W. C. T. U. NOTES

EDITORS:
 Mrs. Thos. F. Coble
 Mrs. S. L. Morgan

A writer says "The future of society is in the hands of the mothers. If the world was lost through woman she alone can save it." Perhaps so. No one can deny the influence of women but the men too, must have their share in the work. Do not put the heaviest burden on the weaker vessel. Men can go where, and do what woman cannot if they only will. We expect to give from time to time extracts of Hobson's wonderful speech, The Great Destroyer. It will be well for men and women to get and read the whole of it. It would surely be worth while. Boys and girls should read it also. Untold good would be done if they could be made to realize that the future of the nation depends on them.

EXTRACTS FROM HOBSON'S SPEECH.

In the domain of the individual and in the domain of the state, in both domains everywhere, and all the time, let it never be forgotten that every inch of the ground will be contested, that the struggle with the great destroyer is war that he wages war cruel unrelenting more deadly than any savage war of extermination. No nation has kept this destroyer in its midst and survived. America is not different from the nations of history. The records for 3000 years leave no room for doubt. One or the other must perish. Between America and this great destroyer it is war to the death.

THE LAST STAND OF THE HUMAN RACE.

In America we are making the last stand of the great white race and substantially of any race. If this destroyer cannot be conquered in young America it cannot in any of the old and more generate nations. If America fails the world will be undone and the human race will be doomed to go down from degeneracy into degeneracy till the Almighty in wrath wipes the whole thing out.

We beg every woman especially every mother, who has a son to rear, to study—beginning now—through some lawyer-friend the divorce laws of our state. Before the meeting of the next legislature there is a certain iniquitous law, practically upholding a double standard of morals for men and women, that should be wiped off our statute books. We are sure the State W. C. T. U. will make a fight. Let Burlington mothers be so posted that they shall be able to fight intelligently. A few careful mothers and fathers may be able to teach their boys the sacredness of marriage, the Christian doctrine of divorce, and the single standard of morals for men and women, but woe be to that teaching when the boy grows into young manhood and reads that our great commonwealth has incorporated in its body of laws that which gives license to the blackest of sins. For the boy we plead just now, and in pleading for him we plead for the race. For we have allowed him to "sow his wild oats" through the centuries till they have well-nigh choked the whole harvest. We must rear our boys to be pure as well as our girls or the race is doomed to physical, mental and moral degeneracy.

CLARK TO VISIT WILSON

Washington, July 10.—Speaker Clark may go to Sea Girt Friday evening for a conference with Governor Wilson. Both Mr. Clark and Majority Leader Underwood have acknowledged invitations from the Governor and have replied that they would visit him when the business of the House permitted them.
 If the House adjourns over Saturday this week the Speaker probably will make the visit then. Mr. Underwood way accompany him.

Paradoxically, the Democratic freetraders would fill up the dinner pail by slicing off opportunity for employment.

There is nothing in the world can be called useless. —Brewer

Hilles Getting Ready For Work

Washington, July 10.—Members of the sub-committee of nine of the Republican National Committee, who remained in Washington today for conferences with the national chairman, Charles Hilles, Representative William B. McKinley and other leaders of President Taft's campaign, outlined the program which they expected would be followed on July 19 at a meeting in New York to select a national treasurer and appoint an executive committee and an advisory committee.

It was the sentiment of most of the committeemen here that the advisory committee should be composed chiefly of men not on the Republican National Committee. It seemed to be settled, however, that National Committeeman, William Barnes, Jr. of New York, would be a member. Senator W. Murray Crane, former Representative James A. Tawney, of Minnesota, Senator Norris Brown, of Nebraska, Otto Stifel, of Missouri, and Representative McKinley were all talked of for places. There was a pronounced sentiment in favor of having the progressive element of the party represented.

For the executive committee, John T. Adams, of Iowa, Charles B. Warren, of Michigan, Thomas C. Niedringhaus, of Missouri, and Ralph E. Williams, of Oregon were being considered but other names will be added to the list of available.

The western men are pressing for the appointment of a national treasurer from some middle western or western state. They point out that both Chairman Hilles and Secretary James B. Reynolds are from eastern states. David R. Forgan, of Chicago, who was the Taft leader in the Illinois primary fight was said to be favored by some of the committeemen, though Otto Bannard of New York, and John Hay Hammond, of Washington, were still talked of.

Chairman Hilles was busy today turning over his work at the White House to the assistant secretaries. He probably will go to New York Saturday. Secretary Reynolds went to New York today to arrange for the opening of national headquarters.

Mr. Hilles said today that there would be three headquarters open during the campaign—one (the chief) at New York, the second in Chicago and the third on the Pacific Coast, either at San Francisco, Cal. or Portland, Ore. The headquarters on the Pacific Coast will be something new in campaigns and is Mr. Hilles' own idea. The literary bureau in charge of a well known newspaper man as publicity agent, will be opened, among the first things done after Mr. Hilles arrives in New York, and from this bureau will be managed the stump speakers' tours and the distribution of campaign documents.

It became known today that President Taft has expressed a desire that the committee on notification should perform that ceremony here in Washington, rather than at his summer home, at Beverly. The notification will take place during the first week in August by the committee appointed by the Chicago convention. If it takes place in Washington, the event will be marked by an elaborate social function at the White House. The President's speech of acceptance is looked forward to as a notable one, in which he will sound the Republican battlecry. He will also deal with the tariff and the trusts, and squarely take issue with the Democratic plank of tariff for revenue only. The President will declare for federal supervision and regulations of trust as a curb for these evils.

