

women who them

Womem.

designs is as the most suc- m Paris.

the result of gning. strike an individu- found else-ities. and we be captivated grace.

and see

Co.

anan-

s, weekly

ur, Ship-

and meal

r next ly Co.

Valley Flour.

C.

Burlin

A J

Garage

seen

third much portu buying and e pay yo make new.

shape

painter

been 1910

engine

a five

FOR

The Best— Ice Cream! Ice Cream!
Soda! Soda! Soda!

Prescriptions Specialty
Phone 20— We Deliver the Goods —Main Street

FREEMAN DRUG CO.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. Jesse Bradley of Greensboro spent Sunday in town the guest of his brother A. Bradley.

Fresh water melons, Tom Watson variety. Bananas nice and ripe at Merchants Supply Co.

A Car fine bananas, large fat fruit, last chance this season, don't wait. Merchants Supply Co.

Mr. G. L. Holt of Kirksville Mo. who has been taking a course in aurostopathy is spending his vacation at home.

Fia. and Ga. melons, Jamaica bananas, fresh arrivals—every week at The Merchants Supply Co.

Mr. Freeman Neese who has been taking a special course in engraving has returned to his home.

Miss Grace Hoffman left Tuesday for Greensboro from where she will go to the country to spend some time the guest of friends and relatives.

Miss Ruth Thurston who has been visiting at Raleigh is expected home Friday accompanied by her sister Miss Thelma and Mrs. DeBois.

Miss Lizzie Wrenn of Siler City who has been the guest of relatives here left Monday for High Point where she will spend some time visiting relatives.

Mr. Ernest T. Gross son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Gross of this city, who has been with the Victor Hotel at Norfolk has accepted work with the Atlantic Hotel at Morehead.

John R. Hoffman attended the graduating exercises of the nurses at the High Point Hospital Monday night. Miss Flora Mebane of this town being one of the graduates.

Miss Jennie Lea Williams of near Suffolk, Va., who has been attending the Elon College commencement is spending this week the guest of Misses Mary and Beulah Foster.

Mr. Shirley Webster and Miss Oma Wagoner of Glen Raven were united in the bonds of matrimony at 8 p. m. June 6, 1912, in the Reformed parsonage, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. D. Andrew.

Mr. Ross Cheek is arranging to move his barber shop into the Waller Building next to the State Dispatch. The first thing to do when you enter is get a good clean shave, the second subscribe for a good clean weekly newspaper.

Mr. E. M. Quimm visited his wife and son last week.

Miss Bessie McPherson of Liberty R. F. D. is the guest of Misses Foster's this week.

Mr. M. Kennon of Hillsboro spent several days last week with Mrs. R. L. Barnwell.

For sale, Good sixroom two story dwelling on Front Street. Apply to Miss Mary Cates.

Miss Lula Robertson of Orange Grove is spending this week in town the guest of relatives.

Rev. D. McIver was a visitor to the city of Greensboro Monday.

Miss Cockerille who has been serving as milliner for I. J. Mazur will return to New York this week.

Miss Nina Ingle is spending this week the guest of her father at Greensboro and friends at Spencer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ernest Erwin of Morganton are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Gant for a few days.

Mr. Jas. N. Williamson will leave Saturday for Chicago as a delegate to attend the meeting of the Republican National committeemen.

Rev. Dr. Swain president of the North Carolina conference of the M. P. church will make his official visit to the M. P. church at this place Thursday night and preach at eight o'clock.

The Freeman Drug Co. are installing a new sanitary fountain in their store this week. This fountain will not only add attractiveness in appearance but will also be sanitary in every way.

At the Reformed parsonage here at 10 o'clock a. m. June 1st 1912, Mr. Jeff Davis of Person County and Miss Estelles Davis of Alamance County were united in the bonds of matrimony by Rev. J. D. Andrew.

Mr. Ed Hanford who has been doing bridge work in Davidson county came home Tuesday to spend a few days the guest of relatives.

Mr. J. W. Wilson desires to thank his many friends for past favors and patronage during his connection with Wilson & Buchanan.

Mr. W. A. Matkins who has been the guest of relatives in this county for the past month leaves today for his home at Roanoke Rapids, N. C.

The Grotto has recently been enlarged and beginning with the week June 17th the new Grotto Theatre with a seating capacity of four hundred will open.

Misses Mary and Beulah Foster and Bessie McPherson spent Monday at the home of Mrs. Blonda Kernode Pollard of Ossipee.

The members of the Presbyterian church are all invited to meet at the church Friday night where all will endeavor to get better acquainted with each other.

Mr. Jesse Meachem who has been at Stoke's Sanitorium, Salisbury for the past several weeks is expected home this afternoon. We are glad to learn Mr. Meachem is much improved in health.

No amount of culture will make a man stop snoring in his sleep.

A widow has been elected mayor of a town in Wyoming on the ground probably that she would be inclined to give careful consideration to all proposals.

4% OLDEST, LARGEST and LONGEST Bank in Alamance County.
Acts As Executor, Trustee, Administrator,
Guardian, Etc.

