

E. F. D. No. 3.
(Received too late for publication last week.)

Miss Addie King and Myrtle Thomas visited at Mr. Riley Barker's last week.
Mrs. W. J. Mitchel spent several days last week in Greensboro visiting her daughter Mrs. P. N. Pritchett.
Mrs. Lemly & Mrs. Ruffy have returned to their homes in Salisbury, N. C. after spending two weeks at J. P. Kings.
Miss Florence Saunders spent Saturday & Sunday with Margaret Hayes.
Mrs. Walker of Reidsville and little niece Miss Florence Wilson are visiting at E. K. Isleys.
Revs. S. M. Rankin & John Mc. Walker preached at Stony Creek Church last Sunday to a large and appreciative congregation.
Mrs. W. R. Saunders and daughter Eva spent Sunday at Glen Haven visiting Mrs. Hattie Cheek.
We wonder if there is any one sick at T. B. Barker's. They say that Dr. Chas. goes there right regular. Hope it's nothing serious.
Mrs. L. M. Clymer of Greensboro is visiting at Rev. A. F. Isleys.
We have a smile on now a yard wide if not all wool. The bridge at the Burch place is "crossable" once more. We thank them for the quick work, just 11 weeks, nearly three months to do a little job like that. "Better late than never" though.
Little Misses Margaret and Ruth Pritchett who have spent three weeks at Mr. W. J. Mitchell's have returned to their homes in Greensboro.
Mrs. Elizabeth Somers is visiting at J. W. Somers.
We regret to note the passing of Capt. E. D. Paschal of Rockingham county. He died Sunday night and was buried today (Tuesday) at Camp Springs Cemetery. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.
Miss Bertha Isley spent several days at Elon College visiting her sister Miss Maggie and attending the commencement.

R. F. D. No. 8.

R. J. Matlock of Hookerton, N. C. is spending a week on No. 8 at R. A. Matlocks.
Miss Ethel Somers accompanied by Oscar Leath of No. 2 spent Sunday visiting friends at Puryley, N. C. They had a fine time.
W. M. Kenion of Hillsboro is visiting at our house this week.
Miss Bertha Isley is visiting her sister Mrs. Green in Raleigh, N. C.
Thanks to Mrs. Story, Mrs. Lowe, Mrs. R. L. Foster, and Mrs. Matlock for nice vegetables. We appreciate them. Mrs. A. J. Ro's has our thanks for our first peaches.
Mrs. Hattie Cheek of Glen Haven, spent Monday at W. R. Saunders.
Farmers are very busy now cutting wheat.
Mr. Thos. Gwyn of Altamaha No. 2 started to Burlington last Saturday and was taken seriously ill. He stopped at Ben Simpsons. A physician was called and every thing possible done for his relief. He was able to be taken home Sunday evening. Hope he has recovered entirely by this time.

HAW RIVER ITEMS.

Miss Nellie Maxwell, former teacher of Haw River, but now the teacher of Oxford Singing Class is visiting Haw River with her friends.
Mrs. Fred L. Smith of Salisbury is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Simpson for a few days.
Mr. Verne McLarty and brother Will are visiting their father for a few days. They are jolly good boys, and we regret to see them leave.
Mr. J. C. Lloyd passed through Haw River Sunday on his way to East Trolinwood. 'Tis pleasant to walk the old paths and devise plans for the future.
It is fine weather for making hay and some of our people are taking advantage of it and harvesting wheat and oats.
Mrs. S. A. Roberson of Durham is spending a few days with her children Mr. and Mrs. John P. Cates.
Mrs. Stratford of Greensboro was here last week visiting her father and family Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Trolinger, also Capt. J. A. Trolinger.
Mrs. Teresa Crawford of whom mention was made in our last items, died at Paragould,

Ark., May 31, and her body was embalmed and brought to N. C. and was tenderly laid away in the cemetery at Cane Creek, Orange county, where her father and mother and her first husband sleep quietly until the resurrection morn. She had reached the fortieth mile post in life. She left a husband and two children by her first husband, none by the last, three brothers and six sisters to mourn their loss. She died as she lived, a good woman. She didn't fear death, while the bright seraphic gleam was playing over her face one would think her Savior was by her taking care of her. She was a member of the Baptist church at Greensboro and had not moved her membership when the death angel touched her. The children, Tyree of 14 summers and Lois of 16 are in Greensboro at this writing with their uncle Mr. A. S. Cates. Weep not friends, she will be waiting for you. Dearest mother thou hast left us, here thy loss we deeply feel, but 'tis God who hath bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal. She was laid away in the presence of a large concourse of friends. Rev. Furgus, pastor of Mebane Baptist church conducted the service. Mr. Crawford left for his home in Paragould Wednesday June 5th.

