JUSTICE CLARK IN GREENSBORO

Greensboro, July 20.—In opening campaign for the senatorial nomination, Chief Justice Clark addressed a Greensboro audience last night. He spoke, in part, as follows:

"I wish to state unequivocally that I shall say nothing in this canvass that will reflect upon the personal character of either of my competitors. They have lived clean lives. They have been and I hope still are, my personal friends. It is no reflection upon them that I aspire to the same office which they desire. Their characters are not in question and will not be an issue in this campaign. Their public acts are public property, and we have a right to scrutinize closely any measures which they have advocated and for which they will stand if elected to the senate."

Senator Simmons was chairman of the Democratic executive committee back in the nineties and he retained that position long after he became senator and indeed, I believe until his second election to that high position. He has a large acquaintance and indeed I may say, organization among those who organize voters in the different townships and counties in behalf of the candidates.

Governor Kitchen for 12 years represented the Fifth congressional district in Congress, and of course, had an organization to aid him. In his canvass for governor he extended this through the state and since he has been governor he has added to this the natural gratitude of the men whom he has appointed to office and their friends and also without reflecting upon his exercise of the pardoning power in any way, he has in many causes and good will of men at whose instance he has granted pardons.

For many years it was understood that these two gentlemen were as pirants for the office of senator and that these strong battalions, well organized by their friends expected to face other in this contest. When a Governor Aycock and myself announced ourselves candidates, a cause intense astonishment to both sides. They considered it as rash and inconsiderate on our part.

"The road to the United States senate is open to any man whom the people wish to send there. I do not need to have any hat chucked by any set of men. In the language of Mr. Roosevelt, it is in the ring and will be there when the sun goes down on November 5."

LOGICAL.

"How old is your baby brother?" asked little Tommy of a play mate.

"One year old," replied Johnny. "Huh!" exclaimed Tommy. "I've got a dog a year old and he can walk twice as well as that kid can."

"Well, he ought to," replied Johnny: "he's got twice as many legs."—Judy

HER DEATH CAUSED BY GRIEF FOR SON

Arabian, Ga., July 29.—Grief over untimely death of her son, Jacques Futrelle, the well known writer, who went down in the Titanic disaster, is believed to be the direct cause of the death of his mother, Mrs. Linnie Futrelle; who died here yesterday.

Futrelle visited his mother just before leaving for Europe. Mrs. Futrelle had grieved incessantly since the death of her son. She kept up bravely as long as there was hope that he might have been rescued. For the last several weeks her decline has been steady, and her thought had reverted constantly to the tragic fate of her boy.

Woodrow Wilson Object of Attack.

Washington July 26.—Representative Rodenberg, Republican of Illinois, made a political speech in the House today attacking Governor Woodrow Wilson. Mr. Rodenberg quoted long extracts from Governor Wilson's history of the American people in which the writer referred to Thomas Jefferson as "an aristocrat who deliberately practiced the arts of a politician" and said that "Washington found him a guide who needed watching."

Governor Wilson's writings on the immigration question Mr. Rodenberg reviewed at length. Mr. Rodenberg quoted Governor Wilson's praise of Chinese and declared "that there must have been rejoicing in every Chinese laundry in the United States" when the Governor was nominated at Baltimore.

Governor Wilson's view of William J. Bryan as expressed in the much talked of "Joline letter" and his references to Mr. Bryan's participation in the Democratic convention of 1896, Mr. Rodenberg reviewed at length.

Mr. Rodenberg concluded his speech with praise for President Taft.

"His administration needs no defense," said Mr. Rodenberg. "In him they recognize the dignity and the majesty of an honest man who has faithfully upheld the best traditions of the Republican party."

Mr. Rodenberg closed with the quotation "We stand at Aramagaddon and we battle for the Lord."

L. M. Clymer and family are enjoying a vacation this week by camping out. They have established themselves near the Masonic and Eastern Star home, west of the city, and are very comfortably situated. They have as their guests Mr. J. H. Isley and family, of Burlington, and Mr. H. D. Huffines and family, of Reidsville.

Greensboro Patriot.

"You have been a very naughty boy today Harold," said his mother and, "I shall tell your father when he comes home." "Oh, of course!" You never could keep a secret."

STRANGER KILLED AT SPENCER

Spencer, July 31.—Lee Harrison of Spencer, a fireman on the Southern railway between this place and Greenville, was dangerously injured near Gastonia last night. It is stated that when his train stopped for some length of time for orders he sat down on the main line to rest and a fast train speeding by struck him a terrific blow. The extent of his injuries have not been learned in Spencer though his condition is said to be critical. He was engaged to be married to a young lady in Spencer in about two weeks. He is a son of a well known citizen in Rowan.

John Edwards, the stranger who was knocked down an embankment near Spencer late last evening sustaining fatal injuries, died at the Whitehead-Stokes sanatorium last night before an operation was performed. It was seen from the first that his injuries were serious both legs horribly broken and mashed one arm broken besides internal injuries sustained when struck by the rear end of a caboose car. No clue was gained as to who the man was other than to a newspaper correspondent shortly before he died that his name was John Edwards and his home in England. He said he was 76 years old and claimed to be walking on a wager from New York to New Orleans. He made the appearance of having seen better days, but said he had no people. The remains were taken in charge by the railroad officials and prepared for a decent burial.

Southern Democrat To Run With Colonel.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 31.—A movement is on foot within the National Progressive party to name a Democrat from the South as Colonel Roosevelt's running mate, Colonel Roosevelt said today, if an available man can be agreed upon.

Statements made by Colonel Roosevelt and Senator Dixon yesterday that John M. Parker of New Orleans probably would be permanent chairman of the Progressive convention were erroneous, the Colonel said today. He said they overlooked the fact that Mr. Parker was to make one of the speeches seconding his nomination and therefore could not serve as permanent chairman. Another Southern Democrat probably will be chosen.

Murdered Her Sixty-Year-Old Husband.

Charlotte, N. C., July 26.—Mrs V. J. Hartzell of Mecklenburg county, killed her 60-year-old husband near here today. She explained she was enraged at the conduct of her husband and her daughter by a former marriage. The Hartzells had been married twenty-five years.

Teacher—"If you were getting dinner for six people and had five potatoes, how would you divide them to give each an equal share?" Small Sadie—"I'd mash 'em."

To Pumpkin Pie

It is not in North Carolina alone that there abounds either fondness for good food or poetic outpouring relative thereto. In South Carolina, harking back to the period when the two commonwealths were one and long before the hand primary had appeared below the dividing line, similar aptitudes may be seen. We have just come into possession of a fine tribute to pumpkin pie which Dr. T. S. Blake of Ninety-Six, S. C., delivered on Thanksgiving Day of last year;

Rah! Rah! for "punkin pie;" New-fangled stuff may please the eye, But to tickle the plate you can't try Anything better than "punkin pie."

Good for folks, good for dogs, The very thing for cows and hogs Hungry cats will mew and cry When you are eating "punkin pie"

Horses and mules, sheep and goats Will leave off eating corn and oats And join the universal cry, Rah! Rah! for "punkin pie".
