Morton Township S. S. Convention.

Morton Township Sunday Schools convened at Stoney Creek Presbyterian Church on Saturday and Sunday June 29th. and 30th.

The exercises opened promptly each day at 10:00 A. M. with Devotional exercises by the Pastor, Rev. W. O. Sample. There was splendid attendance each day, and much interest manifested.

A good program had been arranged by a committee of ladies of which Mrs. J. Kernodle was chairman.

Besides the business of the delegation, there were several talks made in which Messrs. W. M. Sutton, M. Bennett, W. M. Taylor, J. D. Wilkins, J. C. McCulloch and others figured intelligently.

Miss Ida Simpson a delegate to the State Convention came forward with a good report, classing Alamance county the best county in the state and Morton Township the best Township in the county and this 12th. annual session given Stony Creek the best convention ever held in the Township, as noted by Sec. R. A. Thompson.

Rev. J. D. Andrew very beautifully handled his subject, "The Church and the Child." His talk appealed to all and was very much enjoyed. Rev. Sykes spoke to the teachers on "Equipment and Thoroughness." It was good but we don't think when Pres. Harper got through on the subject of "Teacher Training" there was not much left unsaid that was worth the while. He showed strife to impress it and we hope before another year we may see the effect of his words in all our S. S.

The S. S. and Some Present Day Problems was very ably brought out by Hon. E. S. W. Dameron. Hon. John Vernon spoke on "Organized Work."

Besides the speaking the several S. S. were represented by a special class song. Fairview was represented by a class of small girls in song and a solo by a tiny tot. Bethel was represented by a part of the S. S. in song. Stony Creek was represented by the primary class in song. All were good but special mention might be made of the motion song of the Bethlehem children. Young men from Berea sang a Quartette. There was a good duet by J. W. Gilliam and Miss Lillie Kernodle. A solo by Mrs. Harper also a solo by Prof. Gilliam and a chorus by the Stony Creek choir led by Ross Walker. The entire program was interspersed with music by Stony Creek choir.

A cordial welcome and much hospitality was extended and accepted with much appreciation.

As requested by the program committee the writer wishes to thank each and everyone who honored the occasion and aided in carrying out the program.

A Delighted Attendant.

Veterans At Mebane.

Mr. Editor:-

In response to an invitation from the managers of the Independence Celebration at Mebane, in company with Capt. Jas. A. Turrentine of this city, I had the pleasure of spending the 4th instant in that progressive and enterprising town of Eastern Alamance.

We met there about (150) of our old comrades, and spent our time in living over again in memory, the stirring and thrilling days of the sixties, in doing full justice to a magnificent barbecue dinner, and in watching the various amusements provided by our generous and public spirited hosts for the entertainment of a vast multitude of men, women and children from Alamance and surrounding counties.

It would be impossible to express our full appreciation of hospitality which we so much enjoyed, there being nothing left to be desired, except the absence of some of the "boys" who were conceivable by age or disease that they could not be with us.

The exercises was short and simple. The address by Mr. Dave White, not long, but so heart to the point that we soon felt as if we owned the most of town including furniture factories and all.

Those who had not visited Mebane for some time were astounded at the rapid and substantial growth of that future city of the Piedmont section and the general air of prosperity that pervaded everything.

The entertainment provided for all was superb and would have been creditable to a town of (5,000) population. No expense was spared and no effort on the part of the citizens omitted that would add to our pleasure or comfort. Music and varied amusements for young people, comfortable seats in shady groves for the older ones and a general good time for all.

Hospital and enterprising Mebane, we are under all obligations to you, and we shall carry with us through the remaining years that may be allotted to us the memory of this day of real pleasure and enjoyment, and we wish your progressive and enterprising community the greatest happiness and prosperity.

Sincerely Yours,
J. A. Turrentine

Some Leaders Who Will Not Follow Roosevelt

Washington, July 5.—Progressive Republican Congressmen are preparing to give Col. Theodore Roosevelt the throw down.

All except two or three Senators and Representatives, will decline to join the Roosevelt third party movement.

One or two will support the "Roosevelt electors" in his State, claiming that Roosevelt is the "regular nominee" of the Republican party.