Every Property Owner
In Alamance County
Should be acquainted with our Trust Department

Because

It affords the best and safest agency possible for the transaction of any trust business.

Here are a few of the many ways in which we can render timely service to living clients:

We can often give valuable advice in the matter of investments, for instance, because it is a part of our business to keep well posted on such things.

We also take charge of the property of clients who are away from home, or who, for any reason, cannot give their property the attention it requires; we collect rents, pay taxes, etc., and do it more satisfactorily and with less expense than is usually the case under such circumstances.

Whenever you need assistance of any kind along this line, come in and let us have the pleasure of a conversation with you.

It may be to our mutual benefit.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT DEPOSITORY

ALAMANCE LOAN AND TRUST COMPANY
BURLINGTON, N. C. ESTABLISHED 1886

Buy Millinery Now

Morrow, Bason & Green will begin on Wednesday June 12, a Millinery Reduction sale. You have about three months more in which to use anything you buy now. Lots of things can be used any time. Come in and see for yourself. Prices have not been considered.

Here are a few prices to open your eyes. If you are at all economical you will not miss this.

Dress Hat Bargains

$10.00	Hats	$5.00
$7.50	Hats	$3.75
$5.00	Hats	$2.50

Flower Bargains

$3.00	Shapes	$1.50
$2.00	Shapes	$1.00
$1.00	Shapes	$.50

Untrimmed Shapes

$1.00	Flowers	$.50
$.50	Flowers	$.25
$.25	Flowers	$.13

We will be pleased to see you.

Morrow Bason & Green

Sugar 6 cents per pound, in 25 pound bags. Midway Store Co.

For Sale sixty bushels of peas. S. J. Buckner, Kimesville, N. C.

Jas. Underwood who sells Mrs. Joe Persons Remedy will leave tomorrow for Florida.

Miss Mayme Ray of Graham is spending this week the guest of her sister Miss Addie Ray.

Misses Bertha and Verna Cates are the guest of friends and relatives at Greensboro this week.

Buckeye cultivator, good as new at bargain. Coble-Bradshaw Co.

Miss Mable Ellis returned Saturday from Danville where she has been the guest of friends.

Mr. Jerry Strayder who was carried to St. Leo's Hospital Greensboro, Sunday afternoon was operated on Tuesday for appendicitis.

Everybody is happy around Smith & Qualls store because the sidewalks are all on top of the ground.

Mr. John Cates and family of Haw River spent Sunday in town the guest of his sister Miss Mary Cates.

Rev. A. B. Kendall and a large crowd of boys from the Christian church left Monday for a camping outing.

The home of Mrs. Walker the mother of Dr. Walker of Graham was burned Monday. The house and furniture was all destroyed.

Mr. Ed Hanford who has been doing bridge work in Davidson county came home Tuesday to spend a few days the guest of relatives.

Mr. J. W. Wilson desires to thank his many friends for past favors and patronage during his connection with Wilson & Buchanan.

Mr. W. A. Matkins who has been the guest of relatives in this county for the past month leaves today for his home at Roanoke Rapids, N. C.

The Grotto has recently been enlarged and beginning with the week June 17th the new Grotto Theatre with a seating capacity of four hundred will open.

Misses Mary and Beulah Foster and Bessie McPherson spent Monday at the home of Mrs. Blonda Kernode Pollard of Ossipee.

The members of the Presbyterian church are all invited to meet at the church Friday night where all will endeavor to get better acquainted with each other.

Mr. Jesse Meachem who has been at Stoke's Sanitorium, Salisbury for the past several weeks is expected home this afternoon. We are glad to learn Mr. Meachem is much improved in health.

No amount of culture will make a man stop snoring in his sleep.

A widow has been elected mayor of a town in Wyoming on the ground probably that she would be inclined to give careful consideration to all proposals.

Brilliant

Contentment, as it is a short and delightful way, hath much gracefulness and little trouble.

Not in the heavens, not in the midst of the sea, not if thou hidest thyself away in the clefts of the mountains, wilt thou find a place where thou canst escape the fruit of thy evil actions.

When thou hast panted up the hill Of Duty with reluctant will, Be thankful, even though tired and faint.

There is no readier way of bringing your own worth into question than by detracting from the worth of others.

So It Seems.

Some of his opponents were asserting not long since that Woodrow Wilson was one of the running as a presidential candidate but the way, he triumphed over the strongly entrenched machine in New Jersey and the manner in which he is showing strength in other states does not seem to beat out that idea.

Some candidate is missing an opportunity to present himself to the voters as the only genuine reincarnation of George Washington.

Senator Crane knows when he has had enough.

A double wedding is one kind of a four-in-hand tie.