We think think the team at Mebane will take notes for improvement in the future after Haw River give them such a licking last Saturday on their own ground. Good for the Haw River team.
Mr. Jess Sykes, one of our young men, taken Miss Fannie Smith by the hand into the presence of J. H. Blackmon and they were made one. He is fortunate in gaining the hand of such a good lady.
Mr. J. Pritchett, one of Cross Roads' most prosperous farmers, visits Haw River very often. We judge from where he stops he must be interested in the milliner business.
The gray horse was at the usual hitching place Sunday in East Haw River. Judging from his frequent visits his driver finds valuable attraction. We wait patiently for the wedding bells to ring.
Vance Cates of Orange Grove was in town a few hours last week, He was jolly.

Elon College

Mr. C. R. Heater has almost completed his new home on McAdams street.
Mr. Page Shoffner seems to be a stranger.
Commencement passed over quietly.
Mr. Frank Micheal of New York is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Micheal.
Mr. Gratin Sartin got a skinned face when riding a motorcycle this week.
Motorcycles are all the go now you can hardly pass from Elon to Gibsonville for them, they run from 10 miles to as fast as they can go. Why cant it be reduced? Or some one might get hurt at such a speed as they make.
Mr. R. A. Campbell left Thursday night for his home in Maryland.
Mr. A. C. Wicker brother of prof. W. C. Wicker is here on a visit.
Mr. O. D. Paythers spent Monday in Ossipee.
G. E. Cook spent Tuesday last in Durham.
Ask A. H. Haw how he likes stick candy.
G. E. C. is still living.

R. F. D. No. 7.

Mr. John Carden came down from Greensboro Monday and went over to his farm near Mr. W. L. Spoons, Sr.
Mr. Oscar E. Culler, who has been traveling in the eastern part of this State in the interest of the celebrated "Aluminum" cooking and serving utensils, came home last week.
Misses Cyn ha and Verna Garrett, who have been in school at Elton College, spent a few days last week with their aunt, Mrs. Lewis H. Holt.
Mrs. L. H. Holt was called to Yadkin College Saturday on account of the serious illness of her brother Rev. J. N. Garrett.
Mr. L. W. Holt attended the S. S. Convention at Union Ridge Sunday.
There will be all day services at Mt. Hermon next Sunday June 16th. Children's day exercises will be held in the morning at 11 o'clock and the pastor Rev. E. G. Lowdermilk will preach in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Huffman and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Isley were visitors at Mr. E. A. Isleys Sunday.
Mrs. A. B. Holt had the misfortune to lose her watch Saturday afternoon in or near the passenger depot at Burlington. The finder will please return same and receive a liberal reward.
The Sweponville ball team played Bellefont last Saturday afternoon with the usual result, about 16 to 1 in favor of Sweponville. Wheat harvest is on in earnest now.
W. H. Bryan and A. S. Thompson left Tuesday morning for Mt. Airy to do some construction work on steel bridges.
Mrs. Lacy E. Sharpe returned from St. Leo's Hospital, Greensboro, Sunday much improved in health.

John H. Vernon, Secretary.

If one only wished to be happy, it could be readily accomplished; but we wish to be happier than other people; and this is almost always difficult, for we believe others to be happier than we are. — Montesquieu

A man's true greatness lies in the consciousness of an honest purpose in life, founded on a just estimate of himself and everything else, and a steady obedience to the rule which he knows to be right. — Long

Getting Ready to Be
Too many of us are forward to happiness are years instead of the enjoyment possible present. It is well that the time will never this world when we everything we want, and when we want it, way to be happy is to we have to the utmost we go along. It is right up for old age in youth for a rainy day for it come, — sometime, so but it is not right to be energies to this end and until the future there we might enjoy every far too common to a working and saving, themselves all recreation many comforts to lay out to buy more land, to be ger and finer house, of for their children, this when they have acc this they will be happy to take comfort. Th for point may never be or if it is sickness and come first and the dea expected to be happy be gone forever.
How much better to of the good things of li go along; make our bright and cheerful a now. Don't starve to mind body or soul, th will riot tomorrow. Di and scrimp through all years of your life, tha be generous in y life is uncertain, and to make your childr while they are under t roof; to call to that ho agency that will make sweeter and better, th them these, that you them a large bank acc you are gone. Dont parlor shut up and "li kitchen, unless you boys and girls to be leave you. Take tim to rest and to enjoy t of friends. Especially to enjoy the compani your children. It will few years at best tha be with you, and these years of happiness to and them.
If we are ever hap life we must enjoy v day brings us. We grateful and glad for that comes into our patiently bear our tria ing that all, if rightl fit us for the enjoym fact happiness hereaft
