A Woman Who "Hired Out" to Her Husband for a Vacation

The following letter won a prize of $25 offered by The Woman's Albert B. Cummins, expressing Home Companion for the best account of a vacation. It was written by a woman who lives on a farm in Wyoming:

"To begin with, then, I'm a rancher's wife, and a farmer's about vacations but not much about vacations for the woman on the ranch.

"Most women who live on a ranch know something about borses, and can harness and drive that to people who have always worked with their hands, idleness is not rest, and recreation The Great 4th is Coming We Are comes quicker and surer from a change of work; so I hired out to my husband.
