CHARGE, ACCUSED KISS JURORS

Hendersonville, N. C., June 12. for a verdict of not guilty, the seven defendants tried for their McKinley of the Taft headquar- Now. I feel better than in many lives for the murder of Myrtle Hawkins wept for joy today as they leaped to the farmer jurors who had been isolated from their loved ones for 25 days and kissed and embraced them while the shouts of the audience rent the

A member of the jury stated after court that some of them were in favor of murder in the second degree, but after several ballots, the verdict of not guilty was agreed upon this morning shortly after 9 o'clock.

The defendants, Dan W. Mc-Call and daughter, Mrs. Beatrice McCall, and husband, A. B. Mc-Call: George and Boney Bradley and Mesdames Lizzie Shaft and Nora Britt were indicted under

The ringing of the court house hell was the signal for the rendering of the verdict, and when it was received the court room was taxed beyond its capacity by men, women and children, both white add colored, all anxious to learn if the great mystery had been solved.

Commenting on the outcome of the case, John Howard A. Foushee said, that although the county had incurred considerable expense in trying to clarify the mystery, the money was well spent in view of the fact it had been clearly shown that Henderson county citizens and officers were not trying to cover up one of the most mysterious and horrible crimes of modern times.

He vouched for the fact that a most exhaustive effort had case, but despite what ever view not accept any expense money would be taken of his actions, he for myself whatever. the defendants.

BANKS, AUDITED DE F GATE FROM MISS..

Chicago, June 14.—A letter written by Charles Banks, one of the negro Taft delegates-atsupport Roosevelt and was returning "the money placed in my hands, at your suggestion, to defray traveling expenses of some of the delegates from Mississip pi," was given out tonight by Senator Dixon, manager of the Roosevelt campaign, and created a sensation in political circles.

The letter was unaccompanied by explanation from the Roosevelt managers, further than that Senator Dixon received at Roosevelt headquarters this afternoon the following copy of a letter sent today to Hon. William B. McKinley.