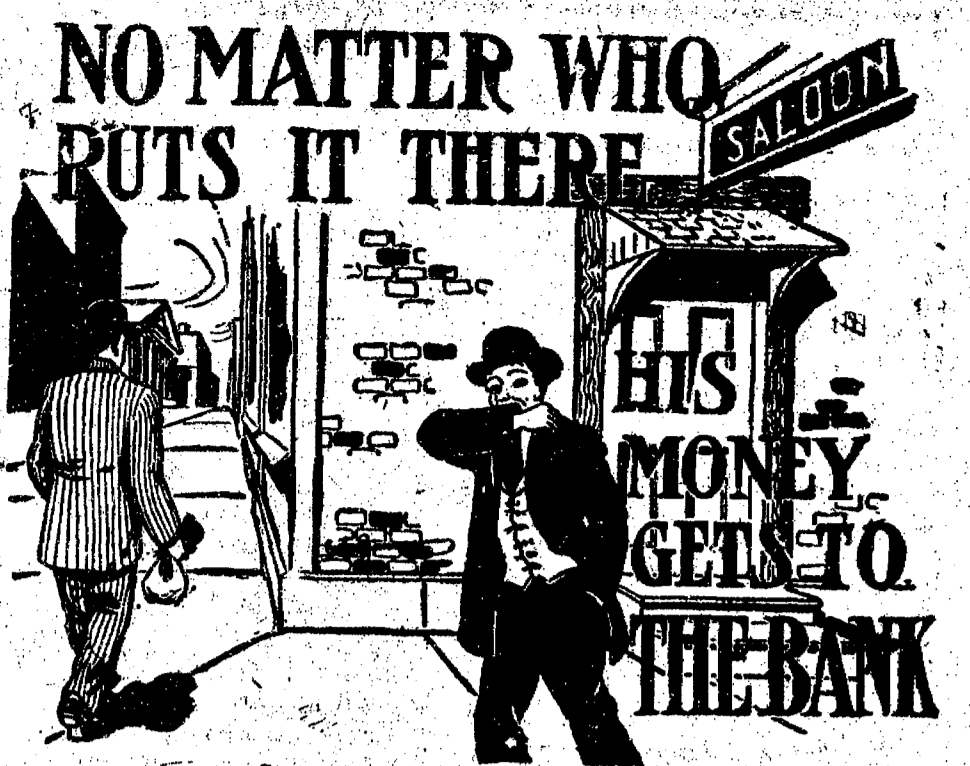

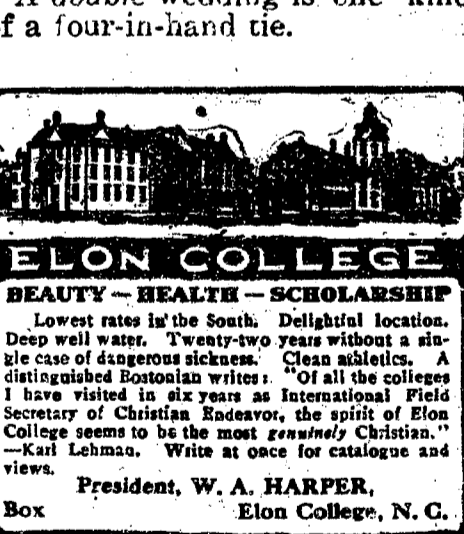

Terrible Picture of Suffering

Clinton, Ky.—Mrs. M. C. McElroy, in a letter from Clinton, writes: "For six years, I was a sufferer from female troubles. I could not eat, and could not stand on my feet, without suffering great pain. I had lost hope. After using Cardui a week, I began to improve. Now I feel better than in six years." Fifty years of success in actual practice, is positive proof, furnished by those who have used it, that Cardui can always be relied on for relieving female weakness and disease. Try Cardui, today, now!

REST AND HEALTH TO MOTHER AND CHILD.

Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP has been used for over SIXTY YEARS by MILLIONS of MOTHERS for their CHILDREN WHILE NOTHING with PERFECT SUCCESS. IT SOOTHES the CHILD, SOFTENS the GUMS, ALLAYS PAIN, CURES WIND COLIC, and is the best remedy for DIARRHOEA. It is absolutely harmless. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

President, W. A. HARPER, Elon College, N. C.

NO matter whether you put your money in the bank or whether it is deposited there by somebody else, it is going to reach there just the same. Put it there yourself, and you will enjoy the fruits of your labor.

The First National Bank
Burlington, N. C.

Great Mid-Season CLEARANCE SALE AT THE BAZAAR MILLINERY STORE, Haw River, N. C.

During the month of June Miss N. B. Murray is offering her entire stock of trimmed hats at, or below cost. Now is the time to supply yourself with a new hat for little money.

Latest and Newest Styles Exhibited.

MISS N. B. MURRAY,
Haw River, N. C.

ICE

Delivered at Present Published Prices.

WHOLESALE and RETAIL

We invite inspection of our up-to-date cork insulated Cold Storage, which will be complete in about three weeks,

Respectfully,
Fuel, Ice and Storage Co.
J. V. Pomeroy, Manager.
Phone 148. R. R. Shop Building.

The Dispatch A Year . . . $1.00

An ad in The State Dispatch will pay. Try one and see.