Senator Joseph M. Dixon, pre-convention campaign manager of the Colonel, is the only Senator who seems to be enthusiastic over the Roosevelt plan. Representative Curry of New Mexico who was a Rough Rider in the Spanish-American war, is the only Representative of the House who is showing a real desire to line up with the Colonel.

Inside of a week it is stated that Senators LaFollette, Gronna and other leading Progressive Senators will make formal statements, disavowing any purpose to take part in the organization of a third party. These Senators may not declare for Taft, but they will make it plain that they do not think it is wise to start a third party.

Senators Borah of Idaho, Jones of Washington, Kenyon of Iowa, Brown of Nebraska, Gronna of North Dakota, Cummins of Iowa and LaFollette of Wisconsin will stick to the old ship and try to wrest it from the hands of the reactionaries who now man it.

Without the support of such men as Senators Borah, Gronna, Cummins LaFollette, and Kenyon and Representatives Copper and Lenroot, for Wisconsin, Norris of Nebraska, Cary of Wisconsin, Helgesen of North Dakota, Hanger of Iowa, Hayes of California Kendall of Iowa Wilson of Illinois and LaFollette of Washington. Colonel Roosevelt's party will not get far, it is believed.

The "Touching" of "Daddy."

(Chicago Telegram to The Pittsburgh Post)

"Oh, you daddy; you dear old thing. I've watched the convention everyday for you," (Smack, smack, hug, hug, business of deep emotion.) A sweet slip of a girl with clear blue eyes and baby face, held Samuel Baum a convention visitor from Waterloo, Ia., in most embarrassing embrace.

"Young lady, you have made a mistake," prying himself loose.

"Oh, I am so sorry, you are the very image of my dear, dear daddy," said the impulsive young thing as she hastened away to hide her confusion.

Ten minutes later Baum discovered that his wallet containing $100 had also departed.

A Snappy Age.

(Kansas City Journal)

The young man breezed into the old man's library.

"I met your daughter yesterday," he announced, "and I want to marry her next Friday afternoon at 3:30. She's willing."

The old man turned to his card index.

"Which daughter?" he inquired.

The young man consulted his notebook.

"Its Miss Ethel."

"All right," said the old man. "Make it 4:30 and I'll attend the wedding. I have an engagement at the other hour."

It was so ordered. This is a snappy age.

Woodrow Wilson, The Scholar, In Politics

A native of Virginia, born in Staunton December 28, 1856, son of the Rev. Joseph R. Wilson, a Presbyterian minister.

Educated at Davidson College, the University of Virginia and special course in history and political economy at Johns Hopkins University.

In 1886 he received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from Johns Hopkins for a thesis on congressional government.

Because a member of the faculty of Western University in 1888 and two years later was elected to the McCormick professorship of political economy in Princeton University.

Succeeded Dr. Francis Patton as president of Princeton in 1902. His administration was considered able and progressive.

Elected governor of New Jersey in 1910. His administration has been stormy because of his clashes with the state machine being responsible for delegates James Smith, Jr., Democratic boss, who wanted to be elected United States senator.

A lifelong Democrat, warm friend of the late Governor Cleveland and twice mentioned before for the Democratic nomination for president.

A notable type of the scholar in politics, a student of the theory of government and until he became governor inexperienced in state craft and practical policy ties.

He has always been strenuous opposed to the pass and the machine in politics.

Among his literary works are The State, A Biography of Washington, History of the United States and Division and Reunion and essays on the reconstruction period.

This year's crop of cherries is much like its historic predecessors, the poorer specimens at the bottom of the bag.

A Girl's Wild Midnight Ride.

To warn people of a fearful forest fire in the catskills a young girl rode horseback at midnight and saved many lives. Her deed was glorious but lives are often saved by Dr. King's New Discovery in curing lung trouble, coughs and colds, which might have ended in consumption or pneumonia. "It cured me of a dreadful cough and lung trouble," writes W. R. Patterson, Wellington, Tex. "after four in our family had died with consumption, and I gained 87 pounds." Nothing so sure and safe for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Freeman Drug Co.

Just To See Fire.

Boston, July 2. Because a small boy wanted "to see the engines come," the police allege damage estimated at $50,000 was done by fire in the Charlestown district today. The Boston & Maine Railroad warehouse No. 25 filled with hay, was destroyed and the wagon and carriage stock factory of E. A. Gillett & Sons was badly damaged.

