure will be erected in the center of the exhibition tent, into which the forcious animals will be turned loose. Mr. Brunner will then enter the enclosure, unarmed, and put them through a remarkable series of performances, that will vividly illustrate their tremendous strength and agility. It is a thrilling, hair raising sight and one that you will never forget.

The program of the John H. Sparks Shows is entirely composed of marvelous, expensive and carefully selected features, which make it so vastly superior to all similar exhibitions.

Don't forget the entertainment at Friendship Friday night. Come and you'll enjoy it.

Misses Maude Isley and Alma Graves who spent the winter away teaching are at home for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lewallen made a trip to Greensboro last week to have Mrs. Lewallen's eye treated that she has been suffering with for several days.

C. L. Graves and C. H. Coble are away selling trees.

Thanks to Mrs. G. W. Patterson for butter, J. S. Isley for potatoes, Mrs. W. L. Isley for sausage and Sandy Clay for eggs

The County Commissioners granted the petition of the citizens of Cobles Township in regard to building a permanent road from Alamance Mills to the Oak Grove farm. This road will be built this summer and will be of a great benefit to the people of South Alamance.

We understand that a number of our boys are contemplating on going in the chicken business in the near future. At present Bynum Isley is breeding the Anaconas and White Wyandottes while J. S. Isley is greatly interested in the breeding of Indian Runner Ducks. Any one wishing the best in these varieties will do well to write or see these parties. Also if you want the best strain of White Orpingtons that is out see or write this writer.

R. S. Shoffner has purchased what is known as the C. C. Shoffner Farm, and will move to same this fall.

J. H. Coble is doing some improving about his home in way of building fences and etc. Hope he will do a good job as those No. 10 people are likely to pass there any time.

Reward Offered for Information.

Hillsville, Va., April 7.—Money may prove superior to mountain strategy in capturing Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards, the two outlaws of the Allen clan, still at large. With no definite prospect of locating the fugitives by raiding the mountain side, the detectives are said to be attempting to secure information of the hiding places of the two men by paying $1,000 or more for knowledge that would lead to an immediate arrest. The detectives, it is said, have learned that there are among the 75 or more families near here who are akin to Allens, some who would not be adverse to seeing the outlaws captured, but would demand in return for information absolute silence on the part of the detectives as well as a liberal amount of money. Revelation, it is admitted, would mean death to the betrayer.

The detectives, therefore, in keeping with the idea, are reticent to discuss this phase of a possible plan to capture the outlaws. They tried hard to get information from Jordon E ward, arrested a few days ago on a charge of aiding the fugitives, but he steadfastly scorned all proffers of money.

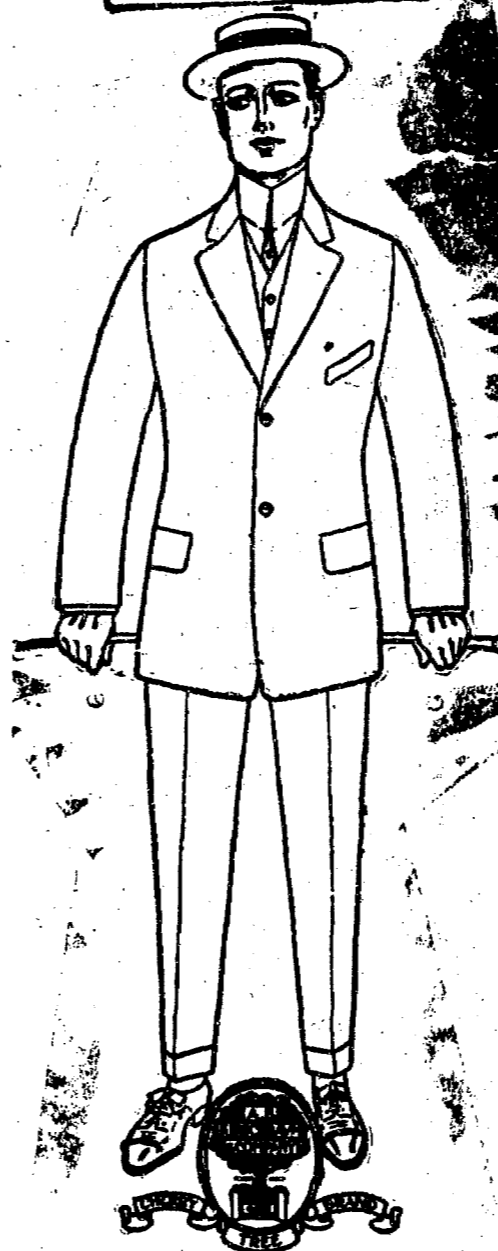

Reuben Edwards, another kinsmen of the Allens, taken into custody yesterday on a similar charge, was released today under a small bond. Rumor tonight was to the effect that the latter had yielded to the grilling of the detectives and that important developments might ensue from his quick release.

The posse reported no new trail today.

Last Thursday and Friday Mrs. H. H. Walker of Union Ridge visited Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Isley on No. 8.

W. S. Bennett is visiting friends at Roanoke Rapids. Hope he will have a pleasant visit.

Miss Margaret Hayes spent Saturday visiting Misses Bertha and Florence Saunders. They went fishing and well they didnt catch over a bushel.

Ernest Rasco of Union Ridge was in town last Saturday. He stood examination for R. F. D. service. We are always glad to see Ernest for he is one of our best friends.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Geringer spent Sunday at J. J. Isley's.

Hope the commissioners will soon do something about the Burch bridge. We are tired of walking two miles every day.

Our young friends Galy Gattis and Annie Isely played the joke on their friends last Saturday evening. Went to Glenco and got married. We wish them a long and happy life. But we hope next time they get married they won't run over and knock down John Suttons mail box. Best wishes to our young friends.

People on No. 8 beyond the river are getting impatient about the bridge over the river near the Burch place. They want to haul in wood and its very inconvenient, to say nothing of the trouble of the poor carrier. We have to keep a team on both sides of the river and walk 2 miles each day rain or shine, mostly rain. Looks like the commissioners ought to get busy and repair the bridge. Work is being done at other places all over the county. Here's hoping they will get busy and that right soon.

After all, a boss is a convenient thing to have in politics. He can be made to shoulder all the blame for officeholders' short comings and to assume the responsibilities for individual inefficiency. What is a boss for if not to be blamed?

Mrs. Long of Greensboro spent Friday in town the guest of Miss Mamie Clapp and Mrs. T. F. Coble