Who Will Be the Next President— Read the Book.

We take pleasure in announcing that any of our readers can secure the above vest pocket book free of charge by sending 2c. for postage to D. Swift and Co., Patent Lawyers, Washington, D. C. This book contains tables showing which states each presidential candidate carried in 1908, the number of Democrats and Republicans elected by each state to Congress in 1908 and 1910, the leading events of the life of each President, from Washington to Taft. It also gives the population of each state according to the census reports of 1890, 1900 and 1910, the population of about 20 of the largest cities in each state, a calendar for 1912 and 1913 and much other useful information.

Caught In a Rain.

Douglasville, Tex. — "Five years ago I was caught in the rain at the wrong time," writes Edna Rutherford, of Douglasville, "and from that time, was taken with dumb chills and fevers, and suffered more than I can tell. I tried everything that I thought would help, and had four doctors, but got no relief. I took Cardui, the woman's tonic. Now, I feel better than in many months." Cardui does one thing and does it well. That's the secret of its 50 years of success. Try Cardui.

Terrible Picture of Suffering

Clinton, Ky.—Mrs. M. C. Mc Elroy, in a letter from Clinton, writes: "For six years, I was a sufferer from female troubles. I could not eat, and could not stand on my feet, without suffering great pain. I had lost hope. After using Cardui a week, I began to improve. Now I feel better than in six years." Fifty years of success in actual practice, is positive proof, furnished by those who have used it, that Cardui can always be relied on for relieving female weakness and disease. Try Cardui, today, now!

Spit, Quit, Fit.

Hines, Ala.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Eula Mae Bradley says: "I used to spit up all I ate. I was tired and sleepy all the time. My head ached, and I could hardly drag around. Since taking Cardui, this has entirely quit, and now I feel quite fit." Mrs. Bradley suffered from nervous indigestion. Cardui builds up the nervous system, and strengthens the womanly constitution. That's why Cardui helped Mrs. Bradley and why it will help you. Try it.

A National Searchlight

THE SENIOR PARTNER was disturbed. The little boy of one of the firm's traveling men was critically ill. The distracted mother begged that her husband be notified.

A Long Distance Bell Telephone call located him, but he had gone to a neighboring town to sell goods.

Would the Telephone people reach him? The Telephone people would try. They found him and he started for home at once.

The Universal Bell Telephone System is a national searchlight. It seeks the distant person for you and locates him if it is possible.

By the way, have you a Bell Telephone?

WILSON TO LEAD FIGHT FOR TAFT

Washington, July 9.—Mr. D. Hilles, at present the secretary to President Taft, today unanimously elected chairman of the Republican National Committee, and Mr. Reynolds, at present a member of the Tariff Board and an assistant secretary of the Treasury, was elected.

No better combination could have been chosen to lead President Taft's campaign. Mr. Hilles is a man of executive ability and his experience in the White House and President Taft's private life has made him thoroughly acquainted with the political situation in every state. Mr. Reynolds, before coming to Washington as an assistant secretary of the central committee of Massachusetts and his intimate knowledge of national politics, for nowhere has he better played than in Massachusetts.

Any lack of intimate acquaintance with the most practical of the most practical politics may suffer at the beginning of his campaign will be his efficient assistant, Mr. Reynolds. Moveover, during his years' service as a secretary of the Treasury Reynolds was in charge of the knowledge of the working tariff laws, a knowledge further increased by his position on the Tariff Board. Mr. Taft has decided to make Reynolds's knowledge is a valuable advantage to the campaign.

Mr. Hilles' choice of Reynolds as a surprise. When Mr. Reynolds was elected to the national convention of Chicago a few weeks ago generally understood that Mr. Hilles would manage the campaign. The subcommittee met yesterday morning to develop Mr. Hilles was indifferent to the President Taft served as the best man for the place. Mr. Hilles was regretting declining to be consulted at the White House last night. Mr. Hilles and other Republican leaders and committee members.

After midnight, Mr. Hilles requested a conference until nearly 3 o'clock this morning, with the members of the subcommittee. The subcommittee was reviewed and each of the committee expressed his opinion he had formed as a result of his interchange with the guest of the evening. Several of the committee members favor the election of Mr. Hilles, claiming that he would an aggressive campaign without hostility to Roosevelt and his friends in New York, because of his feeling in the matter of the members of the committee. Mr. Barnes's ability would invite criticism. Mr. Hilles' name was brought forward in spite of objection.

At 9:30 o'clock this morning the committee met at the Hotel and again went over the situation. When they agreed upon Mr. Hilles as was for him to obtain consent. They returned and soon after word was sent to them that Mr. Hilles yielded to the President's decision. Thereupon the committee unanimously elected Mr. Hilles as chairman.

Mr. Reynolds was the suggestion of Secretary of Massachusetts' State manager in all the of party leaders at the convention in Chicago. Crane will look after land, where there is Mr. Reynolds, upon a political Mr. Crane has for many years.

The committee will meet in New York on Friday it will choose a treasurer among them John Hammond, of Washington G. Dawes, of Chicago.