James Welch, 10 years old, was arrested and the police say that upon being questioned, he confessed that he started the fire by throwing a lighted fire cracker into the hay in the warehouse. He was placed in charge of a probation officer and will be taken into the juvenile court later.

Four Men Killed In A Battle On Sunday

Lake Charles, La., July 7.—Four men were killed and four seriously wounded this afternoon in a pitched battle between union timber workers and guards employed by a lumber mill at Grabow, La., a mill town 50 miles north of this city.

The dead are:

Cates, Hall Roy Morton, Edward Brown and an unknown Italian.

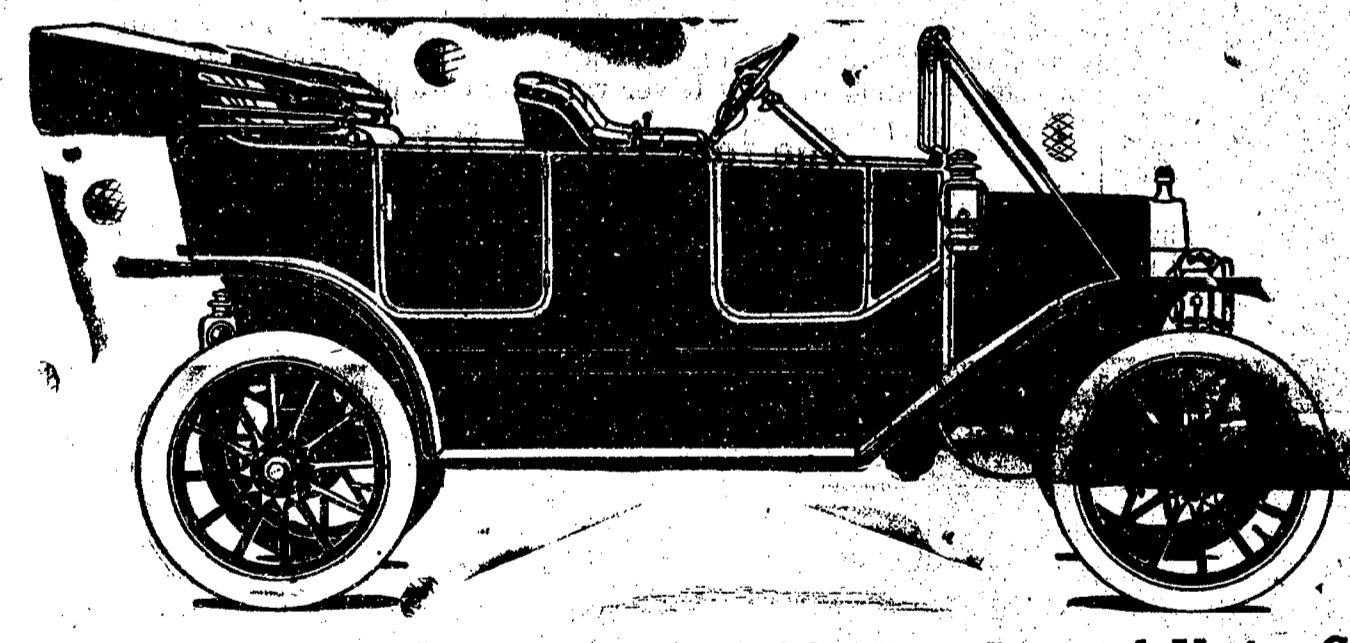

Hall, Morton and Brown were union men.

A party of 200 union men from Deridder, under the leadership of A. I. Emerson, president of the Brotherhood of Timber Workers, to Grabow, where a strike is in progress, to hold a meeting. The proprietor of the mill and his non-union employes met the crowd and in a wordy row that followed some one fired a revolver. This was followed by a perfect fusillade.

Sheriff Reid left immediately on a special train for Grabow, accompanied by the coroner, and a detachment of Company K, Louisiana National Guard, will follow as soon as the soldiers can be assembled.

Trouble has been brewing for some time, and feeling was increased by a recent visit of several Socialists and union speakers to the mill district. The mill at Grabow employs but 60 workmen.
